

A Little Ad in THE JOURNAL Brings Results. Costs Only One Cent a Word.

Oregon Daily Journal

Journal Circulation Yesterday Was 29,792

VOL. VI. NO. 33.

PORTLAND, OREGON, FRIDAY EVENING, APRIL 12, 1907.—TWENTY PAGES.

PRICE TWO CENTS.

ON TRAINS AND NEWS STANDS FIVE CENTS

THAW JURY UNABLE TO AGREE AND IS DISCHARGED BY COURT.

NO VERDICT IS RETURNED, SO MISTRIAL ENDS MURDER CASE

NEW TRIAL PROMISED BY PROSECUTOR

Jerome Will Lose No Time As Expected Happened--Evelyn Is Near Collapse

New York, April 12.—(Bulletin.)—The Thaw jury reported to the court at 4:30 this afternoon that they were unable to agree, and were discharged from further consideration of the case.

New York, April 12.—With Harry Thaw's jurors out 48 hours without reaching an agreement, it is generally believed about court that the only possible result is a mistrial.

With such mobs about the court house that it is necessary to call for reserves to prevent the women of the Thaw party from being trampled under foot, the intense public interest seems to continually increase.

DENIED JUSTICE AT WHITE HOUSE

Mrs. Von Claussen Declares That Roosevelt Is Bombastic and Doesn't Stand for a Square Deal to Women.

Washington, D. C., April 12.—Mrs. Von Claussen has left Washington for New York, declaring that "Mr. Roosevelt is bombastic. I am only seeking reparation for the insult offered American women by the refusal of the minister to present me to the court in Sweden."

Snapshot of Mrs. William Thaw, the prisoner's mother, and her daughter, the Countess of Yarmouth, leaving the criminal courts building.

BURNED TO DEATH IN BED

Silas Christman of Salt Lake, Incinerated in Fire That Destroyed Radium Springs Health Resort

Baker City, Or., April 12.—Crippled with rheumatism so he could hardly walk, suffocated by smoke which rolled around his bed in clouds before he was aware anything was wrong, cut off from escape by the darting tongues of flame, Silas Christman of Salt Lake bravely battled for life until he was rendered unconscious, when he fell into the midst of the flames and was burned to death in a fire which destroyed the Radium Springs health resort, a mile west of Haines between 2 and 3 o'clock this morning.

origin, consumed the entire resort, doing damage amounting to $50,000, leaving nothing standing but the shack used as an engine house and an old cottage. Insurance amounting to $34,500 covered the building.

What Is Beauty?

That is the all-absorbing topic. There are as many ideals as there are persons to have those ideals. To throw light upon this mooted question, the leading photographers of Portland discuss it in next Sunday's Journal.

Read About It in the Delightful SUNDAY JOURNAL

And see the second installment of these beautiful Oregon women.

CAUGHT IN FIERY TRAP UNDER ROOF

C.C. Wiley Nearly Dead Pulled Through Hole Chopped In Side of Lents House

Imprisoned in a small pantry, escape out off by the collapse of the burning roof, the fire from which literally wrapped his body in flames, C. C. Wiley of Lents, a member of the Carl sect, was rescued yesterday afternoon by being dragged through the hole in the side of the burning Dom residence, which the neighbors in frantic haste had chopped in order to save the man's life.

Wiley's coat was burned from his back, his arms painfully seared and his face, which caught the full blast of the flames during the few minutes he was held like a rat in a trap, was frightfully burned. The skin peeled from his face in the terrific heat.

HEELERS PROMPT ILLEGAL VOTERS

Persistent Ruetler Who Tried to Jam Through a New Resident for Registration Is Thrown Out and Abe Tichner Goes Also.

Overzealous candidates for municipal office are making strenuous efforts to register their friends, whether the latter are entitled by law to the franchise or not. During the past two days scores of attempts have been made to register illegal voters.

MARRIED 150 WOMEN, BUT LOVES ONE

BECOMES INSANE THINKING HENEY IS CHASING HIM

Demented Sailor Takes to Fire Escape to Get Away From Graft Prosecutor—Hurts Coffee Cups at Passers-by and Fights Police in Mid Air.

San Francisco, April 12.—For 15 minutes yesterday afternoon Policeman Kruger battled with John Anderson, a demented sailor, on a fire escape of the Delmar hotel, on Third street near Howard.

WIFE NUMBER ONE HELPED HIM WED

Archbigamist Offers to Confess and Tell Story of Numerous Weddings if His First Spouse Is Given Immunity.

Philadelphia, April 12.—With 150 wives, assisted by the first in marrying the last 149 of them, James Mathias Williams, alias James Marshall, is under arrest here. He has confessed to being a bigamist. He would not admit the total number, however, though the police claim that they have evidence of his 150 weddings.

WILSON TO QUIT CABINET IN RAGE OVER REVERSAL

Secretary of Agriculture Said to Be Angry Over Roosevelt's Interference—Sustains Subordinate on Appeal in Whiskey Case—Taft Sides With Wilson

Washington, April 12.—It is the broad intimation in well informed quarters that Secretary of Agriculture Wilson may take such umbrage at President Roosevelt's reversal of Wilson's decision in the whiskey controversy as may lead to a change in the cabinet.

PRETTY 14-YEAR-OLD GIRL MISSING FROM HOME 4 DAYS

Hazel Daley Mysteriously Disappears While on Her Way to East Side High School. Card Found Among Her Belongings

The past aide last Monday morning. The girl's strange behavior is inexplicable to the grief-stricken relatives and they fear that some harm has befallen the child. The authorities have ascertained that little Miss Daley has sought employment at several houses in the residential district upon the representation that she was an orphan from California.