

A Little Ad in THE JOURNAL Brings Results. Costs Only One Cent a Word.

The Weather—Fair tonight, with light frost; Thursday fair, warmer.

Oregon Daily Journal

Journal Circulation Yesterday Was 29,108

VOL. VI. NO. 31.

PORTLAND, OREGON, WEDNESDAY EVENING, APRIL 10, 1907—SIXTEEN PAGES.

PRICE TWO CENTS.

ON TRAINS AND NEWS STANDS, FIVE CENTS

FOUR KILLED IN O. R. & N. WRECK

PASSENGER IS DERAILED BY WASHOUT

Many Injured in Disaster Near Pendleton Due to Storm—Mail Clerks Sufferers

Fireman, Two Tramps and Unknown Workman Victims—Engine Turns Completely Around—Crew Leap Into the River and Are Injured.

O. R. & N. passenger train No. 8, from Huntington, due in Portland at 1:30 o'clock today, was wrecked by derailment at a washout between Cayuse and Bingham Springs at 4:30 o'clock this morning.

The Dead and Injured. The killed are: George McPatrick, fireman. Two tramps, names unknown. One Greek laborer.

The main line is blocked by the wreck. A special train bearing the injured, and the bodies of those killed, is on the way down to Portland, and will arrive here at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

Wreck Caused by Washout. Owing to doubtful condition of the tracks the train was running at slow speed. The derailment was caused by a washout.

BRYAN'S REVISED RAILROAD POLICY

Commoner Still Thinks Federal Ownership of Anything Except Trunk Lines Would Obviate State Rights.

New York, April 10.—The Wall Street Journal prints today a letter to the editor from William Jennings Bryan, dated at Lincoln, Nebraska, April 8, giving Bryan's revised policy, especially with regard to the railroads and their relation to the government.

The plan, according to which the federal government is to own only the necessary trunk lines and the several states own the remainder of the roads, is consistent with our form of government.

BLOOD ATONEMENT SOUGHT BY JEROME

DISTRICT ATTORNEY JEROME

PROSECUTOR PLEADS FOR PUNISHMENT

Asks Jury Not to Let Passion or Sentiment Sway Verdict Against Prisoner

New York, April 10.—Jerome was at fever heat when the Thaw trial was resumed this morning. A greater crowd than ever was present.

Jerome warned the jurors that neither the personality of Thaw's pleaders nor of himself is at issue.

LOCAL OPINION IS ACQUITTAL

Portland Attorneys, With But Few Exceptions, Believe Defendant in Celebrated Case Will Be Given His Freedom

Interest in the Thaw murder trial in New York is world wide. Arthur Brisbane, one of the greatest of editorial writers, says that it is one of the most important trials in history.

Everybody Looks for Her

All of Oregon participates in great beauty quest. Never before has such universal interest been awakened.

The Observer is pleased that The Portland Journal has accepted the challenge of the Chicago Tribune that the most beautiful woman in the United States lives in Chicago.

There's the True Oregon Spirit! Get in and Do Your Share!

MONSTER SKELETON OF PREHISTORIC ANIMAL IS FOUND IN CALIFORNIA

Bones Twelve Inches in Diameter Resemble Vertebra of a Short Tail.

Redwood City, April 10.—The skeleton of a monster animal has been discovered at Wink's Moss beach at Half Moon bay.

Heavy rains caused a small creek to change its course, and wash out the base of a 30-foot bank.

BELMONT ATTACKS ROOSEVELT

PERRY BELMONT.

Washington, April 10.—Perry Belmont, multi-millionaire and former minister to Spain, touched the buzzsaw this morning to see if it is still running.

JUNK DEALERS ACTED PART OF WICKED FAGINS

Incited Boys to Steal Valuable Metal and Are Now Facing Serious Charges—Parents Hear Young Sons Accused.

A story of boys who go to school by day and steal by night and of junk dealers who call the young thieves from their homes by signal whistles and urge them on to crime was told in detail last night at a hearing of nine young offenders in the juvenile court.

OIL GUSHER STRUCK IN IDAHO

Nex Perce, Idaho, April 10.—New Perce is wildly excited over the discovery of an oil gusher on the E. G. Casson place, two miles from town.

HERMANN FOUND JOBS FOR ENTIRE FAMILY AT GOVERNMENT'S EXPENSE

When Land Commissioner, Congressman Claimed That He Did Not Have Enough Money to Prosecute Land Grafters, but Found Sufficient to Provide for Relatives—Son-in-Law Is Paid for Work in Field While Studying Medicine in Commissioner's Back Office—Uncle Given Work to Pay Mortgage.

The prosecution brought from Hermann the statement that he took into the service of the land office these relatives: W. A. Borter, uncle, forest supervisor; Edward Gander, brother-in-law, special agent; W. G. Hermann, brother, forest supervisor; Arthur B. Hermann, the latter's son, supervisor; Kyle Miller, son-in-law, special agent; Ernest F. Glotfelty, cousin, messenger.

There's the True Oregon Spirit!

used here before and on a number of occasions where wells have been sunk to the depth of 300 feet water has been so contaminated as to render it unfit for domestic use, stock water refusing to drink it.