

FRIND OF THAW SHOTS HIMSELF

While Song of Unrequited Love Is Being Sung at Theatre, Robert M. Crowe Fires Bullet Into His Side.

(Journal Special Service.) Pittsburgh, April 11.—While Miss Ethel Levy was singing "Unrequited Love" at the Grand opera house yesterday afternoon before a large and fashionable audience, Robert M. Crowe, 27, arose in a box, calmly loaded his revolver and fired a bullet into his side.

JAPANESE COMMEND THE MURDERERS OF OMAI

Hold a Meeting and Pledge Assistance to Men Who Killed Highbinder.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Tacoma, April 11.—A number of this city to the number of 150 held a meeting last evening and pledged themselves to assist in every way possible M. Moriyasu and M. Nakamura, the self-confessed murderers of H. Omat, the Japanese highbinder, in a restaurant three nights ago. Omat was an ex-convict and the Japanese colony here feels a great relief that the man is dead.

STATESMEN GATHER FOR COLONIAL CONFERENCE

London, April 11.—A number of the distinguished colonial statesmen who are to take part in the coming colonial conference have reached London.

COLONIAL DAMES PROUD OF LONG PEDIGREES

(Journal Special Service.) Colorado Springs, Colo., April 11.—Many women whose pedigrees are so long they are able to trace their ancestry back to pre-revolutionary days gathered here today to attend the annual meeting of the Colorado branch of the Colonial Dames.

BOY BADLY HURT BY FALL AT PENDLETON

Pendleton, Or., April 11.—Charles Ferringer, son of John Ferringer of Adams, is expected to die as the result of injuries received from falling from a horse to the pavement here.

FIND OUT THE Kind of Food That Will Keep You Well.

The true way is to find out what is best to eat, to drink, and then cultivate a taste for those things instead of poisoning ourselves with improper, indigestible food, etc.

TO BUILD A TWO-MILE TUNNEL NEAR TACOMA

Will Avoid Heavy Grade Out of City and Crossing Hill Tracks.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Tacoma, Wash., April 11.—The Union Pacific railroad is planning to build a two-mile tunnel, beginning at Hunt's Prairie, south of the Northern Pacific car shops at South Tacoma, and running in a northeast direction to a point near Lincoln park, eight blocks from the probable site of the union depot.

CALENDAR OF TRIAL

History of Celebrated Case Told in Dates.

JURORS HAGGARD

the steps and swept away parts of the police guard before reinforcements arrived. The brothers fled to escape like treatment before they were recognized.

(Continued from Page One.) Shortly after 2 o'clock the Thaw jury left the court building for breakfast. A number of the jurors bore evidence of the strain of the night. They resumed their deliberations at 2:30.

TO BUILD A TWO-MILE TUNNEL NEAR TACOMA

Will Avoid Heavy Grade Out of City and Crossing Hill Tracks.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Tacoma, Wash., April 11.—The Union Pacific railroad is planning to build a two-mile tunnel, beginning at Hunt's Prairie, south of the Northern Pacific car shops at South Tacoma, and running in a northeast direction to a point near Lincoln park, eight blocks from the probable site of the union depot.

CHANGÉ OF PASTORS BY SILVERTON METHODISTS

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Silverton, Or., April 11.—Rev. Thomas Maxwell, who was appointed pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church in this city last fall by the Oregon conference, has resigned his pastorate, and with his family will move to Iowa, where he has accepted a call. The pastor of the church to which Mr. Maxwell goes will supply the Silverton pulpit, and is expected here next week.

Two Hundred People Drowned.

(Journal Special Service.) Berlin, April 11.—Two hundred were drowned in floods in the valley of the Vadar river in Turkey this morning, according to the dispatches from there.

Mrs. Smith Snicides.

(Journal Special Service.) Chicago, April 11.—The body of Mrs. Sylvester Smith, aged 55, wife of a retired railroad magnate and capitalist, was found in the lake this morning. It is supposed that she committed suicide.

SALEM MAN INHERITS FORTUNE IN FLORIDA

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Salem, Or., April 11.—After having lived in and about Salem for 25 years or more, Samuel Hutchinson, an old soldier of the civil war, has just fallen heir to valuable property in Florida through the death of an uncle, General Stoum.

RESERVOIR DAM BREAKS BUT FAMILY IS SAVED

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) North Powder, Or., April 11.—When the reservoir dam above the ranch house of Andrew Dahlstrom, seven miles from town, broke late Monday night, the family saw the great wall of water descending upon them in time to save themselves, but lost in property at least $600.

COFFEE

Good coffee, good morning. Good morning, good day. Good day, good night. Good night, good morning.

SUNSHINE WILL KILL MICROBES

If Present Weather Continues All Traces of Spinal Meningitis Will Disappear.

(Journal Special Service.) Pittsburgh, Pa., April 11.—Miss Gertrude Schwab, a sister of Charles M. Schwab, was married yesterday in St. Michael's Roman Catholic church at Loreto, a beautiful little edifice that was presented to the town by Schwab, to David Barry, cashier of the First National bank of Johnstown.

ASSIGN PASTORS FOR COMING YEAR

Annual Conference of United Evangelical Churches Finishes its Work.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Corvallis, April 11.—The annual conference of the United Evangelical churches of Oregon, held in this city, is now history. As a result of its deliberations the following announcements are given out regarding the stationing of pastors for the coming year. The list follows:

COLONEL HALL BECOMES A BRIGADIER GENERAL

(Journal Special Service.) Washington, April 11.—Having reached the age limit of 64 years, Brigadier General Walter T. Dugan was placed on the retired list today. General Dugan was born in England. He entered the civil war as a private in the Fifth Wisconsin volunteer infantry.

Eleven Burned in Wreck.

(Journal Special Service.) Winnipeg, April 11.—It is reported that 11 were burned to death and 40 injured this morning in a Canadian passenger wreck near Chaplains, Ontario.

ASSIGN PASTORS FOR COMING YEAR

Annual Conference of United Evangelical Churches Finishes its Work.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Corvallis, April 11.—The annual conference of the United Evangelical churches of Oregon, held in this city, is now history. As a result of its deliberations the following announcements are given out regarding the stationing of pastors for the coming year. The list follows:

CALHOUN TO FACE

petition of his arrival. And all the while President Calhoun was in the Webster street mansion.

FISHERMEN MAY STRIKE WHEN SEASON OPENS

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Astoria, Or., April 11.—A meeting of the Columbia river cannerymen and cold storage salt salmon packers held here last evening the price of salmon for the season which opens April 15 was fixed at 5 cents per pound for small fish and 7 cents for large fish weighing over 25 pounds.

MANUFACTURING AND REALTY INCORPORATIONS

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Salem, Or., April 11.—The following articles of incorporation were filed yesterday with the state:

H. B. JOHNSON SELLS FOREST GROVE STABLES

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Forest Grove, Or., April 11.—H. B. Johnson, after conducting a livery business in this city for 22 years, has sold at auction his horses, vehicles and other livery stable properties and leased his building to Goff Bros., who will remodel the interior and move their hardware business into it about May 1.

SALEM MAN INHERITS FORTUNE IN FLORIDA

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Salem, Or., April 11.—After having lived in and about Salem for 25 years or more, Samuel Hutchinson, an old soldier of the civil war, has just fallen heir to valuable property in Florida through the death of an uncle, General Stoum.

RESERVOIR DAM BREAKS BUT FAMILY IS SAVED

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) North Powder, Or., April 11.—When the reservoir dam above the ranch house of Andrew Dahlstrom, seven miles from town, broke late Monday night, the family saw the great wall of water descending upon them in time to save themselves, but lost in property at least $600.

COFFEE

Good coffee, good morning. Good morning, good day. Good day, good night. Good night, good morning.

ASSIGN PASTORS FOR COMING YEAR

Annual Conference of United Evangelical Churches Finishes its Work.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Corvallis, April 11.—The annual conference of the United Evangelical churches of Oregon, held in this city, is now history. As a result of its deliberations the following announcements are given out regarding the stationing of pastors for the coming year. The list follows:

CALHOUN TO FACE

petition of his arrival. And all the while President Calhoun was in the Webster street mansion.

FISHERMEN MAY STRIKE WHEN SEASON OPENS

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Astoria, Or., April 11.—A meeting of the Columbia river cannerymen and cold storage salt salmon packers held here last evening the price of salmon for the season which opens April 15 was fixed at 5 cents per pound for small fish and 7 cents for large fish weighing over 25 pounds.

MANUFACTURING AND REALTY INCORPORATIONS

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Salem, Or., April 11.—The following articles of incorporation were filed yesterday with the state:

H. B. JOHNSON SELLS FOREST GROVE STABLES

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Forest Grove, Or., April 11.—H. B. Johnson, after conducting a livery business in this city for 22 years, has sold at auction his horses, vehicles and other livery stable properties and leased his building to Goff Bros., who will remodel the interior and move their hardware business into it about May 1.

SALEM MAN INHERITS FORTUNE IN FLORIDA

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Salem, Or., April 11.—After having lived in and about Salem for 25 years or more, Samuel Hutchinson, an old soldier of the civil war, has just fallen heir to valuable property in Florida through the death of an uncle, General Stoum.

RESERVOIR DAM BREAKS BUT FAMILY IS SAVED

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) North Powder, Or., April 11.—When the reservoir dam above the ranch house of Andrew Dahlstrom, seven miles from town, broke late Monday night, the family saw the great wall of water descending upon them in time to save themselves, but lost in property at least $600.

Spring Fashions

When we invite you to see our spread of Spring Fashions in Chesterfield Clothes we would impress upon you that it is worth your while. Our display is representative of the freshest ideas of the artist designers, and these ideas have been faithfully carried out in every detail by expert tailors.

OUR COLLECTION OF CHESTERFIELD SUITS AND TOP COATS Is Notable for Both Novelty and Quality. $20 to $50 R. M. GRAY 269-271 MORRISON STREET.

American National Bank SAN DIEGO, CAL. CAPITAL (paid up) $100,000.00 SURPLUS AND PROFITS $40,000.00 OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS LOUIS J. WILDER, Pres. R. M. POWERS, Vice-Pres. H. E. MILLA, Vice-Pres. CHARLES L. WILLIAMS, Cashier. L. J. RICE, Asst. Cashier. E. STRAHLMAN.

THE MAGIC MELODY MAKES A HIT AT BUTTE (Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Butte, Mont., April 11.—Lieber & Co. last evening presented their latest acquisition in the starring line, Walter Whiteside, and a remarkable company, in their newest production, "The Magic Melody," at the Broadway theatre, and won an instant and distinct success. The play is strong, healthy, clean, virile drama of today, embodying some of the more attractive features of the modern commercial play with an artistic atmosphere created by the tale of the musical world about which the vehicle revolves.

COLONEL HALL BECOMES A BRIGADIER GENERAL (Journal Special Service.) Washington, April 11.—Having reached the age limit of 64 years, Brigadier General Walter T. Dugan was placed on the retired list today. General Dugan was born in England. He entered the civil war as a private in the Fifth Wisconsin volunteer infantry.

HAWTHORNE AVENUE ROBBERS GET WATCH (Journal Special Service.) Pittsburgh, April 11.—A man giving the name of Frederick Stegel of Los Angeles was arrested at the entrance of the hotel this morning when seeking Carnegie. He said he wanted to see Carnegie about a patent saw-milkin. The prisoner had an open jack-knife in his cuff.

106 YOUR LUCKY NUMBER 106 BE ONE OF THE LUCKY ONES—YOU'LL FIND THAT THE Home Furniture Company's New Furniture Store

Is THE PLACE where most everything to furnish the Home, Store or Office can be had at such REASONABLE prices that you will consider ours a lucky number indeed. CASH ONLY—NO CREDIT. WE'RE IN THE GREEN FRONT BUILDING AT FIRST STREET BET. WASHINGTON and STARK STREETS