TERRIBLE EFFECTS OF DEADLY "GRIP" PHYSICIAN ADVISES PROMPT ACTION

Richmond, Ind.—The grip epidemic has rendered two men insane, John Hart was placed in a sanitarium, also Jonas Carter, who became very violent. Col. M. H. Holland died yesterday. This brings the fatalities up to fifty-seven in a month. A prominent physician has published a statement that influenza or grip is one of the easiest troubles to cure if taken in time, but if allowed to linger will frequently take a disastrous turn on short notice. The treatment is very simple; stimulate the blood circulation; heal the mucous membranes and keep the bowels normal. For this he advises the use of what is known as the Greek formula. This is as follows: "Two ounces of glycerine; half ounce concentrated oil of pine; eight ounces of good whiskey or Jamaica rum; mix in a ten-ounce bottle and shake thoroughly and use in tablespoon doses every four hours. These ingredients can be obtained from any good prescription druggist. The only care necessary is to be sure to get the genuine "concentrated oil of pine." It always comes put up for dispensing in half-ounce vials, each inclosed in a screw-top case, which keeps out the light and retains all the original ozone. Don't make the mistake of getting any of the oils sold in bulk patent medicines put on the market. In some localities and called "oil of pine." The "concentrated oil of pine" is also used by mixing it with hot lard and rubbing it on the chest and throat. It will prove very effective. Just what causes the "grip" has never been fully determined, but scientists seem to generally agree on the germ theory. However, it is very evident that anything that stimulates and strengthens the mucous membranes succeeds immediately in combating the disease. The active principle of pine has been since the days of the ancients acknowledged as the greatest stimulant and heater for the mucous membrane, and the modern product, "concentrated" oil of pine, when used according to the above formula, works wonders in the above formula, works wonders in the nose, throat and lungs. The worst feature of "grip" is that if not quickly checked will lead into pneumonia and, in many cases, to death. It is a very contagious, frequently wrecking the nervous system.

which drove him from the stage while he was speaking, but he continued his campaign until the time of the election in June. He had been a resident of Crook county for a number of years and took an active part in the political campaign in central Oregon last year.

QUIET FOR SICK WIFE COSTS HIM $25 A DAY

Pays Neighbor to Stop Building House While Wife is Sick—Noise Disturbs Her.

(Journal Special Service.) Los Angeles, April 2.—That his sick wife may not be disturbed by the noise of building in the neighborhood, R. H. Moore of Long Beach is paying $25 a day to G. W. Ray, who had been putting up a house, to suspend operations. The Ray house was partially burned down and cannot be occupied until rebuilt, but Mrs. Moore's condition is so serious that the sound of sawing and hammering distresses her, and she cannot be moved. After considerable negotiation Moore and Ray compromised. It is said that Moore may have to pay the high price of silence for a month to come. This is the first case of the kind ever known in southern California.

GOODE FUNERAL AT 4 TOMORROW

Body Did Not Reach Chicago in Time for Interment Today.

ALL PORTLAND OFFERS TOKENS OF SYMPATHY

Electric Company Officials, Chamber of Commerce, Exposition Directors All Order Appropriate Memorials for Companion.

The funeral of Henry W. Goode was not held at Chicago today. The body did not arrive there on time, and it became necessary to delay the interment. The family finally decided definitely on 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, according to a telegram received this morning by Fred B. Holman. The ceremonies at Chicago are in charge of H. M. Byllesby, an old friend of the dead Portlander. Portland chamber of commerce trustees at their regular monthly meeting today passed resolutions of condolence and respect. The officials of the Portland Railway, Light & Power company gathered at the general offices yesterday afternoon and expressed their sense of loss in eloquent resolutions extolling the character of the deceased president. Various organizations and individuals have taken action to show their esteem by arranging for handsome floral pieces to be placed on his bier when the funeral service is held.

FIRST EASTER BRIDE OF NEW YORK SOCIETY

New York, April 2.—Miss Janet Alexander McCook, daughter of Colonel and Mrs. John J. McCook, was the first Easter bride of the season today, when her marriage to Malcolm D. Whitman took place in the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian church. The bride had no maid of honor. Mr. Whitman was attended by his brother, Hendricks Whitman, of Boston, as best man. Following the church ceremony, which was performed by the bride's uncle, the Rev. Dr. Maitland Armstrong, a reception was held at the McCook home. The bride is the second daughter of Colonel and Mrs. McCook, who have for years been prominent in New York society and who have a summer home at Seabright, New Jersey. Mr. Whitman is a lawyer and in his university days at Harvard was a lawn tennis champion. He and his bride will spend the summer traveling in Europe.

NO STATE SO HEAVILY LIDDED AS MONTANA

Butte, Mont., April 2.—At midnight Sunday all gambling games in Red Lodge closed and the lid is so tight that not even slot machines, which heretofore have been considered immune, are running. Just as the clock hands reached midnight, when the new law, making gambling a felony, went into effect, a band which had been engaged for the occasion played a dirge and a funeral service of gamblers was solemnly drunk with a stirrup cup. In Butte the slot machines are still running but all other games are closed. This is the first time in the territory when gambling has been closed throughout the state.

tion that he supposed his campaign contributions purchased. The president said that his conversations with Harriman had related entirely to the Higgins campaign fund, Harriman being greatly interested personally, because he thought the effort to defeat Higgins was a direct attack upon him. The correspondence the president had with Harriman was also made public. On October 13 Harriman wrote that he would try and run down "the first of next week" when he thought that conditions would be improved. The president's correspondence with Harriman shows that the president is not seeking Harriman's aid and that Harriman sought in advance a copy of the president's message. The president refused, saying that even the members of his cabinet were not permitted to see any part of it and that the three press associations having it were under heavy penalty not to release it, and that Roosevelt was willing to confer with Harriman to aid Higgins and would like to confer with Harriman later in regard to the government's connection with railroads. The letters showed that Harriman thought the message should contain nothing indicating what should be the attitude of the railroads toward the interstate commerce commission.

Olson's Assaults Fined. Ernest Carlson and Olaf Hoff, members of the Industrial Workers of the World, who viciously assaulted Ole Olson, an employe of the Eastern & Western mill several days ago, were fined $10 each in the police court this morning. The fines were paid by the labor organization with which they are affiliated. In view of the brutal and unprovoked assault committed by the two defendants the small fines imposed have caused considerable comment.

MONTANA TOWNS ARE REPUBLICAN

Results of Municipal Elections Show a Great Landslide for G. O. P.

DEMOCRATS WINNERS IN ONLY TWO CASES

Socialists Defeated at Missoula and Red Lodge by Citizens' Combinations — Independent Muckraker Wins at Helena.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Helena, Mont., April 2.—Municipal elections were held yesterday throughout Montana and on the whole they resulted favorably to the Republicans. In fact, with the exception of two cities in central Montana it was a veritable Republican landslide. In Great Falls and Lewistown the Democrats succeeded in electing their whole ticket, etc., while in Butte, Helena, Anaconda, Roseman and Billings, the Republicans were easy winners. In Helena the Republicans carried six of the seven aldermen, while in other cities the proportion was about the same. In two cities, the citizens combined against the socialists and relegated the latter, this being the result at Missoula and Red Lodge. In Butte, the aldermanic ticket is divided. One of the Republicans elected in Helena ran as an independent. This was Alderman Longmaid, who caused the arrest last week of eight residents, including a prominent Democratic politician, on the charge of irregularities, such as buying voters and packing primaries with non-residents. His fight was principally against the public utility corporations. He received a larger vote than the man who beat him in the primaries and the Democratic nominees put together, four to one.

HORSE SPRINGS DYNAMITE MINE

Rev. Homer N. Street Killed by Explosion Before Eyes of Wife and Children.

BODY BLOWN INTO RIVER AND CANNOT BE FOUND

Had Cashed Powder Under Log, Coyotes Dragged It Out and Horse Stepped on It—Victim Noted as a Minister Opposed to Prohibition.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Shaniko, Or., April 2.—Rev. Homer N. Street was instantly killed and blown into the Matoles river, together with his horse, at dusk Saturday evening, by an explosion of dynamite caused by his horse stepping on it. Particulars were received here today. Mr. Street had placed the dynamite under a log but it is supposed that coyotes scattered the explosive in the presence of his agonized wife and children. The body of the horse was located but no trace of Mr. Street's body has yet been found. Rev. Street was known as the rancher preacher of Crook county. He took an active part in the local option campaign of the state and county, being one of the few ministers of the gospel who are opposed to prohibition. Street was a well-to-do rancher of western Crook county, where he owned considerable land and stock. He had followed the ministry for many years and last spring during the campaign joined the forces opposed to local option and prohibition and made a tour of this state, speaking against local option and the disastrous results which he believed would follow its adoption by different communities. At a number of towns in which he spoke, where the prohibition sentiment was strongest, he met with opposition

MANSFIELD MAY NEVER APPEAR ON STAGE AGAIN

Condition Slightly Improved, but if He Recovers Cannot Act Again.

(Journal Special Service.) New York, April 2.—Richard Mansfield, the actor, was slightly improved this morning, but his condition is still extremely serious. His manager, Ben Stevens, announced that Mansfield had passed a very restless night and is very weak. Later in the day, however, he was reported as somewhat improved. Dr. Floyd M. Cranford denied that Mansfield was afflicted with cancer of the stomach as reported along Broadway. He said the patient was suffering from severe intestinal derangement and that unless the progress of the attack could be checked at once the patient might succumb. His weakness is due to a reaction following a recent illness while on the road. Mansfield has been subject to these attacks for several years, having been compelled frequently to abandon tours owing to ill-health. It is said that even if he recovers from this attack he probably will not be able to resume his work on the stage. Great quantities of spraying material are being sold—a good sign.

FOUR PARTIES CLAIM VICTORY IN CHICAGO

Democrat, Republican, Prohibition and Socialist Candidates All Sure.

Chicago, April 2.—The cool, crisp weather today has brought out a heavy vote. The polls were opened at 6 o'clock this morning, and will be closed at 4 o'clock this afternoon. Today the voters of Chicago are deciding by their vote for mayor and on the referendum of the street railway franchises what policy Chicago shall pursue with regard to municipal ownership of the street railway lines. Bussie, Republican, claims the election by a majority of 40,000, while Mayor Dunne, Democrat, is equally confident of reelection by a majority of at least 55,000. The Prohibition and Socialist candidates are as certain of election as are the Republican and Democratic candidates, but they will not make an estimate of the majority by which they hope to carry the city. The personal element in the campaign which has developed so strongly for the past several days has sunk into comparative insignificance again, and the real issue of the day, the streetcar question, has assumed a position of chief importance.

Billiards and pool are ascended, curtilains must be dropped and the establishments may be permitted to have only the "boozie and the bartender." (Journal Special Service.) Madison, Wis., April 2.—The wedding this afternoon of Miss Mabel Davidson, daughter of Governor and Mrs. Davidson, and Frederick C. Inbusch of Milwaukee was one of the most brilliant functions of its kind that has ever been seen in Madison. Two o'clock was the hour of the ceremony, which was performed in the parlors of the executive mansion in the presence of more than 200 guests, among them state officials, members of the legislature and other persons of prominence from all over Wisconsin. The bride has been socially prominent in Madison for the past two or three years. She recently completed a course in the state university. The bridegroom is a wealthy young business man of Milwaukee and graduated from the University of Wisconsin two years ago. After a wedding tour the young couple will make their home in Milwaukee.

MORE FRENCH SECRETS MADE PUBLIC BY PRESS

(Journal Special Service.) Paris, April 2.—Three of the documents that came into the possession of the French government at the time of the expulsion of Montaigni, secretary of the paper manufacturer, were printed by the Figaro today and the announcement was made that all the papers would be printed from time to time. Among the papers published today is the report of an interview with President Jacques Flois of the Liberty league, in which Flois said that after a two-hour conversation with Clemenceau he had concluded that the latter was ready to be bought.
