PARKS DEFEATED BY THE CHINOOKS

Good Bowling Last Night on Oregon and Multnomah Alleys.

COLUMBIA PLAYERS BOWLED FOR AVERAGE

Lamond Beats Raymond in a Special Match—James' Team Has No Difficulty in Putting the Glass Aggregation Out of Running.

The Parks were defeated last night by the Chinook team, which has been strengthened by Boulanger, Galliard and Newstead. The reappearance of these men in the game made the spectators sit up and look wise, as to the strongest team in the league. Their games averaged well, but owing to the spurt the Parks made in the second game totaling 913 pins, they won two out of three. The Columbia team bowled for an average last night. Each team rolls twice during the season for a team and individual averages. Their first game was small, 765, but they came back strong with 906 and 821. Sumption had the best average of the evening, 151, also the highest single game, 212. After the match, a special match was arranged between Fred Raymond and

H. A. Lamond, which was won by the latter. He was immediately challenged by Ambs and Raymond for a match Sunday.

OREGON'S BASEBALL MEN ARE WORKING HARD

Coach Bezdek Is Putting Lemon Yellow Players Through Their Paces.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
University of Oregon, Eugene, Or., March 22.—The baseball candidates for Oregon's team are working out hard during the wet weather in the gymnasium now, but the last few days of outside practice showed some changes in the probable lineup are likely. Huston, who has been trying for pitcher, has shown up some remarkable ability as an infielder and it seems likely that he will play there instead of pitching. Ramp, who was an infielder last year, is likely to go to the outfield therefore, though these things are not certain until about the first game. Kelly will probably play in the field part of the time also, for, though he caught last year, Johnson is showing up equally as well behind the bat, and as Kelly is a crack fielder it is likely that he will go to the hayfield part of the time. "Dud" Clark is making good at center field, he being easily the fastest man of the fly chasers. Kestley is also doing good work appearing horsehide insect. Bezdek has been working very hard with his pitchers. Last year the weakest part of the team was the slubbers, and as there is no new material in sight Bezdek is simply developing the pitchers of last year. So far he has worked on the fundamentals trying to get form. Hurd seems to be trying the hardest, and last year all that kept him from being first-class goods was his wildness. Bezdek, who is an experienced backstop, however, has given him some valuable points, and the poorest fan can see the improvement in his control. He is a left-handed youngster with lots of nerve.

SPORTING GOSSIP

The Portland Hunt club members will enjoy a closed paper chase tomorrow afternoon. W. M. Davis and Dr. Emmett Drake are the hares for the occasion and a large field is expected. The start will be made at East Twenty-sixth and Kern streets, near the Clinton Kelly school, at 2:30 p. m.

The Multnomah Amateur Athletic club's representatives at the Pacific northwest meet at Spokane, which came to a close last evening, will arrive home tomorrow morning. Bud Hughes, who won the gold medal and the northwest championship by defeating Ray Stensbury of Spokane, will stop over at Tekeon for a few days, visiting his brother. Hughes had all the better of the argument with Stensbury. Smith of Multnomah, who wrestled Venables of Seattle, put up a rattling good bout, but lost the decision on lack of aggressiveness, due alone to experience. Smith is a comer and will make all men in his class step lively in the future. Dranga of M. A. C. went up against a stronger fighter in Parsons of Spokane. Dranga was kept on the defensive all during the bout, which lasted one and a half rounds. When the knockout came Dranga's head hit the floor, and this had considerable to do with his taking the count at that time. The Spokane boys treated the visiting clubmen in a most hospitable manner.

Irish athletes in Dublin have been for some time discussing the question of the handle which is such an important element in what is known as "throwing the hammer." It is proposed to bar certain American innovations in the build and construction of the hammer, a feature the handle must be a straight steel rod with a wooden grip. This, in effect, means a return to the old-time conditions and an abolition of the wire-rop handles. Among professionals and aspirants to professionalism this new order receives a mixed reception. Edward Barrett, who belongs to a family of Irish athletes and holds records for hammer throwing, both in England and Ireland, agrees with the idea of returning to the old style. "Our fathers," he said, "were nature's athletes. We are only mechanical—an artificial lot looking out for some artificial aid to supply what nature refused to give us. I am glad to support the new regulation in the construction of the hammer. Let it be a hammer and not a flying machine. No man admires the inventive genius of America more than I do, but from the very commencement I condemned the wire-rop handle. It does not give an honest athlete a fair chance."

In the Multnomah club's pool tournament last evening A. Morris defeated A. Kerrigan, 45 to 27.

The game between the Albina Athletic club basketball team and the Chemawa Indians, which was to have been played last night at Albina, has been postponed until further notice on account of washouts on the Southern Pacific.

Crescent City Derby.
New Orleans, La., March 22.—Tomorrow the banner event of the winter turf season, the classic Crescent City derby, will be run and won at the fair grounds. The event is exciting the usual keen interest among the turf followers and a record breaking crowd is expected at the track.

It will be the fifteenth renewal in the history of the race, which year by year has gradually grown in value and importance until this year the winner will pull down a $10,000 stake, the first of its size ever offered here. From present indications the horses that will go to the post will comprise as fast a lot of 3-year-olds as ever faced the starter's flag. Betting on the race is already very brisk and an immense amount of money will change hands on the result.
