

MRS. EDDY'S WEALTH EVIDENTLY CONCEALED

Christian Scientist Leader Owns Many Gift-Edged Corporation Bonds but Pays Taxes Only to the Extent of Twelve Hundred Dollars Annually.

Concord, N. H., March 13.—To ascertain the truth about Mrs. Mary Baker Eddy's wealth, a Hearst News Service reporter examined the books of the city tax collector and found that the total on April 1, 1906, was represented to be only $54,360. On that day Mrs. Eddy paid in taxes $1,191.93.

Under the laws of New Hampshire a taxpayer is compelled to file a sworn schedule describing each and every piece of property he possesses. In Mrs. Eddy's schedule, under the caption, "Money on hand at interest or on deposit," no entry is made, leaving it to be inferred by the tax collector that she has not a cent in any bank. President Fernald of the National State Capital bank in this city today said she had had an account in that institution for the last 20 years. The amount of that account was alleged by counsel for Mrs. Eddy's son to be at least $1,000,000 in cash and quick assets.

Then again, in the columns set apart for the value of stocks in banks and other corporations in New Hampshire and other states, no entry is made, indicating that Mrs. Eddy possesses no such securities, although Fred N. Ladd, treasurer of the Loan & Trust Savings bank in this city, and auditor for Mrs. Eddy, said:

"Mrs. Eddy held many bonds of gift-edged securities, both national and state, and that she had selected them herself, and had purchased them through five of the leading bond houses in Boston."

In full, the wealth of Mrs. Eddy, as set forth on the books of the city tax collector, is as follows:

"Pleasant View homestead, $18,000; the Tuttle lot, adjoining, $100; four horses, $600; two cows, $50; carriage, $200; stocks in public funds, $35,000. Total, $24,450."

That statement was filed by John H. Quinby, assessor for the Seventh ward, in Concord, in which Mrs. Eddy resides. It is assumed he received it properly sworn to from Mrs. Eddy, or her attorney.

When Quinby was asked today to show the original schedule he hunted through his house for about five minutes and then said he could not find it.

WANT A CANAL FROM EUGENE TO CORVALLIS

Allison secretary, Darwin Bristol treasurer, F. M. Day, C. A. Wintermeier and F. L. Chambers, trustees. The club discussed the feasibility of constructing a canal for navigation purposes from Eugene to Corvallis and appointed a committee to investigate the source of water supply for the canal.

SAVED HUSBAND FROM SENTENCE

Mrs. Hennelly Declares, However, That Storekeeper Continued to Abuse Her.

TAKEN TO POLICE STATION AFTER SPREES

Now She Seeks Divorce and Thinks Two Thousand Dollars Alimony Would Be an Excellent Balm—Husband Owns Drygoods Store.

Dora Hennelly filed suit for divorce in the state circuit today from Thomas A. Hennelly, alleging cruel and inhuman treatment. Mrs. Hennelly asks for alimony in the sum of $2,000.

In her complaint Mrs. Hennelly alleges that she married Hennelly at Vancouver, Washington, February 18, 1906, and removed with him to this city. She alleges that commencing in June, 1906, Hennelly beat and abused her daily; that he also called her vile names and did everything to make life miserable for her, finally causing her to leave him and live apart from him at 151 1/2 First street.

Mrs. Hennelly alleges that Hennelly owns property in Washington and Oregon worth $4,000. That he also owns a dry goods store on Third street valued at $1,000.

Mrs. Hennelly alleges that her husband is a habitual drunkard and that on several occasions he was picked up by the police and taken to the station to be off the effects of his drinking. She says it was only by her intercession that Hennelly was not sentenced to serve time in jail for his drunken carousals. Despite these evidences of love and loyalty Mrs. Hennelly alleges that Hennelly continued to beat and abuse her.

She asks the court in addition to the alimony amounting to $2,000, to allow her $250 for fees with which to conduct her divorce suit.

FATE SOON IN JURORS' HANDS

Case of Nelson and Danielson is to Be Completed Late Today.

The murder trial of Ed Nelson and C. E. Danielson, charged with the killing of Oscar Lindgren, will go to the jury this afternoon.

It was expected that the case would be disposed of earlier, but arguments of attorneys lasted nearly all of yesterday and Attorney W. W. Banks did not finish his argument until 10:30 o'clock this morning. He was followed by Deputy District Attorney G. C. Moser, who had not finished speaking when the court adjourned for the noon recess. Mr. Moser will probably require another hour this afternoon before finishing his argument and the charge of Judge Fraser to the jury will take up some time, so that the case will not likely go to the jury until late in the afternoon.

The attorneys in the case covered the facts thoroughly to the jury and explained much of the conflicting testimony introduced in the five days. Many are of the opinion that the jury will be acquitted, while others are equally certain that the defense has failed to prove an alibi.

PIPES "YARNS" OF HIS FINANCES

Youth Who Would Wed Tells of Being Robbed to Explain Want of Funds.

A. D. Nicowonder, a San Francisco chauffeur, who told a remarkable tale to the authorities last month of having been held up and robbed of several hundred dollars at Fourth and Burnside streets by three masked men, now appears in a new role at police headquarters.

The young man was arrested yesterday by Detectives Jones and Tiedeman on a charge of passing a bogus check on J. Woolach, proprietor of a second-hand store. An investigation by the detectives who took him into custody showed the Nicowonder's story of the encounter with the trio of highwaymen was evidently a fabrication.

It is understood Nicowonder is engaged to wed a pretty telephone girl and being without funds, is alleged to have concocted the story of the loss of all of his coin.

The young woman in question resides on the east side and is critically ill. She has not been apprised of the plight of her lover. In the police court today Nicowonder's case was continued until tomorrow.

Urge Municipal Paving Plant.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Walla Walla, March 14.—Establishment of a municipal paving plant is being agitated in this city. It is urged that over $20,000 which goes as profit on paving of streets already recommended would be saved by the city owning its own plant. STRONG TESTIMONY OF A STREET RAILWAY MAN IN PORTLAND

Who had Suffered from Stomach Trouble for Years

Portland, Or., Jan. 25, '06.

Prof. Wm. Rickards.

Dear Sir: I must write this testimony thanking you for the great relief I have received by coming to you and taking your Electro Radiator treatment. For many years I had been suffering from severe STOMACH TROUBLE. I had taken everything I heard of, but I only received relief for a SHORT time. Anything I would eat gave me much distress. It seemed I must die. My condition seemed worse at night. I always had to sleep sitting up in bed. My distress from it was terrible. After taking 15 treatments with your ELECTRO RADIATOR I AM ENTIRELY CURED. My wife was also cured of a bad case of catarrh. Any person doubting this statement is welcome to call upon us at 1403 Morton street, Woodlawn station.

EDWARD RUBIN.

We have hundreds of testimonials as good as this. Ask for names and addresses of people cured in Portland. We give free trial treatments to prove to you the curative power of the Electro Radiator. You can use it in your own home.

SOURCE OF FRUIT PESTS DENOUNCED BY GRANGE

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Russellville, Or., March 14.—The following resolutions were passed unanimously at the last meeting of Russellville Grange:

"Whereas, Numerous old, neglected trees are kept standing on vacant lots, etc., around Russellville, Montavilla and Mount Tabor, constantly breeding scale and other pests, to the annoyance and detriment of all fruitraisers who spray and care for their trees; be it

"Resolved, That we, the members of Russellville Grange, hereby call upon the fruit commissioners and inspector of this district to destroy said trees without further delay, or else to refrain from coal-oiling apples that have been infected from said trees.

"Resolved, That we can see no justice in allowing trees on the Ladd farm and other lots held for speculation to be and remain breeding-places for pests for honest horticulturists to fight."

CLEAR NINE THOUSAND WITHIN YEAR'S TIME

Joseph Closset purchased this morning the quarterblock at the northwest corner of Third and Jefferson streets for $45,000. The site was sold by Martin Rosenbaum of Oregon City, who bought it less than one year ago for $36,000. A two-story brick and some small frame buildings occupy the property.

"This property is diagonally across the street from the quarterblock bought some months ago by E. M. Lombard for $27,000, and for which he has been offered a substantial advance.

RAILROAD COMMISSION TO EXAMINE NEW ROAD

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Salem, Or., March 14.—The board of railroad commissioners will investigate the status of the Oregon Railway company which according to the report filed by President Wallace Nash was organized February 21, 1906, with a capital stock of $500,000 for the construction of a railway line from Portland southward into the Cascades. The preliminary report states that the company for various reasons has not been able to carry out its plans. It seems that the company intended to buy the Corvallis & Eastern railroad but the plans were frustrated by the agents of Harriman in Chicago who purchased the road. And for this reason the Mid-Oregon line has not made much progress.

COFFEE COMPLEXION

Easily Cleared Up by Simple Means.

The coffee habit often causes sallowness long before the cause is suspected. Then the coffee user may be willing to give up the habit, but the experience of a Pennsylvania lady shows how easily this may be done. She says: "I have suffered from constipation and stomach trouble since a child, when headaches were so severe that I was prevented from studying at school. Since reaching adult age, I have been, until recently, frequently in great pain from ulceration of the stomach and had grown wretchedly thin.

"My complexion had become very sallow and my stomach was an unalleviated punishment to me. For years we have always had some kind of cathartic in the house, which I took before retiring, as a matter of regular routine, using one kind until it began to lose its effect, and then another.

"About six weeks ago my husband brought home a package of Postum Food Coffee, insisting that I give up the old kind and try the new. It seemed to be responsible to quit drinking coffee, although I knew it was injuring my health.

"However, after reading the little book, 'The Road to Wellville,' which I found in the package, I concluded to give Postum a fair trial.

"For the past six weeks I have used it three times a day and I gratefully testify that my stomach trouble and constipation have already entirely left me.

"I am growing plumper and rounder in figure and my complexion is clearing up beautifully. You cannot imagine how good it seems not to have that distressing pain after each meal! I have thrown out all the medicine bottles for Nature's own medicine, right food and Postum Food Coffee have made me a well woman." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. "There's a reason." COUNCIL MAY HAVE BEEN JOBBED ON CONTRACT

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Walla Walla, Wash., March 14.—Because of agitation against the purchase of a garbage incinerator from the Decaria Manufacturing company for the sum of $15,000 some time since the city council passed a resolution authorizing the city clerk to find out where such incinerators had been sold, the capacity of the same and the price various cities paid for them. When the contract was made with the Decaria company the bid was advertised so that only one company could bid, which has caused considerable comment. The question as to whether the city had been "jobbed" on the price paid was discussed by the city council this afternoon in a meeting of the committee of the whole.

RICH MAN'S PANIC

is over. A general improvement in all American stocks is expected.

Early this morning on Wall street there was but little excitement, traders apparently not being aware of the impending destruction of values. The killing of yesterday punched the big fellows, but howls are not expected from those quarters.

The bleating lambs were all shaken out before yesterday's squeeze started. When the market opened it was irregular. Active stocks started up for fractional gains, but at the end of 10 minutes a downward movement set in that spread financial terror and disaster broadly.

STRIKE QUIETS REALTY MARKET

Among Prominent Sales Is Purchase of Stephens' Addition Property by Sanderson Reed.

The strike of the sawmill operatives is seriously affecting the local real estate market. While the sales reported for last week went well above half a million, the transactions for the first four days of the present week will fall below $100,000.

Sanderson Reed purchased this morning the quarter block at the southeast corner of East Ninth and East Grand streets for $4,000. The property belonged to Martin Wind and is occupied by six small cottages. D. B. Mackie of the Commercial Investment company made the sale.

The six-acre tract adjoining the Doerbecher Furniture company's plant, at East Twenty-eighth street and Sandy road, that was purchased by that concern from the Ladd estate some weeks ago, is to be used by the company for
