

PRESIDENT EWING TALKS BASEBALL

New Head of Coast League Gives Out a Few of His Ideas on the Game.

WILL BE SEVERE WITH THE ROWDY PLAYERS

Has Hopeful View of the Coming Season, Is Opposed to Granting Advance Money and Will See That His Umpires Enforce Rules.

That the new president of the Coast League will make things interesting for the rowdy players is about as certain as anything could be, according to the following from the San Francisco Chronicle.

Never let the idea get into your head that J. Cal Ewing will be a figurehead as president of the new four-team league. He understands the game as a player and leader of players on the field and knows the business end of the sport.

While Secretary Danny Long will have charge of many of the details, Ewing will be at the helm and direct the policy.

Ewing is too well known in California to bring about the necessity of a history of his life. He played ball as an amateur for 29 years, starting as far back as 1876. He was an infielder, until he had, wing sent him to the outfield, and he was captain and an outfielder of the Reliance club team at the time that nine was merged into the California State League.

As to increasing the size of the league another year, that is a matter for later consideration. I do not believe in having the league, if a city wishes to be represented, let that city make application. As the cities on the coast grow, our league will naturally develop.

Believes in Organization. "I am a firm believer in organized baseball. It is best for the club and for the league. A player may do better temporarily under independent ball, but it tends to the worst in the long run. From the league standpoint, it is a business proposition. We will have $50,000 invested at Fourteenth and Valencia streets before we reach a ball game and we are not to invest that capital under outlaw play for we would not know from one day to another whether we would have a team.

Personally, I think we will have a successful season. A baseball league is like a chain and is always as strong as its weakest link. We now have four strong cities.

"Business is everything in baseball. It is the life of the game. If that season, I have refused to give advance money to any of my players. No business house would do it and there is no reason why baseball players should expect it. During the season, I will make at least one trip and possibly two over the circuit, as I think it is the duty of the president to be in touch with the situation.

Billiard Note. Last night Jacob Schaefer was the billed 18-inch ball line championship from George Sutton. Sutton's high run was 51, average 12 1/2-36, and Schaefer's average 12 1/2-24.

EDGAR FRANK LEAVES FOR EAST ON FRIDAY

Will Represent Multnomah at the National Amateur Wrestling Tourney at Newark.

Edgar Frank, who will represent the Multnomah Amateur Athletic club at the national amateur wrestling tournament at Newark, New Jersey, the latter part of this month, will start for the east on Friday.

Frank is in fine condition for the big proposition, and will undoubtedly carry off honors for old Multnomah in that far-off trust state of New Jersey. Frank will wrestle at 155 pounds and, at this weight, he will not fear any man entered for this meeting.

Frank will go direct to New York, thence to New Haven, where he will be the guest of A. C. Gilbert of that city, who is a student at Yale. At Yale Frank will continue his training for the tournament, putting on the finishing touches in the company of old friends.

Multnomah clubmen are looking forward with more than usual interest to Frank's visit east and feel certain that before the tournament has been finished, Frank will carry away the honors in the events in which he participates.

M. A. A. C. Men for Spokane. One week from today the Multnomah club boxers and wrestlers will leave for Spokane, where the northwest championships will be held on March 20.

The boxers who will make the trip are Alma Dranga at 125 pounds and Bud Hughes at French at 125 pounds. Bud Hughes will represent M. A. A. C. in the 115-pound wrestling class.

In this tournament the crack men of the Spokane and Seattle athletic clubs will be in action. They will also several good men from British Columbia.

YESTERDAY'S SCORES AT BOWLING CONGRESS

Denver, March 12.—Brayshaw and Payne took the lead in the doubles in the Bowling congress yesterday, their score being 1,140, but were later beaten by Harper and Kerr, who pinned 1,161.

Barbour and McMenomy of Portland bowled 871. The following scores were made in the individual class: T. Perry, 607; Kruse, Portland, 544; Ball, Portland, 554; Keating, Portland, 509; Barbour, Portland, 554; Moore, Portland, 456, and Hanson, Portland, 528.

O. A. C. BASKETBALL TEAM CHALLENGES DALLAS

To the Sporting Editor: In behalf of the O. A. C. basketball team, I hereby challenge the Dallas college team to a series of three games, one to be played on the Dallas floor, one at O. A. C., and a third, if necessary to decide supremacy, to be played on the M. A. A. C. floor, all games to be conducted under the official rules of the Spaulding rules, to be fixed by mutual agreement.

POOL TOURNAMENT IS ON AT MULTNOMAH

The pool tournament opened at the Multnomah club last night and a fair-sized crowd of the club artists were on hand both to witness and to participate. Only three games were played, with the following results: Nichols beat Brigham, 45 to 34; Jenkins beat Moore, 50 to 42; Hughes beat Jenkins, 65 to 27.

SPORTING GOSSIP

Digging over old score books one often runs across interesting little odds and ends about baseball, almost forgotten by the writer in the Detroit News.

Old Jim McGuire reports for practice with the New York team on Sunday. In Washington in 1896 Jim McGuire caught every game played that year. The next year he was tendered a big benefit and given a bond of $500 by the club. His record still stands.

In 1894 Bobbie Lowe, now Tiger utility man, made four home runs for Boston off Pitcher Eli Chamberlain.

Larry Lajoie was the first major league player to go through the entire season with a batting average of .400.

In 1875 Boston won every game on the home grounds and lost but eight on the road.

In 1894 National league batters hit over 300.

And now Bill Bernhard has joined the list of Napland rebels.

With Jose, Rhoades and Hess, Bernhard refuses to sign a contract to play under Larry Lajoie. Pickard and others have also kicked over the traces.

It looks as though the whole team is disorganized even before the start of the year.

Of the entire pitching staff Earl Moore signed and he gave in because he was out all last year.

It isn't over the salary question, as far as can be learned. The players just want to have something to kick about and the salary question is the easiest.

The real kick is that the players are sore at not landing that flag with all their chances.

Use Reason

Cure Piles Privately at Home Without Pain or Operation.

THE RESULT OF AN IRRITATED MEMBRANE cannot be cured with a knife, but by removing the cause of the irritation.

What is a more natural cure than a strong and healing balm which will bring life back to the deadened tissues?

This is the action of the Pyramid Pile Cure. The little suppositories, used away from the feverish membranes, heal the ulcers, remove the inflammation and swelling and bring back the rectum to its normal condition.

This result is effected painlessly and without the loss of a moment's time from your daily duties. The treatment is applied at home, in the privacy of your own room. The remedy is our own preparation and our name is the guarantee of its genuineness.

Thousands of cases similar to the following might be cited to prove our claims:

"I tried the sample of your cure you sent me. I used it and then bought a 50-cent box. The results were immediate and surprising to me. I assure you, I had been to a dozen of the best doctors and paid much money to be treated with no result whatever. I had this affliction for 20 years. I was in a hospital for a long time, and I left it physically broken down. I owe you a debt of gratitude. I believe that pile cure would be banished from humanity and become an unknown thing, were every one afflicted with them to but spend from 50c to $1. for Pyramid Pile Cure. Its speedy action also makes it extremely favorable for impatient people. I am yours sincerely, George H. Bartlett, Mattapan, Mass."

No matter how badly you suffer from piles, we want to cure you. If you will yourself, we will gladly send it to your name and address at once. We will leave it to you to decide whether you can afford to discontinue the treatment.

ordinary second baseman instead of the greatest ball player that ever lived, and secured a fair sort of manager, they would most likely win the pennant with that wonderful aggregation of baseball talent.

But Larry is the idol. His wonderful work around second and his mighty stick work always bring him out the crowd. He is the magnet. It was he who made Cleveland a baseball town again after the Tebeau crowd had ruined it.

The New England amateur boxing championships will be held under the auspices of the Riverside Boat club of Cambridge, the latter part of March.

The classes will be at the regular weights prescribed by the A. A. U., as follows: 105, 115, 125, 135, 145 and 155 pounds and for the heavyweights. The prizes will be the regulation gold and silver medals for the winners and silver for the men beaten in the finals.

Efforts are being made to arrange a six-round bout between "Jack" Palmer, an English heavyweight, and "Sally" Barker, to take place before the National Athletic club of Philadelphia the latter part of this month.

Melvin Sheppard, of the Irish-American Athletic club, who holds the New York half-mile championship, has agreed to take the place of Eli Parsons, the Yale runner, in the three-cornered match race at 600 yards against J. B. Taylor and Harry Hillman, which will be one of the main events of the New York Athletic club games in Madison Square Garden tomorrow evening.

Trainer Mack of the Yale track team refuses to allow Parsons to start in the race, as he will need all the regular Parsons has in him winning the one-mile relay race for Yale from Cornell and Pennsylvania, which will be another feature of these same games. As Taylor will run the last quarter mile relay on the Penn team, and Parsons will be saved for the last relay by Yale, this means a grand clash between Taylor and Parsons in a quarter-mile race.

New York A. C. Games. (Special Dispatch to The Journal.) New York, March 12.—The annual indoor meet of the New York Athletic club in Madison Square Garden tonight has all the features of a championship competition and a contest is at attracting much attention among the athletes and lovers of athletic sports.

The entry list includes some of the crack performers of Yale, Princeton, Cornell and other leading colleges, together with the pick of the association athletes. The event on the program that is attracting more attention than any other is the three-cornered race at 600 yards with Melvin Sheppard, J. B. Taylor and Harry Hillman as the contestants.

Seeking Ball Games. (Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Camas, Wash., March 12.—Sporting Editor Journal.—We have organized a baseball team here for this season and we expect to put up good ball and to play some of the best teams in this part of the state. I write to see if you will publish accounts of our games and we will run a few lines announcing we are open for games. Yours truly, J. T. POINDEXTER, Manager.

Lackey Horse Sale. (Journal Special Service.) Cambridge City, Ind., March 12.—The annual Lackey horse sale opened here today and as usual has attracted prominent horsemen from all parts of the country. The sale will last five days, during which time a large number of high-bred horses will go under the hammer.

Scheduled for Tonight. Packie McFarland vs. Joe Galligan, 15 rounds, at Davenport, Iowa.

TREE PLANTING DAY IN EUGENE SUBURB (Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Eugene, Or., March 12.—Yesterday was tree-planting day with the citizens of Fairmount, a suburb of Eugene. The East Eugene Improvement club, composed of the leading citizens of Fairmount, at its last meeting set the day aside for the setting out of shade trees along East Fifteenth street, one of the principal residences thoroughfares of the suburb.

Yesterday morning, early 39 or 40 men were on hand with shovel and spades and securing about 130 small fir trees from Fairmount Heights, which skirt the suburb, set them out on both sides of the street. Its entire length, over half a mile. When the trees attain a good height this street will perhaps be the most beautiful in the entire city of Eugene.

FINE RECORD OF THE DALLAS FIVE

Successful Season Will Come to a Close on Saturday Night.

FINAL MATCH WITH THE MULTNOMAH TEAM

Little Probability That Collegians Will Meet the Oregon Agricultural Lads in a Championship Series, as Schedule is Over.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Dallas, Or., March 12.—With the game here next Saturday night with Multnomah Athletic Club basketball team, ends the most successful basketball season in the history of Dallas college and leaves the collegians easy champions of the State Basketball League.

Dallas college has already played a series of 11 games in the league series, winning 10 of them by large scores. The only defeat was the one received at the hands of Multnomah in Portland, some two months ago, by a close score. All the other games, whether at home or on other floors, have been won by scores largely running at a ratio of five to one.

It is not thought here at the present time that Dallas will accept the challenge of Oregon Agricultural college to play a series of games, for the reason that the basketball season is almost ended, the Dallas team is on the eve of disbanding, the players are nearly all suffering from injuries, and it would be unfair to play such a team against the boys from Oregon Agricultural college, who have had an easy time of it all winter. Another reason for not playing the "Farmers," is that Oregon Agricultural college had ample opportunity to test the state league when same was organized, but preferred not to do so.

It is a well-known fact that the only way to determine and decide a championship is by percentage of games won and lost, and it would be highly unjust to Dallas college to place their hard-earned championship of the state at stake on the result of a single game with an outside institution. For these reasons it is hardly probable that the challenge of Oregon Agricultural college will be accepted by the collegians.

Dallas has played the entire season without a coach, which makes her many victories over strong well-coached teams, all the more creditable. Next year a tour, embracing the whole of the middle west is contemplated by the victorious team from Dallas college, when some of the best college and association teams in the United States will be met and played, and judging from the present record of the local players, it is thought that on such a tour they will make the name of Dallas college famous in basketball throughout the United States.

BASEBALL CHATTER

Girls will sell tickets on the Provisional grounds. Their boxes will probably have a cinch. Portland has had women ticket sellers also. Mrs. Larry McLean handed out tickets last year at Recreation park.

In the little town of Macungie, Pennsylvania, lives Carrie Moyer, a girl pityable, who is said to be a wonder. Judge McCredie should send Carrie a contract.

The Giants were greeted with a downpour of rain when they arrived at Salinas the other day, but they didn't mind a little thing like that. Water never affects a Portland ball player.

The White Sox drew a total attendance of 569,000 at home last season, an average of 7,389 per game.

The big-headed ball player never amounts to much. It is the modest, hustling kind who wins out.

Buck Keith of Portland says that Califf, the Oregon City lad who pitched clever ball for the Giants last year, is one of the most promising twirlers in the country. "If he continues to take good care of himself, he will be one of the stars of the pitching world in a short time," says the famous "Buck."

Few men in Portland are better qualified to pass on the pitching of a young player than "Buck" Keith.

Chubby Charley Murphy paid $105,000 for the Chicago club, including players, and cleaned up $148,000 the first year. He is now cutting government coupons.

It was recently reported that now that the Tri-State league had been admitted to the fold of organized baseball salaries would be cut. The adopted limit of $3,500 per month fails to confirm the report.

President Garry Herrmann of Cincinnati wants $7,500 for Pitcher Ewing.

Manager McCredie is endeavoring to arrange a game with the New York Giants on or about March 15. A clash on the diamond between 15 Giants and such mild-mannered managers as "Mugsy" McGraw and Mr. McCredie ought to be an exhibition worth going miles to see.

If Pitcher Chesbro and First Baseman Chase fail to report the Highlanders will be in a bad way.

Boston baseball fans are pessimistic over the outlook this season, as regards their American league team.

Once when Bill Clymer was asked if he had any players to exchange, his reply was: "Yes, but remember, I am not giving two cents for five."

Providence has signed a catcher named Knott. When he fans the ozone it will be a case of Knott out.

President Ewing of the Coast League, providing he lives up to his statements, will make things interesting this year for the rowdy ball players.
