Whom He Eloped.

(Special Dispetch to The Journal.)

Raim'er, Or., 'April' 4.—Mrs. Jesse Luke, whose husband eloped Bunday with her sister Katle Bevens, seems to hold more hard feeling toward the giri than toward her eloping spouse.

Mr. and Mrs. Luke and Katle Bevens had lived together for the past six or sight months. All got slong well and they were a very happy family, Mrs.
Luke says. She denies that her husband had threatened to elope and desert her.
Mrs. Luke says she noticed no change in her sister's behavior until about a month ago, when she grew rather irritable and refused to assist much with the housework.

"If Jesse and Kate had come to me themselves and told me they were going to do such a thing," said Mrs. Luke,
"I never would have believed them.
Ar. Luke was always good to me and

"I have would have believed them.

"I have would have believed them.
Ar. Luke was always good to me and "I have only, had one quarrel. That was about two weeks ago, and about Katle.

"I never missed them Sunday until about 10 o'clock. I thought Jesse was out with some of his friends and Katle at church. He didn't leave any wood chopped. The fire went out and it got coid and I was too weak to split wood.

"Then I wondered why they did not come home. It took the folks a long time to convince me that they had left.
In spite of all the wrong Jesse has done me, I'd take him back. I den't think Katie will ever return.

"When I am a little stronger I will leave Rainier and go to work for a living."

Jesse Luke's parents are residents of Coquille City, Oregon.

It is not thought that the eloping couple can go very far, as they had less than $50 between them.

Porto Rico in Quality as well as in Name

There are plenty of so-called Porto Rican cigars, many of them made of tobacco grown in the United States; these brands will likely multiply in number since the re-cent increased cost of Porto Rican leaf. That's why smokers everywhere should be more particular than ever to get the genuine

EL TORO Cigar-5 Cents

This is one cigar you can be sure is Porto Rican in quality as well as in name, made in Porto Rico, exclusively of Porto Rican tobacco.

The El Toros now on the market are finer in quality than ever, because of the unusual excellence of this year's crop in Porto Rico, only the best selections of which are used to make the El Toro.

Made in a thoroughly modern factory, with facilities and methods unequalled by any other manufacturer, El Toro cigars are unquestionably the finest 5-cent cigars

Porto Rico has ever produced,

Every El Toro cigar is now banded so you can be sure you get the genuine. It costs you only five cents, as always. The El Toro is superior to any other cigar sold at 5 cents.
