

MANY INDICTMENTS FOR GRAFTERS DUE TOIGHT

Grand Jury Busy Winding Up a Most Sensational Week in San Francisco.

WRITTEN CONTRACTS FOR BRIBERS WHO CONFESSED

Before Confessions Were Obtained Regular Agreements Were Drawn Up Which Are Without Precedent—Placed in Escrow.

(Journal Special Service.)
San Francisco, March 22.—A great batch of indictments are expected to be made public before the grand jury winds up its week's work this afternoon. The district attorney's office has been busy all day grinding out indictments. It is believed that the grand jury will have a most sensational week in graft investigation. The air is filled with rumors, many of which it is impossible to verify. So far as can be ascertained, there is no intention on the part of the district attorney's office to let either Ruef or Schmitz take an immunity bath. Public sentiment against it is altogether too strong.

Bribers Turn Reformers.

The novel sight of a group of supervisors, self-branded as reformers, but now engaged in an endeavor to turn the hall of justice into a vineyard of reform, may be seen almost daily at the municipal building on Eddy street.

The city fathers were recently stung and they are now organized in an alleged attempt to give the city a "model administration." To add to the mockery of it all, this alleged fire of reform is only made to flicker by a constant fanning of the supervisors with the prospects of indictments on the crimes for which they were given pledges of immunity.

Forced to Be Good.

This remarkable condition of civic reform was only accomplished after much and continuous effort on the part of the prosecuting body. The supervisors, at least all but three, it is said, were only induced to make their declarations or confessions after they had been furnished with contracts duly signed and delivered, guaranteeing them immunity from punishment for their crimes, if they would give the desired testimony, and, in short, to do as instructed by the prosecution. These contracts of immunity were largely in favor of the supervisors, and so sensitive to their feelings that the criminal offenders should resign their offices and forever rid the municipality of their presence.

Guarantee of Immunity.

The guarantee of immunity or contract given to the supervisors much freedom, resting largely upon their confession and holding themselves at the call of the prosecution to furnish all evidence and information relative to the criminal proceedings of the board of supervisors as may be required. The contracts or awards of immunity are signed by William H. Langdon, district attorney, while Francis J. Heney, special assistant district attorney, affixed his signature as witness. The substantial provisions of the contracts follow:

The Immunity List.

"In consideration of your confession and furnishing information as to all transactions occurring since you have been a member of the board of supervisors of the city and county of San Francisco, and detailing to the district attorney, or his assistants, or to William J. Burns, or to any one designated by them or any of them, all the information and all facts concerning the bribery of any members of the board of supervisors, at any time they may desire the same, and being ready on command to give any such testimony or render any service that may be required of you, you are hereby promised and granted immunity from prosecution on anything you may have done in the said board of supervisors, or any action you may have taken or tried you may have received. You are further guaranteed that you are not to be molested or your liberty in any way disturbed.

(Signed) WILLIAM H. LANGDON,
District Attorney.
(Witness) FRANCIS J. HENEY,
Assistant District Attorney.

No Law to Forfeit.

As there is no law in California permitting such promises to be made with large bands of criminals, many lawyers regard it almost as the light of a ball delivery, and the prosecution was obliged to look to Texas for a semblance of authority for the unusual action.

A decision such as was desired was found in that state, but in no other state in the country. The case upon which the prosecution rests for its authority is "Commonwealth vs. Texas Criminal Reports." In this case the defendant had been convicted of burglary and sentenced to serve two years in prison.

When he was placed on trial in the lower court he had pleaded an agreement with the county attorney of Baylor county and others representing the state, by which he had been induced to turn state's evidence against a con-

WOODBURN HORSE FAIR WITH RAIN BRING FLOODS

Most Successful Event Splendid Collection of Animals Seen—Vernon, Black Percheron, Takes Sweepstakes.

(Special Dispatch to the Journal.)
Woodburn, Or., March 22.—Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather there is a large attendance at the horse fair in this city today. Much interest is manifested in the different classes on exhibition and a magnificent sight was presented when all were congregated.

The committee in charge of this most successful fair are: Fred Dose, president; Gregory Kelling, secretary and treasurer; Dr. W. H. Goulet, general superintendent; C. G. Gulliford, grand marshal; and E. M. Hicks. The judges selected are Alex. LaFollette of Wheatland, Charles Clancy of Seattle and B. G. Beedlheimer of Salem.

S. A. Miller's two-year-old black Percheron, Vernon, Aurora got the sweepstakes. In the black Percheron class, prizes were awarded as follows: Platon, Zeigler and Brown, Gervais; first; Baladour, S. A. Miller, Aurora, second; Castel, W. Speight, third; Shire and Clyde class—Black Shire, Roosevelt, P. L. Kennedy, Woodburn; first; Clyde, Dupont, D. M. Dryden, Woodburn, second; Standard trotters—Woodburn, first; Vinmount, G. C. Pendleton, second.

The afternoon's program consists of a parade of all stock, and speaking in the Association hall, the principal speaker being Senator Charles W. Fulton.

KILLS WIFE

wore dead, and Maxwell was bleeding profusely. The bodies were taken in charge by coroner Holman, who arrived Wednesday morning. Maxwell was taken care of by physicians.

When the clothing of the wounded man was searched there were several thousand dollars in checks and bank notes on him, and the Maxwell and his daughter came here from Los Angeles several days ago.

MARRIED ONLY A YEAR

Henderson Had Been Sued by His Wife for Divorce.

W. W. Henderson, who shot and killed his wife and a corporation in his father-in-law, Joseph D. Maxwell, before firing a bullet into his own head which ended his life at Oregon City this morning, was a brother of Judge G. M. Henderson, district attorney at Rutledge, Tennessee. He also has a twin sister living at Everett, Washington, but the name was indistinct on the card which Henderson carried in his pocket asking the authorities to notify his relatives in case of accident or death.

Until a few months ago Henderson had been in the employ of the Seattle Street Railway company as a conductor. He was married to Mrs. Odel, the woman he killed, about a year ago.

Henderson telephoned to the Vaughan Detective agency about 8 o'clock this morning that he had effected a reconciliation with his wife, who in January filed suit for a divorce, and that they would leave for Grand Pass later in the day. Half an hour afterwards word was received of the murder and suicide.

Joseph D. Maxwell, the father-in-law was brought to the Good Samaritan hospital in case of accident, but the bullet from Henderson's revolver struck him back of the right ear, glancing upwards without entering the brain. The wound, it is believed will not prove fatal.

UNITE TO OPPOSE STREET'S WIDENING

Property Owners Along East Gilsan Prefer Improved Sixty-Foot Thoroughfare.

Twenty-five street property owners along East Gilsan street met last night at the residence of J. E. White and organized the East Gilsan Street Protective association. The organization was effected to defend its members against the aggressive action of the Montavilla Improvement association that is trying to widen East Gilsan street to 80 feet, the width of the street of the property owners along that street.

The property owners on East Gilsan street represented last night believe that they should not be called upon to meet the expense of widening this street and that the city should not, in the face of their united protest, appropriate the necessary property.

Again those who met last night ask that the street be widened to an improved 60-foot street. The East Gilsan street citizens are earnest and have resolved, if necessary, to carry their case through to the supreme court.

SOLDIER IS SHOT

Corporal Lewis Killed While With Woman—First Shot at Her.

(Special Dispatch to the Journal.)
Astoria, Or., March 22.—Corporal Lewis of the Thirty-third battery, coast artillery, stationed at Fort Stevens, plucked a bullet from Mrs. Robinson in Swan Wilson's saloon, on Commercial street, early this morning. About midnight the man and woman entered the saloon and asked for private quarters. They were escorted to a rear room, where they drank until 3 o'clock.

Suddenly two pistol shots rang out and when the occupants of the saloon rushed to the apartment Mrs. Robinson was found sitting in a chair and Lewis was lying on the floor gasping, bathed in the blood from a gaping wound near the right ear. He was removed to a hospital, where he died at 8 o'clock this morning.

The woman was taken to jail. From her it was learned that Lewis shot intending to kill her, and thinking he had done so sent a bullet through his own brain.

The bullet fired at Mrs. Robinson just grazed her head and did not injure her. She was later taken from the city jail to the county jail. Coroner Fohl is holding her in default of $1,000 bonds as witness to appear at the inquest Monday morning. Insane jealousy is said to be the cause of the shooting.

BANK CLEARINGS

"I know of no cause for this great increase other than the natural growth of business in Portland," said John L. Hartman, manager of the Portland Clearing House today. "There has been a steady increase every week during the year, excepting a single week when the clearings dropped to those of the same week last year. The increases each week have been heavy. During the last week the increase has been in every line of business. It cannot be attributed particularly to real estate, as that line has not been especially active."

BANKERS ALARMED AT GOVERNMENT OWNERSHIP

(Journal Special Service.)
Winnipeg, March 22.—Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta are working out plans for government ownership of telephones and telegraphs involving enormous sums of money. In all those cities municipal ownership of street cars, light, power and water either has been accomplished or bonds are being floated. The amounts involved are so great that conservative bankers are alarmed.

SHOCK AT KINGSTON TO JOLT UNCLE JOE

(Journal Special Service.)
Kingston, Jamaica, March 23.—A severe earthquake shock occurred last night. The people were panic-stricken but nobody was hurt. A number of walls that were damaged in the big shock fell down. Speaker Cannon and other American tourists had missed sailing shortly before the shock.

OLD MAN ARRESTED FOR CRIME DONE YEARS AGO

Convict Says He Has Kept Silent for Years to Protect His Twin Brothers.

(Journal Special Service.)
Charlottesville, Mich., March 22.—Silas Compton, now 70, was arrested at Athens, Pennsylvania, this morning charged with the murder of William Lampan of Grand Lodge, Michigan, on November 11, 1882. The charge was on an affidavit made by John Butcher, who has served 18 years on a life sentence at Jackson prison for the crime, having been convicted after a sensational trial.

"Butcher in his statement says he has kept silent all these years to protect his brothers, Frank and John Butcher, highly esteemed farmers, who he claims were in the plot to rob the old man, who was then the stay of his arrested brother. Butcher made a confession in which he said he did the job alone, but afterward denied the admissions.

The crime for which Butcher was convicted was one of the most atrocious ever known in Michigan. Lampan lived alone on the edge of town. He was 78 years old and a pensioner. His skull was battered in and a pair of overalls used to choke him.

SACRAMENTO AND SAN JOAQUIN RIVERS RISE

(Journal Special Service.)
San Francisco, March 22.—A rain storm of tremendous fury accompanied by a high wind set in last night, rendering railroad and telegraph conditions worse than ever. Reports of the most alarming nature come from the Sacramento and San Joaquin valleys. It is feared that already badly weakened levees have given away under the added strain. If they have, millions of dollars' worth of damage will have been done. There are many unconfirmed reports of loss of life.

TWO FEET OF SNOW

Clings to Telegraph Wires and Pulls Them Down.

(Special Dispatch to the Journal.)
Ashland, Or., March 22.—One of the heaviest snow storms of the year began yesterday afternoon and continued nearly all night, piling up two feet of new snow in the mountains. There are 30 inches of snow at Siskiyou this morning, and three feet at Mott and Dunsmuir. The barometer fell to freezing point this morning. Wires are down south of Ashland from heavy clinging snow. All trees being well covered with snow, it is thought the frost this morning has not damaged fruit much.

The severity of the storm and the deep snow have added greatly to the difficulties of the company in opening the railroad route from Ashland. The storm north of here is heavy. There was one inch of snow at Glendale this morning and it is still snowing.

HEADED FOR ROCKS

bound for San Francisco with a cargo of lumber, and the Nome City, which also answers the description of the vessel in distress, was booked for Seattle, called last night. She started for the bar in the afternoon, but did not cross out owing to the heavy breakers. Whether she made another attempt later in the evening cannot be ascertained, since it is impossible to receive any reports from the bay owing to the thick weather.

The Aurelia received most of her cargo at the mills at Vancouver and sailed at Rainier. She cleared at Astoria Thursday with $30,000 worth of lumber. The Nome City left Portland yesterday morning.

At 10 o'clock a vessel was believed to be the steam schooner Santa Ana, due to arrive here today or tomorrow from San Francisco, but the fact that she was lumber laden dispels this theory, since the Santa Ana is coming in ballast.

Storm Warnings Given.

The storm which has been raging off the Columbia river bar since yesterday afternoon, when it commenced with a 75-mile gale, was predicted yesterday morning by District Forecaster R. A. Beals. The weather bureau at Rainier issued storm warnings displayed yesterday morning at all coast ports and before the clock had reached five, the lookout at North Head had reported that the fog while the vessel was approaching a velocity of more than 70 miles an hour, but it dropped to 60 after having whipped up a good stiff sea.

The blow came from the south and southeast and hence drove shipping in a northerly direction. The bar became very rough and was so boisterous this morning that the bar tug returned after having made a trip down the bay. The bar had blown at the rate of from 40 to 50 miles an hour all night over the bar and morning broke with waves running mountains high. The weather was thick and rainy, making it doubly disagreeable.

BONILLA HASTENS TO RESTORE SEIZED SHIP

(Journal Special Service.)
Mobile, Ala., March 22.—The steamer Columbia from Honduras today brought the first news of the seizure of the Norwegian ship, which is reported to have taken fruit at Ceiba, March 17. The soldiers had to go to Truxillo and capture the city.

President Bonilla hurriedly ordered the steamer to be restored to the crew when he learned of the seizure.

HORRORS OF FAMINE IN CHINA GROWING WORSE

(Journal Special Service.)
Washington, March 22.—The Christian Herald today notified the department of state that its reports show the China famine in some districts is so frightful that it is sending $50,000 additional to the Red Cross. On the transport Buford, which will sail from San Francisco next month, there will be sent forward $150,000 worth of relief supplies.

SEATTLE HAS EPIDEMIC OF SPINAL MENINGITIS

(Journal Special Service.)
Seattle, Wash., March 22.—The number of deaths in Seattle from spinal meningitis during the past two months is remarkable. There has been at least one death from this disease since the first of February, and the physicians of the city seem to be unable either to check it or save the lives of the afflicted.

The Norfolk & Western Railway company has granted the telegraph operators of its entire system an increase in wages of 11 per cent and an eight-hour day.

LAWYER LOCKWOOD

Mr. Lockwood was angry this morning at his commitment and said that Judge Webster had gone outside of the jurisdiction of his court. In speaking of the case Mr. Lockwood said: "The mistaken idea has gone out that I was committed to jail for contempt. Such is not the case. Judge Webster issued a warrant for commitment for me without giving me my day in court; consequently I cannot be in contempt.

"The reason I have refused to sign over the remaining $200 belonging to the estate is because I have no way of securing my fees out of the case. All I want out of the case is a square deal and there will be no attempt on my part to injure anyone or deprive him of his just due.

"This matter has dragged along in the probate court for many years, but it is not so much my fault as of others. Richard Lynch was appointed administrator of the estate of Jerry Lynch, but he is not a resident of the state. A petition asking for Richard Lynch's removal as administrator was filed in the county court five years ago and no action has ever been taken upon it. That accounts for some of the delay.

Call It Politics.

"This whole proceeding is a political conspiracy in an endeavor to throw me into jail and it succeeded for a short time this morning, but the men behind me have fallen down. When the proper time comes I will show up the men and their motives, as well as the methods they have employed."

Just who was responsible for Lockwood's incarceration this morning cannot be learned. Judge Webster says he did not issue an order this morning committing Lockwood to jail and said that he supposed that he had been sent there

ORDERS POLICEMEN NOT TO STRIKE PRISONERS

Acting upon reports received that some prisoners are in the habit of mistreating prisoners, Chief of Police Gritsma has issued an order to the members of the police department to refrain from striking anyone except in self defense. Any violation of the rule will be followed by charges with the police committee.

The chief says that the order has absolutely no connection with the alleged assault committed by Detective Hellye on a bunkman arrested several weeks ago and that in his opinion Hellye was entirely justified in his action. An investigation by the chief at that time showed that the detective did not strike the man in question but that the fellow's attempt to simulate drunkness, Hellye merely rubbed the prisoner's face to wake him up.
