"DEEDS OF KEEN BOARD" DISLIKES THE TITLE

Rosenthal Does Not Appreciate the Work of His Clever Press Agents—Talks of His Favorite Composers—Not Giant in Stature by Any Means.

By G. I. W. Morris Rosenthal is in town and in him is present what many call the greatest living pianist.

When Rosenthal walks out on the stage tonight he will not be surprised or disappointed that he is not the athlete his pictures show him to be.

When asked today what he thought of "Salome" and its reception in New York, he answered that he would be glad to say something if it were not all over now...

Nothing should be allowed to interfere with art, he said, "and New York has been much censured. But I should say nothing for I do not know America well enough and I am not here to criticize its attitude...

What do you think of American music and do you think Americans do not get their proper recognition at home and abroad as is often held?

WORK IN RAIN TO BUILD A HOME FOR BROTHER WOODMAN

A home was built last Sunday for W. H. Foster, a member of the Woodmen of the World, Pennington camp, No. 41, by his neighbors of the Arieta camp, No. 806, on the Mount Scott line.

Lumber was purchased, and the members, securing tools and other necessities, went to the site near Arieta and worked all day in the dreaching rain...

Perhaps You Would Prefer a Light Blue Suit for Spring. Light blues are going to be very stylish and you can make no mistake in selecting one if you select from an up-to-date stock. All of our spring suitings have been received and we are selling them rapidly. There are so many different patterns, however, that it will not be a difficult matter for you to make a selection that will be almost exclusive.

See the Fine Assortment We Are Showing and you will be convinced that this tailor talk is genuine. It is a fact that we are always a year ahead of the other fellow on New York styles and patterns. That's the reason why the best dressed men of Portland carry the tag of the Columbia Woolen Mills Company inside the clothes they wear. If you call now we can make your Easter suit at once.
