TOO MANY CHICKENS RUN LOOSE IN WOODLAWN

Citizens of Woodlawn are becoming indignant because, as they declare, other people are endeavoring to run a ranch in Woodlawn and use their yards to exercise poultry and domestic animals.

Ordinance 5925 is cited by the irate citizens. This ordinance, passed September 14 and approved September 22, 1894, makes it unlawful for horses, mules, cattle, sheep, swine, goats, chickens, geese or ducks to be allowed to run at large or to be herded in any of the streets, alleys, parks, unenclosed private grounds or public places in the city of Portland during any time of day or night...

GREAT BANQUET CLOSES THE FESTIVITIES OF NEW-YEAR'S

What might justly be termed the piece de resistance of the Chinese celebration of the thirty-third year of the reign of Emperor Kwong Shue was reserved for last night, when the Bow Long long, an organization of Chinatown's elite, officially closed the Celestial New Year with an unparalleled pyrotechnic display and monster banquet.

The festivities arranged by the disciples of Confucius to mark the conclusion of their season of good cheer were held at Bowlong on Oak street, and the success of the affair was due largely to painstaking efforts of Seld Back, the Gladstone of Chinatown.

OFFERS REWARD TO LEARN WHERE MISSING WIFE IS NOW

H. J. Hoggart has decided that the ways of woman are variable and not to be easily fathomed. He is also securing Edward Black Hawes as a detective to search for his missing wife, Emma Hoggart, who has vanished, leaving no reason for leaving or trace behind.

Hard work for him? No, not for the sake of any woman.

BREWERS DISCOUNT THE REPORTED PABST DEAL

Representatives of the Pabst Brewing company of Milwaukee spent a portion of last week in Portland, and it is currently reported were looking for a site on which to build a brewery. It is further reported that an entire north Portland block was secured and that an effort is now being made to get options on adjoining property.
