M'CREDIE'S MEN PLAY AN UPHILL CONTEST

Giants Start Out in Good Shape but the Miscues of Mr. Gum Were Too Serious to Be Overcome and a De feat Is Registered-The Score.

(Journal Special Service.) Sam Francisco, April 11.—Gum had a ard time yesterday in keeping his grees out of harm's way and in locurves out of barm's way and in lo-caling the plate on the proper occa-sions. His failure to do the correct bing coat the Portland team the con-test. Jones was also wild, but he man-aged to keep his badness scattered throughout the game. Portland started out tike a winner. Shinn, the first man up had a good eye and walked. He was moved to second on an out and rushed bome when Patrick Neuman of Texas smashed out a double that was a rip-per. In the third brush a sacrifice and a long fly gave Portland another tally. In the fifth Portland registered one more on two good drives.

In the fifth Portland registered one more on two good drives. The visitors were playing an uphill same, but Gume continued to get worse instead of better and the Scals managed to forge ahead and maintain a safe lead to the end. The score: PORTLAND.
