TONIGHT'S AMUSEMENTS.

An error, of little importance, how-ever, except that it is always best to be absolutely correct, was made in the item in this paper yesterday concerning the value of late samples of ore assayed for the Butte Boys Consolidated Mining company. The figures were given as $20.01 to the ton, when it should have been $81.03. At the Butte Boys' office. Weatherly building, $86 East Morrison street, the matter was looked upon as too trifling for correction, but just the same, it is always best to have figures correct—or they will lie. Yesterday was another big day with the company. The secretary sent out nearly 10,000 shares.

At the meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the A. O. H. Monday evening Mrs. Deery presented to the president, Miss Marie Chambers, in behalf of the Ladies' Auxiliary a gold bracelet set with emeralds. After the presentation the doors were opened to the brother Hibernians, and a short program was given as follows: Catherine Foley, piano solo; Mr. Mailey, vocal solo; Catherine Chambers, instrumental; D. W. Lans. poem: Mr. Hayes, vocal solo; with emeralds. After the presentation the doors were opened to the brother Hibernians, and a short program was given as follows: Catherine Foley, piano solo; Mr. Malley, vocal solo; Catherine Chambers, instrumental; D. Professor M. F. Knox, founder of the members of the council and the heads of departments by George S. Shepherd and W. Y. Masters, retiring councilmen, last night. Covers were laid for about 40, and apseches were made by many of those who attended. Mr. Shepherd acted as a transpector of the counting of a college here. He will deliver a series of four free lectures at the A. O. U. W. hall. Selling-Hirsch building. The first lec-

THE GREAT QUESTION (By the Admen's League.)

To be or not to be.
That is the question.
Whether it is better to be a pure, pale-faced maiden here at home,
Living in obscurity.
Or be a squaw—
An lajun's pack muls—
and hie me away to old Virginia's abores,
The gynosure of all (wicked) eyes
For just a little while
And then return—to dense obscurity?
Ah, whether is it better for me to be Real Good,
And some day marry a kind, appreciative chap
Who'll love the good that's really in me,
Or wind myself about with blanket red,
(Inhabited, perhaps, by nameless insects),
And, smidet the huzzas and plaudits of the sons of men

none of men
Who care not an atom for my better self,
Hecome a part of an exhibition—
To be inunced at—
But not to be adored?

But not to be adored!

Nay, nay, Pauline!

Give me the laundry,

Every time!

Away, Virginia!

Away with freaks!

I'll just be all myself,

and later on will be the price of some dear home—hashand and all—and bask forever in the sunshine of his most holy and fund affection!
