CARRIAGE LUMBER TO CALIFORNIA

Schooners Lahaina and Zampa in the River From Ports to the South.

SAILORS WANT CHANGE AND DRAW THEIR PAY

Lumber Dealers Are More Plentiful Than a Few Months Ago, and Freight Rates From Northern Ports to California Won't Advance.

The schooners Lahaina and Zampa entered today at the custom-house and will pay off their crews this afternoon. Both are in the river to load lumber for California, the former at the mills of the Portland Lumber company and the latter at Vancouver. The Lahaina arrived up early yesterday morning.

It took the lumber dropper 23 days to make the run from San Pedro to the Columbia river, notwithstanding the fair weather, which was the most of the time. Nearly the entire crew will leave here this afternoon, although the men say she is a good vessel, with plenty of food and union wages. They want a change, as most sailors do upon reaching port.

The Lahaina was three days off the mouth of the Columbia river and in company with a big fleet of freighters bound for this port. Among others was the schooner Americana which gave the tug Wallula such a race up the coast Friday morning. The Americana had been in company with the Lahaina for several days on the way up the coast and was close to the tug when the Lahaina was picked up by the tug. The strong breeze sprang up at that time and the Americana stood out to sea.

Freight rates on lumber on sailing vessels remain at $3 a thousand to San Francisco and $3 to southern ports, with about 25 cents more a thousand by steam. Shippers do not believe that quotations will advance at present, because there is more tonnage available now than some months ago, when the freights were $3 and $10. Lumber shipments are as heavy now as ever, but there are more vessels to be had.

A big fleet of schooners that plied in the inland trade has been diverted to the coastwise lumber trade, and to this is principally due the easier tone in the lumber freight market between northern ports and California. Then, again, a large number of new steam schooners have been placed in commission, the latest being the Helene, which commences loading her first cargo here this week.

The steam schooner Aurelia will finish loading lumber at Vancouver today. She goes to San Francisco, from which port she arrived a few days ago.

AN ACT OF BRAVERY

Harry Minsinger Leaps Into River After Drowning Man.

A Greek laborer was saved from drowning in the Willamette river yesterday afternoon by Harry Minsinger, an engineer employed by the Star Sand company, who leaped into the water after securing with a rope and dragged the Greek to shore.

The Greek was working on one of the barges at the foot of Fifteenth street and somehow missed his footing. He was carried quite a distance from the barge by the current and his companions stood and gazed at him without knowing what to do. Minsinger leaped into the cold water as the man disappeared for the second time and reached him when he appeared the third time.

The men on the dock assisted Minsinger in bringing the man to shore.

TOWED INTO EUREKA

Another Steamer Pounds Upon Rock at Humboldt Bar.

Eureka, Cal., March 4.—The steamer Oakland was towed into the bay yesterday by the tug Ranger in an unmanageable condition. She had grounded on the south jetty in trying to make the entrance to the bay and refused to answer her helm. For almost an hour the steamer remained on the rocks, and her officers made every effort to bring her safely into the harbor without the assistance of a tug.

The Oakland went on the rocks about 1,000 feet from the wreck of the Corona, which plied up last Friday morning. The hull of the Corona is rapidly pounding to pieces.

BIG TRAMPS ARRIVE

Skogstad, From Guaymas, and American, From Bay City, Here.

The British steamer Armetio was off the bar this morning in fine weather. She comes from San Francisco under charter to Frank Waterhouse & Co. to load flour, wheat and lumber for the Orient. Two four-masted schooners were also reported outside.

The Norwegian steamer Skogstad arrived from Guaymas, which port she left 12 days ago for the Columbia river. The Skogstad is a fine vessel, built along the lines of the modern lumber carrier. She is under charter to the Pacific Export Lumber company to load lumber for the Orient.

One of the four-masted schooners crossed in at noon.

ALONG THE WATERFRONT

The Harriman liner Costa Rica is due to arrive here late tonight or early tomorrow morning. The North Pacific company's steamer George W. Elder will be at Martin's dock this afternoon. She reached Astoria at 7 this morning.

The steamer Alliance is at the foot of Couch street undergoing repairs. She will begin receiving freight Thursday and sail Saturday for Coos Bay only.

The Russian ship Fenicia is expected to leave up tomorrow. She brings a cargo of cement, and will sail with a cargo of lumber. She is well known here, having been to this port twice during the past five years.

The gasoline schooner Berwick is still at Couch street dock getting ready to sail for the town of Wedderburn on Rogue river. She has a full cargo, including a cold storage plant.

Light from Sugar. A phenomenon, the cause of which has not yet been satisfactorily explained, was recently observed by a government scientist during the course of certain experiments.

Disks of loaf sugar were mounted on a lathe and rapidly rotated while a hammer played lightly against them. An almost continuous radiation of light was thus produced from the sugar. It was shown that the light did not arise from heating of the sugar, and it is believed to be caused by some change taking place in the sugar crystals. The act of crystallization is known to be sometimes accompanied by flashes of light. The practical bearing of these experiments is on the question of the possibility of obtaining artificial light by methods as yet untried.

BEARS MAKE TERRIFIC RAID ON WALL STREET

Hill Stocks Drop Amazingly, and Other Industrials Share Black Friday Fall.

New York, March 4.—Since that memorable Thursday in 1901 when the stock value of Northern Pacific went from $88.50 to $1,900 a share there has not been so much excitement in the stock market as there was today.

The Hill shares were unmercifully pounded by the bears, until the tocsin was so great that the rest of the stock market came near being submerged. The losses today were so heavy that it is feared in financial circles that some of the big houses will be affected. The reported signing of the Aldrich bill by the president seemed only to make stronger the pressure put on the market by sellers who wanted to get from under before their losses became more than they could bear.

Great Northern dropped $16 a share to 143 1/2, the lowest point reached since 1887. Northern Pacific went to 137 1/2, the lowest point since 1900. It closed with a net loss for today's trading of $8 a share.

All through the stock market the losses were very severe. Brooklyn Rapid Transit lost $4.96 a share, the same loss as in Rock Island preferred. Southern Pacific and Union Pacific were caught in the bear trap and each suffered the loss of over $1 from the price Saturday.

SEEKING JURORS TO TRY WILL J. DAVIS

Danville, Ill., March 4.—The case of Will J. Davis, growing out of the Iroquois theatre holocaust by which more than 60 persons lost their lives on the afternoon of December 30, 1905, came up for trial today in the Vermillion county circuit court on charge of venue from Chicago. Mr. Davis was manager of the Iroquois theatre at the time of the fire and is charged with involuntary manslaughter by his alleged failure to take proper precautions for the safety of the theatre audience.

There will be a desperate fight to secure the acquittal of Davis, whose attorneys feared to take chances before a Chicago jury. The examination of witnesses consumed the morning session of court.

MISS JULIE FLORENCE WALSH

WOMEN SUFFER

Many women suffer in silence and drift along from bad to worse, knowing well that they ought to have immediate assistance. How many women do you know who are perfectly well and strong? The cause may be easily traced to some feminine derangement which manifests itself in depression of spirits, reluctance to go anywhere or do anything, backache, dragging sensations, fatigues, nervousness, and sleeplessness.

NO SECOND JUDICIAL DISTRICT THIS YEAR

Senator Fulton's Measure Fails to Reach the House in Time for Action.

(Washington Bureau of The Journal.) Washington, D. C., March 4.—Fulton's bill, which passed the senate, creating a new judicial district in Oregon, died in the house, having reached the lower body too late to get through the judiciary committee. It will be reintroduced at the next congress.

All Federal appointments recommended by Fulton have been confirmed, disposing of all pending patronage excepting in the Bristol case, on which action has not been had. The Dallas land office matter is being considered. There will certainly be a sharp conflict, the Oregon senators resenting Malcolm A. Mooby's interference.

Senator Fulton, who is a witness in the Harriman case, will leave for home tomorrow, if he is not kept here to testify.

ANOTHER VICTIM OF RUSSIAN MISRULE

Ufa, (Journal Special Service.) Ufa, March 4.—Prison Inspector Kelbe was shot and killed by Terrorists this morning. His movements had been closely observed for some time, and when the assassins became familiar with his habits they had him posted at his home and at the prison. It was when he was at the latter place that the chance to kill him was taken. One of the murderers was captured.

Let the Primary Law Alone.

From the North Yamhill Record. Some of the hide-bound party politicians of the state would like to mutilate the direct primary law by striking from it what is known as "statement No. 1," which, when signed by a candidate for the legislature, pledges him to vote for that person receiving the greatest number of votes for United States senator, regardless of his own political opinions. The election of Jonathan Bourne to the senate has caused some of the "would-be's" who are in favor of boss rule, as well as minority rule, to equate because the popular will of the people has been carried out. Statement No. 1 is the bone and sinew of the direct primary law; remove it and the rest of the law is not worth considering. The legislature would do well to remember that the direct primary law was enacted by the people and that any tinkering they might do would be of no avail, since we have the initiative and referendum.
