TONIGHT'S AMUSEMENTS.

Hollie Alice—Sit by the Fire. Empress—King of the Castle. Lydia—Michael Angelo. Grand Star—Vanderbilt. Deserted at the Alter.

The newy nature of the Butte Boys Consolidated Mining company's advertisements causes them wide interest, aside from the commercial interest manifested in them. Tomorrow's ad will tell readers of the Sunday Journal something about a newly developed mine. One of the most interesting stories ever taken from the earth. Before the Mohawk had the banner, receiving $574,958.35 from the Selby smelter for two carloads (47 tons) of rock, but that being taken from the new mine makes the Mohawk appear like a kid in short trousers. And best of all, this latest producer is in the same district as that of the Butte Boys, the stock of which is now selling at 10 cents a share, while the company's office ground floor, Westerly buildings, 260 East Morrison street, shares in this property will doubtless soar skyward also, within a short time.

A. C. Hooper, manager of the Mount Pitt Mining company, has returned from the company's property near Grants Pass and announced that he has decided to install a 25-ton cyanide plant to work in connection with their smelter mill. Mr. Hooper reports great progress at the mine, and says that a crew of miners is at work and have taken out hundreds of tons of ore running from $25 to $50 a ton. Mr. Hooper says that a ledge two feet thick was discovered a few days ago which will be one of the richest assets of the property.

HAVILAND CHINA SOLD AT AUCTION

Golden Eagle Closes Big Deal for Bankrupt Stock.

One of the most sure proofs that The Golden Eagle, Portland's youngest department store, is rapidly taking its place in the front ranks of this city's trade is the enormous amount of the recent purchases closed by them of a solid car of the famous Haviland china which Mr. Lewis, the manager of this popular store, secured at the bankrupt sale of a large Boston house, which recently was closed by the sheriff. This purchase was made at a most ridiculous figure—in fact, at less than the price of the commonest china, and the sale which is announced for Monday should be one of the most interesting ever held in this city, especially to all lovers of fine china, as Haviland is and has been known for years as the world's best, and this event will give those who heretofore have not been able to buy this fine dinnerware on account of its extreme cost, an opportunity to secure a set at prices that will make this the most talked-about sale ever held in this city.

SALEM CAPITALISTS AGAIN ARE PURCHASERS

Buy Lot at Tenth and Glisan Streets for Fifteen Thousand Dollars.

D. B. Mackie sold yesterday the lot at the northwest corner of Tenth and Glisan streets to a syndicate of Salem capitalists for $15,000. The lot is occupied by a two-story business house and two small residences. The same party of Salem investors has bought several pieces of property lately through the real estate agency.

Margaret Loschee has purchased from Arthur and Josie Prior a 16-acre tract in section 16 on the peninsula near the Columbia boulevard.

Louis G. Clarke and William F. Woodward sold yesterday to a party of local investors a lot on the west side of Union avenue between East Ash and East Ankeny streets for $5,000. E. J. Daly made the sale.

RABBI WISE SPEAKS ON SHACKLES OF FREEDOM

Rabbi Jonah B. Wise delivered a sermon last night at Temple Beth Israel, choosing for his subject "The Shackles of Freedom," in which he made reference to the day in the Jewish calendar known as the "Great Sabbath." He said in part:

"The Great Sabbath, the last in Egypt and the first of liberty, commemorates the beginning of freedom, but it must be described by a reading of the verse of Exodus, which tells of the last supper to be eaten hurriedly, girded and shod, with the wanderer's staff in hand. Such has been the attitude of the Jew, ever prepared to wander on to seek a new home in the search for liberty. The liberty he wanted is the liberty we should seek—the opportunity to develop."

"No man is free whose mind is bound only to the servidit rut. He is in free man whose efforts increase his powers of happiness, whose increased mental life gives him more joy in living, whose growth lifts him higher. The Egyptian bondage of the servidit to the been of free, untrammeled life."
