

CONCEALED FILE IN WEDDING CAKE

Miss Marie Coyle Wandlass, whose picture here appears, wedded Thomas Wandlass, alias Charles Howard, "gentleman burglar," in Charleston, Massachusetts, penitentiary, and passed him a file in the wedding cake, with which he effected his escape. Wandlass has just fallen heir to $30,000.

BROKEN WIRES DELAY MESSAGES

Lines of Both Companies Along Coast Practically Disabled by Elements.

Floods have carried down telegraph wires east, south and north, and the Western Union has no Chicago nor Oakland wire today. Neither Seattle nor Helena has a wire east, and there is no wire working between Helena and Salt Lake. The Postal Telegraph company has a wire working spasmodically between Portland and Seattle, but the crush of business makes it impossible to get anything through on time. The Vancouver, British Columbia, wires are down north of Port Madison and nothing is moving by telegraph between the coast and eastern states. In some places the trouble is caused by heavy rains carrying out bridges or pole lines. In the mountains sleet or snow has paralyzed the service. The telegraph companies have never been operated on the Pacific coast with so much trouble as they are having this winter.

There has been almost continuous difficulty with the elements for the last two months. Enormous damage has been done and delays to business and press dispatches have been almost unparalleled. Today the companies have larger repair forces in the field than ever in their history. The wires are being restored as fast as possible. It is said the breaks that have occurred in the last three days from floods can be quickly repaired as the weather is not so severe as it was during the sleet and snow storms a month ago, when it was almost impossible to handle equipment.

BOTH EYES BLOWN OUT BY STUMP EXPLOSION

Anderson Horribly Mangled in an Accident at Canby.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Canby, Or., March 21.—O. Anderson, who was caught by an explosion of dynamite while blasting stumps yesterday, is lingering between life and death this morning with little chance of recovery. Both eyes are blown completely out, his skull is fractured, the bones in his face are broken and several ribs fractured. Dr. H. M. Dedman, who attended the man, says his condition is the most horrible he has ever witnessed. The doctor thinks it is but a question of a few hours when the man will die. He is now unconscious and seems to be free of pain. Anderson owns a valuable farm two miles east of town and was blasting stumps in clearing up a farm for George Brown, a neighbor. He loaded three stumps and set off the fuses. When two of the discharges had gone off he forgot how many he had set off, thinking he had set but two instead of three. As he approached the third stump a neighbor who had been watching his work shouted to him, warning him not to approach nearer. Just as Anderson reached the stump the explosion occurred, tossing his body 20 feet into the air. A few months ago Anderson offered his farm for sale with the intention of leaving the country. But when a buyer offered to take it his wife refused to sign the deed.

"From Maker to Player"

A Carload of Reed-French's Famous Little Bijou Pianos Unloaded Yesterday — The Greatest $190 Piano Ever Put on the Market on Exhibition at Their Store on Sixth and Burnside Streets. $5.00 a Month Installments.

Lots of pianos are sold in Portland—sold at all prices—but for downright goodness, no piano can touch the Reed-French Bijou style at the price—$190.

Some people say a piano can't be good at such a price—they feel like they must pay three hundred dollars or more; but we say our $190 piano beats the world for the money.

We make these pianos; we know what's in them. We sold four carloads last fall, and they behaved as well through the past winter as pianos costing twice as much.

This car of beautiful little instruments (the first we have had since Christmas) will be on exhibition today and this evening. (We are open till 9 o'clock.)

Here's the Proposition—It's the same as we made last fall.—Select a piano, pay $5.00 a month installment, keep it sixty days and if it isn't more than we say, pay the cartage and get your money back.

If you prefer to begin payments from the first, that will be satisfactory.
