SIX CHURCH BODIES WORSHIPPED TOGETHER

One Temple for All—Services in Rotation Attended by All—Now Broken by Withdrawal of Two Churches, Grow Strong.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Sunnyside, Wash., March 15.—The curtain has fallen on what was possibly an absolutely unique church organization, when the old Federated church closed its existence here Wednesday night. The process of dissolution began some months ago by the withdrawal of the Methodist people, who were soon followed by the Baptist and Christian churches; but owing to the articles of agreement corporate extinction could not be finally effected until the present time. The greatest harmony had always prevailed in the organization, and the dissolution was amicable.

total membership of but 125, but owing to the rapid development of the community there were at the end of its existence 400 members in the organization; a Sunday school enrollment of about 600, and a congregation of from 400 to 700.

Six denominations composed the organization: Methodist, Presbyterian, Congregationalist, Baptist, Brethren and Christian. New Temporary Federation. The five pastors who have been serving the organization are retained by the several congregations in the order above named. They are Revs. Charles H. Porter, George C. Griffin, H. F. Burgis, G. C. McClure and J. B. Earley. The Christian church has no pastor. The Methodists will begin soon the erection of a handsome church edifice; the Baptists will follow later.

Andrew Thomas is Hanged in Mobile County for the Murder of His Wife.

(Journal Special Service.) Mobile, Ala., March 15.—Hanging executive intervention, Mobile county today is to have its first legal execution of a white man that has taken place here in over forty years. The condemned man is Andrew Thomas, who shot his wife to death on the morning of April 29, 1906. Thomas had been in jail for a minor infraction of the laws, and soon after release began to taunt and ill treat his wife, until she was forced to return to her parents. On the morning of the murder Thomas followed his wife to the home of his mother, where she had gone to see their child. Rushing into the room Thomas pulled a pistol from his pocket and shot her. As the woman sank to the floor and was begging him not to kill her, Thomas fired a second bullet into her breast. He was arrested near the scene of the murder, convicted and sentenced to death, which sentence was affirmed by the state supreme court.

KELSO CITIZENS DESIRE TO VOTE SCHOOL BONDS

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Kelso, Wash., March 15.—A mass meeting of citizens was held at the Business Men's club rooms Wednesday evening to discuss the advisability of issuing bonds for new school buildings. The rapid growth of the town has made the present facilities entirely inadequate. Reports were given by the board and Superintendent Smith and after a general discussion it was voted, as the sense of the meeting that the board should proceed to determine the cost of duplicating the present Washington building and then hold a bond election that the citizens might vote bonds sufficient to cover the cost.
