THE OREGON SUNDAY JOURNAL, PORTLAND, SUNDAY MORNING, MARCH 24, 1907.

a St. Patrick's day party at the of Miss Della Numlond, 755 East with a St. Patriok's day party at the home of Miss Della Naslond, 755 East Ankeny street. The parlors were dec-orated in green and white, the large reception hall being particularly st-tractive in blue and white, the club's vas played, prime being won by Ed Manstield and L. F. Buck. Those present were Miss Rachael Hallingby, Misses Mamie and Jennie Newton, Miss Della Nealond, Miss Babel Straban, Miss Nora Turner, Miss Eva Graves, Miss Oca Price, Frank Catlow, Ed Manstield, L. F. Buck, Walter An-derson, F. G. Thompson, Will Thamar, L. F. Schuelo, Duka Routledge and Kirk Sheldon.

Kirk Sheldon.  Mrs. B. A. Cathey entertained the Corvallis Afternoon Reading club at her home Tuesday afternoon, in a pleasant manner There was a program followed by light refreshmants. Yes-terday afternoon Mrs. Cathey also en-tertained the Foreign. Missionary so-clety of the First Methodist church, several members from Albany and other invited guests bring present. Mrs. J. B. Horner who last summer visit d the far cast, gave a talk on the Wo-men of Palostine that was very enter-taining and instructive and which was much appreciated by the large company present.

The East and What Side Shakespeare club met with Mrs. J. C. Hare. 274 Caruthers street, last Wednesday ad-ternoon. Mrs. Le Barr, Instructor of the class, read comments from differ-ent writers on the play "Julius Cae-sar," after which it was discussed by the members. Miss Celeste Dygert sang "Hark Hark the Lark." and "Who is Sylvia" (Schubert), words by Shakes-peare. Responding to an encore she any "When Song was Sweet" (Sans Souch. Mrs. F. W. Graves will en-tertain the club Monday afternoon at the Golf Link station. Ahpel. Much attention was paid to Mrs. Max Fleischner, who returned only a week ago from her long eastern trip, and attended the club for the first time

Miss Marion Jackson has been in Scattle this week, the guest of Mrs. C. Luckey, Mrs. Louis H. Tarpita Scattle this week, the guest of Mrs. Mrs. R. R. Hogo, Mrs. A. E. Rockey, Mrs. Lewis was one of the most popular of the younger set in Portland before her marriage and her channing personality in Seattle. Carl Lewis (Miss Laura Jordan). Mrs. K. Gurry, Mrs. A. C. Evans, Mrs. A. A. Lewis was one of the most popular of the younger set in Portiand before her marriage and her charming personality in Beattle. Mr. and Mrs. Charlton gave a beautiful dinner Tuesday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Berry, who have the guests of the I. N. Fleischners over the guests since they returned from Missour: a short time ago. The table was covered with handsome Turk. Ish linen embroidered in yellow. The marriage of Miss Beatrice Hill and Wrs. Robinson, Miss Lovegren, John William Miss M. Lee, H. Beaumint, Miss N. Thompson and others.

There was a very ple-sant gathering at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Dod-son at Troutdale. Oregon, on Thursday, the occasion being Mr. Dodson's eigh-tieth biethday.

the occasion being art. Doubout the Many beautiful sifts were received by Mr. Dodnon. Telegrams and letters of congratulation were read from mem-bers of the family that were unable to bers of the family that were unable to be present. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Graves and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hare. * The Rebekah lodge members of Cor-vallis gave a social and banquet at their hall Wednesday evening in honor of Mrs. Galloway of McMinnville, state vice president of the Rebekah assem-bly, who paid a fraternal visit to the local lodge and held the annual dis-trict convention in Corvallis Wednes-day afternoon and evening.

day afternoon and evening.  The current topics department of the Woman's club was entertained Monday by Mrs. B. S. Pague. The leading papers of the afternoon were given by Mrs. Edward Jaeger and Mrs. Arthur C. Newill. Tomorrow Mrs. O. Elseman of 675 Belmont street will be the hostess. Secretary Roberts of the Oregon As-

Secretary Roberts of the Oregon Ag-ricultural college T. M. C. A. was ten-dered a surprise party by Cauthorn hall boys Wednesday evening. The affair was very pleasant. Mrs. Frederic Berchtold was chaperone for the party of Alpha hall young ladies who were guesta ore Noted for Best Goods at Lowest Prices."

Women's high-grade Tailored Suits, in the popular new grays, in stripes, checks, plaids and plain colors, in a wide range of new style effects. Every garment perfect in fit and finish: but there's only one of a kind. We've reduced the prices on these splendid suits to just about the cost of production. Come in tomorrow and have a look at them. Mail orders filled promptly.

Misses' Suits $12.50

Misses' Tailored Suits, in stripes and checks; box jacket lined with best quality satin and trimmed with fancy buttons and straps; plaited skirt; sizes 12 to 20; $16.50 values.

New Short Coats $4,95

Women's and Misses' new 27-inch Box Coats; velvet collar and fancy buttons; come in stripes, checks and plaids and in all sizes; these are regular $7.50 values: investigate

Silk Raincoats $12.50

Best quality rubberized Silk Raincoats, in blue, gar-net, slate and green; large fancy buttons on pockets, cuffs and down front; full length and a splendid $18.00 grade.

Panama Skirts $5.45

Women's Panama Dress Skirts, in black, navy and brown; full plaited styles and the best $7.50 Skirt in the city; medium weight and strictly man tailored.

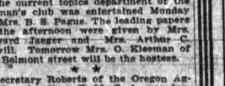

HE two weeks proceeding the close of Lent are usually the duliest of the entire senson, and this year has not been an exception to the role. Society is living in niture, and the post-Lenten senson as with the grand opera promises belling.

brilliant. e Old Ladies' home will have its tea at the usual place, with the brilliant gathering, Easter Mon-The Flower Mission will give its me the following Friday. Several ans are planning to entertain elab-dy in the first few weeks after Conster. Of course, the operatic season is the argest thing looming up in the future. I will show some of the most brilliant asemblages of the season, and already parties are now being arranged for pers and supper. Many will attend all hree performances of the season, and I will be a gay two days. Orders are ouring in from town and out of town, nd many prominent guests will be here, hus occasioning some entertaining by her hostesses.

come of a romantic meeting at the beach last summer when Miss Mastick was in the family cottage at Sch View and Mr. Paterson was visiting at Hon-

On Tuesday morning a pretty w

Beautiful Easter Waists

made under healthful conditions and not the ordinary kinds.

Fine Cambrie Skirt, deep flounce, trimmed with embroidery tucks and laces, dust ruffle; values in this lot to $1.75. Special...$1,29 worth, Mrs. George K. Wentworth, Miss Carlotta Parker and Miss Della Wat-

 The Easter Monday ica of the Old Ladles' home has become a preosdent in models' and preparations are under way for the arrangements. The drawing-room of the Hobart-Curits will again be the scens of the tea and a number of prominent younger mairons with the assistance of the young society girls are planning for the booths, where will be sold homemade candles, punch and flow-ers, and the tearoom. Some pretty new ideas will be introduced in the scheme of decoration and it is said that this tea will be quite as preity as last year's. of decoration and it is said that this tea will be quite as preity as last year's, which was no successful. Mrs. P. J. Masm, president, will bead the receiving line, with members of the board to as-sist her. This is one of the oldest and most liberally patronized of the chari-ties of Portland and numbers many prominent matrons on its board. Mrs. Warren E. Thomas will have charge of the music for the siternoon. All interested in the Old Laides' home are invited to attend. The receiving hours will be from 7 till 5 o'clock. The society is planning to build a new home society is planning to build a new home in the near future and it welcomes encouragement in its efforts

* *

The musicale given by firs. Walter The musicale given by Mrs. Walter Reed. Wednesday afternoon at Eilers' reoftal hall, presenting Miss Allee Jus-ton, Mrs. Ethel Lytle, Miss Kathleen Lawler and Mrs. Lulu Dahl Miller, was the occasion for a fashionable sudience. Mes Bead's musicales Mrs. Reed's musicales are always rather Mrs. Reed a musicales are always rather dressy affairs among the younger els-ment. Mrs. Reed uppeared in a black taffata gown with which she wore a toque of pink rosen. Miss Veds Reed assisted in ushering and was charming in military blue elik, touched with white, and a white leghern trimmed with pink roses. The solution pink roses. The soloists were somely gowned, Miss Juston in a with nanosimely gowned, size Juston in a nile green costume with garnitures of white ince and a large hat of the same shade with white paradise feathers; Miss Lytle in a suge green slik made in jumper siyle with white blouse and a black hat with pink roses; Mrs. Miller a black hat with pink roses; Ark. Miller in a bandseene pale green costume of chiffon cloth with white embroidered trimmings and a French hat in white and Dresden shades; Miss Lawler in a pretty jumper costume of golden brown, the shade of her ball, and a hat with plumes to match with plumes to match.

An interesting ongagement is an-nonneed this week by Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Mastick who make public the beinroital of their daughter Miss Alla Tyler Mastick to Thomas Norman Mastick is a charming Onega Nu so-rority sizt, the oldest of four sisters why popular among the roung people. Ar. Paterson has been identified with me of the Portland banks during his mas and a haif is Portland. He recently teams over from Australia where his huma is. The engagement is the out-

 Mrs. J. B. Livingston and Mrs. Loon C. Jameson were at home to about 76 of their friends on Thursday afternoon at the beautifui new home of Mrs. Jameson on Portland Heights. Tive hundred was played and prizes were won by Mrs. W. L. Northup, Mrs. E. R. Manning, Mrs. Winslow Bradford and Mrs. Raiph Duniway. The house was beautifully decorated with Oregon grape and daffodils which added a charming touch of spring and served as a pleasing background for the beautiful spring gowns and hats worn by the guests. Dut of town guests were present from Astoria. Salem, Medford, Seattle and The Dulles and during the after-peon telegrams of regrets were re-ceived from others.  Those who remember the charming

Those who remember the charming production of "The Foresters" last June on Cedar Hill, the old Green place, will be glad to learn that the Association of Cullegiate Alumnse is to give another out-of-door production. The play will be "As You Like It," and will be given in June for the benefit of the scholar-ship fund being established by the as-nuclation. The members are rejoicing in the excellent record of Miss Jennie Lilly, their indorsed scholar the past year. Every year they will support a sirf, who is chosen by competitive ex-amination, at the University of Oregon. Their first representative has "done herself and them so proud" that they Their first representative has "done herself and them so proud" that they are most enthusiastic over their plan.

The Portland Flower Mission is ar-ranging for an at home at the Irving-ton club house to be given Friday, April 5, for the benefit of the mission. Cards will be played but it will also be a ten for those who do not wish to play cards for those who do not wish to play cards yet desire to help the cause. Mrs. W. P. Sinott is president of the society and Miss Louise Driscoil vice president. The mission has done a great deal of commendable work unestentiously sup-plying the hespitals and charitable or-ganizations often with flowers and fruit. The day nursery for the care of chil-dren while their mothers are away from home is a good work undertaken and supported by them. * * Mrs. C. L. Howe gave a dinner Fri-

 Mrs. C. L. Howe gave a dinner Fri-day night in honor of the twenty-first birthday of her son, Eugene Alexander Howe. The dining room was decorated in yallow and on the table were jon-quils arranged with yellow ribbon and surrounded by green aprigs of forn. The guests were O. C. Leiter, J. L. Travis, William MacRas, Clark H. Will-iams, George A. White, H. F. Thomas, Arthur A. Green and Dr. Charles A. Macrum.

In yallow and on the table were join-guils arranged with yellow ribbon and suprounded by green sprigs of fern. The green with yellow ribbon and suprounded by green sprigs of fern. The green with yellow ribbon and saturday overline, a week ago, in honor of Frank Courtney at his home 135 home 135 Grant street. The evening was spent with music and games and refreshments arburd. A green and Dr. Charles A Macrum.
Arthur A. Green and Dr. Charles A Macrum.
Mrs. Richard Derby who has been risting her sister. Mrs. James Mo-Craken, junior, the past three weeks as popular guest and she was enter-timed informally at dimer and theatre by s number of friends hast week.
The Whist club met Friday with Mrs. I. N. Lipman. The prizes were won by Mrs. S. Julius Mayer, Mrs. Luliux L Mayer, Mrs. Gustaw Sinon and Mrs.
On Monday evening their second anniversary
On Monday evening their second anniversary

Mrs. William Parsons and Miss Ethel Parsons who have been for some time with Dr. and Mrs. William House at Mount Tabor, are now of 619 Northrup street. Colonel Parsons sails from Ma-mila early in April and will join his family in Portland.  The Cathedral young people will give a dance at Muriark hall Friday even-ing, April 5. The patronesses are Mrs. J. P. O'Brien, Mrs. M. Wiley, Mrs. F. J. A. Mayer, Mrs. M. Wiley, Mrs. F. J. E. Leonard, Mrs. W. E. Prudhomme and Mrs. J. O'Connor.  The Association of Collegiate Alum-nke is planning a large tes to be given in April for all college women in town. The -vices of St. Halen's Hall, It is understod, will be the scenes of the town. The following guests were present: Mrs. J. Wiley are to be given in April for all college women in town. The -vices of St. Halen's Hall, It is understood, will be the scenes of the scenes of the towned in allover lace and silk and carried a shower bouquet of white hyacintha. An elaborate dinner was ster the ceremony. The following guests were present:

Tacoma have sent out announcements of the marriage of their daughter, Eliza-beth M. Bradford, to George P. Doherty, Monday, March 18. William H. Sherwood, the Chicago pianist, was the guest of Mrs. Henry C. Prudhomme, a former pupil, and Mrs. Ralph W. Heyt during his stay in Port-iand.

Mrs. Walter B. Honeyman was a guest at Pase Robles Hot Springs, Call-fornia, last week, as were also Mrs. L ay and Miss Carrie May of this city.

* * Mrs. R. P. Graham will entertain the Portia club at her home, 741 Tillamook street, Tuesday afternoon.

The Monday Bridge club met last week with Mrs. C. J. Reed.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

* * A pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Short, at 379 Garfield avenue, Sunday evening, when Miss Marlin Short and Alva Boyd were married. The bride and bride-groom entered to the strains of the "Lohengrin Briday Hymn," played by Miss Bessie Briedwell. The marriage service was read by Rev. F. E. Robin-son of the Rodney Avenue Christian church.

Handkerchiefs, etc. Table Linen Sets at special prices. All Cloths and Napkins hemmed free of charge if bought before Wednesday noon.

Dress Goods and Silks for Easter

Our Easter display of fine Imported Novelties awaits your inspection. You'll find all the wanted weaves and colors here and you'll be surprised at the lowness of our prices.

NEW FANCY SILKS-A complete line of all the newest novelties. Cream Nuns' Veiling in extra quality at 50¢, 75¢, 85¢, $1.00 and $1.25. Complete line of the popular black and white and gray and white checks in either silk or wool goods. Samples on request.

Lohengrin's wedding march wers home to their friends after April B, at Wilson officiating. A number of friends heard the bridegroom entered with the 1278 East Yamhill street.

A presty home to their friends after the Bodney Avenue Christian church. The bride wors a beautiful gown of white chiffon batisto with spangied net yoke and carried a bouquet of white coess tied with white sain ribbon. In-mediately after the ceremony libe quest were ushered to the dining-room, where refreshments were served from a table decorated with carnations and ferm. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Mary Denny. Miss Beaste Bridewell, Miss May Rears and Lores for, Indiana, and Miss Medicie Short of K. Bosept, Missouri, sizer of the bride-minan, and Mrs. Mary Denny. Miss ford, Indiana, and Miss Medicie Short of K. Boyd was formerly from Bedford Mr. BartEI Miss Carrie Lucile Baker was need Mr. Bart Statter Baker and a statter the Grace Methods Mr. Bart Baker Mr. Baker Method Mr. Bowd Mr. Bedford Mr. Bart Baker Mr. Baker Method Mr. Baker Mr. B

Listin and remember the next lime you suffer from pain-caused by damp weather-when your beac nearly jursts from neu-ralgia-try Ballard's Snow Linimeet. It will oure you. A prominent business man of Hompstead, Texas, writes: "I have used your liniment. Previous to using it I was a great sufferer from Rheumatism and Nouralgis. I am pleased to say that now I am free from these complaints, I am sure I ows this to your liniment." Sold by all drug-gists.

* * A pretty home wedding took place at 440 Third streat Wednesday evening when Miss Carrie L Baker and Free-dom C. Stackpole were married by Dr. Clarence True Wilson. The decorations at the home were benutiful and a good program of munic was enjoyed before the ceremony by the large company of friends. A supper-followed the cere-mony. Mr. and Mrs. Stackpole will re-side at 1273 East Yamhill street.

Miss Elmens E. Fry and T. G. Rees wers quictly married by Dr. A. A. Mor-rison of Trinity church Tuesday morn-ing. They have gone to California on their wedding trip and will return in a few weeks to make their home in Fortland.

Mine Grace E. Eincaid and Dughten B. Elleworth were married Sunday, March 10, by Rev. Clarence True Wil-son at the Grace Methodist parsonage in the presence of a few friends. * * Mine Fangle M. Reese and Clay D. Burch of Vansouver, Washington, were married at 201 Eleventh street, by Dr. f. Whiteomb Brougher.

The marriage of Miss Bernice E. Oliver and Charles L. Tostevin took place at 154 North Eighteenth street Tuesday, March 13, Dr. Clarence True mony.

Miss Frances Pullen of St. Johns and C. E. Minsinger were married by Dr. J. W. Brougher Sunday in the reception room at the White Temple. * *

Miss Allos Datguerger and Vaughn D. Crosky were married by Dr. C. T. Wil-son last Monday.

A pretty welding was celebrated Wednesday at the home of the bride's (Continued on Page Fifty-eight.)

