With reference to a story printed Sunday morning to the effect that John Burke, a well-known citizen of Portland, was lodged in jail as a raving maniac, his sister, Miss Mary Burke, declares that it is untrue and that her brother has merely been ill for several weeks. Mr. Burke has been suffering from locomotor ataxia and has been in the care of a physician. He is far from insane, says Miss Burke, and Deputy Sheriff Bird did not call at his home. Seventh and Salmon streets, to take care of him. It had been planned for several days to send him to a private sanitarium for treatment and he was sent there Saturday.

Rev. B. S. Hughes entered on his work at the Second United Evangelical church in Albina yesterday, and preached morning and evening. Rev. J. Bowersox received a hearty welcome at Oakley Green in North Albina. Rev. A. A. Winters has been welcomed back to the First church, East Tenth and East Sherman streets, and Rev. C. F. Gates has been sent to St. John's. The new conference year began yesterday.

A lecture will be given Tuesday at 8 p. m. at the Fourth Presbyterian church, First and Gibbs streets, by Rabbi Jacob B. Wise, on "The Contributions of the Gentiles to Culture." The lecture course is now nearing the close. The lectures are given by the association solely for educational purposes, and the public are cordially invited to attend. The usual musical program will be rendered.

The Odd Fellows' lodges, Rebekah lodges and encampments that meet at the Odd Fellows' temple, will celebrate the 88th anniversary of the order. The celebration is given by the association solely for educational purposes, and the public are cordially invited to attend. The usual musical program will be rendered.

Professor J. C. Managhan, for a number of years a resident of France, and at present chief of the bureau of consular reports at Washington, District of Columbia, will deliver a lecture at the Woodmen of the World hall, Eleventh and Alder streets, tonight on "The French Revolution from a Layman's Standpoint." Admission 50 cents.

A meeting of the New York State society will be held at the home of Mrs. R. C. Bell, 543 Sixth street, tomorrow evening. It being a small establishment in Portland are urged to be present. An interesting program has been arranged. The society will hereafter meet on the Third Tuesday of each month.

W. B. Holdiman, charged with a statutory offense involving Hattie Fee, a 16-year-old girl, was arraigned in the circuit court this morning. The crime is alleged to have been committed on January 1. Holdiman will plead Thursday. Henry Hoffman, charged with furnishing liquor to little boys of Santa, was arraigned and pleaded not guilty.

A slaughter house near Kelly's Butte leased by Martin Olson burned down early yesterday morning. Olson's loss was considerable. It being a small establishment in Portland are urged to be present. An interesting program has been arranged. The society will hereafter meet on the Third Tuesday of each month.

The Episcopal Chinese Mission school has moved from 233 Second street and now occupies new quarters at 254 Taylor street. The school has reopened day and night, the evening school from 7:30 to 9:30. Superintendent James M. Kan, expects the regular attendance of teachers and pupils to be there.

Lawn Grass Seed, the kind that will grow and stand our long dry summers, the same that was awarded the only gold medal at the Lewis and Clark exposition, sold only by J. J. Buxner, 188 Front street, between Yamhill and Taylor. "Don't get in the wrong place."

The annual parish meeting of Trinity church which was postponed from last Monday will take place tonight at 8 o'clock at the parish house. All members are invited to be present. The annual reports will be read and there will be the election of the vestry.

We make no charge for a scientific eye examination. Small charges for proper lenses if necessary. If you need the services of a doctor we frankly tell you so. George Rubenstein, optician, 153 Fourth street, between Yamhill and Taylor.

CONSIDER CALLS GRANGERS TO TO NEW PULPITS GATHER SOON

One of Most Important Pieces of Work to Come Before the Portland Presbytery.

The Portland Presbytery will meet this week at Calvary church for its annual meeting. It will come into session at 7:30 tomorrow night and assist in the silver anniversary celebration of Calvary church. Wednesday will be given over to business and the session will last all day with a luncheon at the church served by the women. Rev. L. M. Booser of the Piedmont church is a moderator and Rev. E. M. Sharp is the stated clerk, a position held for three years at a time, while the moderator is elected every six months.

The business session Wednesday morning will be given over to reports of committees, the election of commissioners to the general assembly at Columbus, Ohio, May 15, and to call extended with the Presbytery in the past six months. The calls to be approved by the Presbytery will include that of Rev. William Hiram Foulkes to the First Presbyterian church, of Rev. G. W. Arms to the Anabel church, and of Rev. D. H. Hare to the East View church. The last has just been given, and it is not yet known if Mr. Hare, who is assistant pastor at the First church, will accept it but it must at any rate come before the Presbytery.

The most important business by far will be the acting on the report of the home missions committee. This is the time when the appropriations are made for the year's work and as the Presbytery includes Multnomah, Clatsop, Tillamook, Washington and Clackamas counties, the matter of support is a large and important one. The Montaville church is to petition for organization under this head.

It is understood that a plea for better support of Albany college, a question which came up last week before the meeting of the Presbytery local ministers, will come up either under the report of the committee on aid for colleges or as a special item, and there will probably be a lively discussion on the matter as opinion on its support seems widely divided.

At 2:30 tomorrow afternoon the meeting of the Portland Presbytery will be held at Hawthorne Park church. This is the Presbytery formerly comprising the Cumberland churches, but since the Presbytery and Cumberland churches were united by vote of the general assembly it is to all intents part of the Portland Presbytery only, waiting for the vote of the general assembly to unite them.

Until the assembly meets in May it is known as the Portland Presbytery, signifying its former Cumberland existence. The session will be a short one, only to wind up the business and to elect delegates to the assembly. Rev. C. I. Brown of Seaside is moderator.

NEGROES OPENLY PLAY POKER IN BARROOM

Patrolmen Howell, Evans and Wendt swooped down on a poker game conducted in Walker & Allen's Climax saloon, 153 North Sixth street, shortly before 12 o'clock last night and arrested nine negroes on charges of gambling. The game was running wide open in the main barroom with no attempt at concealment and the bluecoats secured the cards, chips, $1 in cash and the table as evidence.

All of the men arrested were released on bail and the cases will be heard in the police court tomorrow. It has been reported to the police on several occasions that illegal gaming was in progress in the saloon in question, but not until last night were the authorities able to make a successful raid.

SOCIETY CIRCUS SOON TO STIR UP SAWDUST

The big society circus is now ready. Every performer is in fine trim and all details of the performance will be perfected and "pointed up" tonight. Seats are now selling at Sherman, Clay & Co., Sixth and Morrison, and the great demand for seats assures the circus immense audiences. The street parade is now being arranged under the direction of T. Morris Dunne and will be formed at the Armory and get under way at 4 o'clock Thursday. Three performances of the circus will be given at the Armory—Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights.

CELEBRATE AT CALVARY TONIGHT

Church's Members Remember
Its Founding Twenty-Five Years Ago.

Tonight at Calvary Presbyterian church, Clay and Eleventh streets, will be held the first meeting in celebration of the silver anniversary of the founding of the church.

Twenty-five years ago Calvary church began its life as a separate organization, parting from the mother church from purely missionary spirit, and today there are still those among the active members of Calvary who remember its founding and have followed it through its times of growth and its necessary seasons of depression with love and devotion. A greater number of its charter members, however, have passed on and left the active work to others, but the remembrance of their zeal and faith rests not only upon the church itself, but the community of which it is a part. Five pastors have filled the pulpit of Calvary since its founding. The first was Dr. E. Trumbull Lee, now in Pittsburg, Pennsylvania, and after him Dr. Warren E. Landon, now Ladd professor in the Presbyterian theological seminary of San Anselmo, California. The next pastor, Rev. John Morrison, died in Yellowstone Park, during a vacation time in his active Portland ministry. Landon, who was succeeded by Rev. William Gilbert, now at the Astoria Presbyterian church, and a little less than a year ago Dr. B. E. S. Ely became minister to Calvary.

Dr. Landon and Mr. Gilbert have both returned to take part in the commemorative services, and to meet again the old and new members of the church in social reunion. All former and present members of Calvary church and their friends are invited to be present on these occasions.

Tonight the gathering will be an informal reception, and Mr. Foulkes, the pastor, and Mr. Gilbert will speak. Tomorrow at the commemorative services Dr. Landon will be the central figure. The following is the program for the two days:

Monday night—Greetings, "Words of Welcome," the pastor; "Mother to Daughter," Rev. William Hiram Foulkes; "Then and Now," Chiefly Telling the Story," Mr. Coleman; "The Trustees," Mr. Honeymay; "The Sunday School," Mr. Ramsdell; "The Endeavor Society," Mr. Bain; "Music," Mrs. Ely; "The First Aid Society," Mrs. Holt; "The Missionary Society," Mrs. Holt; "The

SUNSHINE DAYS HERE AT LAST

Sunday Was One That Made
Everybody Happy and Sent
All Pleasure-Seeking.

THE LESSON OF THE DAY

A Moral for Those Who Are Fond of Music, Who Can Satisfy
Heart's Desire With Little Effort.

One of those days to be remembered! And Portlanders took full advantage of it yesterday. Away they went, to the hills and woods, where the buds and blossoms could be found in all the glory of their freshness and beauty; and the first genuine breath of spring might be enjoyed to the heart's content. It was a day for the lovers of nature to revel in.

The retreats and nooks where the sun was warm and there was a melody of birds, where all nature seemed to smile, and where fresh air, rest and recuperation in plenty abounded—these were the spots sought for yesterday, and it was not hard to find them either.

But today most of us come back to the city of the shops and the noise of trade to the "steady grind"—to the music of electricity's whirl, to the hum, hurry and bustle of business, and when the day's work is done, how many are there who would their way to a musicless household—a pianoleless home?

There is no excuse for a home without a piano. Today, through the liberal methods of modern piano merchandising, any one may enjoy the pleasure, the uplifting influence, of a piano. The "Eilers Way" makes piano buying easy. It's the result of doing things in a big way, a different way, the popular way, the popular way is the way that wins nowadays.

"The Eilers Way" puts a piano into any home today. It's the way of buying in immense numbers—thousands of pianos, several million dollars' worth a year—the way of shipping in pianos from all over the world, and putting through a chain of stores that cover a vast territory—all the great piano centers—buying on a basis that means a much lower cost than is enjoyed by any other piano-selling organization in America today, and last and not least, the important part of individual buyers—to you—selling at a price that means saving on each and every purchase.

THE VERY BEST WAY.
That is, "The Eilers Way"—better pianos for less money, easier terms, a broader and more satisfactory guarantee, not only that of the factory, but also of the dealer, the most powerful, strongest and most substantial piano house in the country. These facts merely explain why Eilers Piano House sells more pianos, controls a larger territory, and enjoys a greater share of public confidence than any other one piano store in the United States.

Buying of Eilers Piano House means the advantage of making a selection from the "Line of Highest Quality"—the pianos which include the incomparable "Weber" with its wonderful tone; the grand old Chickering, famous throughout all the world as the maker of "musicians' leals"; the Kimball, the most popular make on the American market, and 30 other makes of pianos, all produced by well-known piano builders. And in buying of Eilers Piano House there is the satisfaction of the strict one-price system, your neighbor, man, woman or child—are all given the same cost figure—no deviation—one salesman's figures exactly the same as another's—the only fair and honorable method.

SOMETHING DOING TOMORROW.
Today or tomorrow would be a good day to investigate a little. Come to Eilers Piano House, look around. Ask to be shown through the establishment. See for yourself. There's a special sale of second-hand and slightly used instruments under way now. And every one of these are exceptional bargains. Ask to see them; the list appeared in yesterday's paper. You probably will want to bring it along for reference.

Men's League, Mr. Labbe; "The Young Women's Bible Class," Miss Margaret Lamberon; music, Miss Brown; "From the Absent," communications from Rev. E. Trumbull Lee, D. D. Mr. Morrison and former members; words from former pastors—Rev. Warren H. Landon, D. D., Rev. William S. Gilbert; hymn, "Blest Be the Tie That Binds."
Tuesday night—Service of thanksgiving; anthem by the choir; Scripture; hymn (written by one of the members); prayer; memorial offering; Presbytery's congratulations, the moderator; historical sketch, W. B. Honeymay; music, the choir; address, Rev. W. H. Landon, D. D., "The Influence of Calvary Church on the Pacific Slope"; service of remembrance; roll call of the members now in the Church Triumphant; prayer, Dr. J. R. Wilson; hymn, "For All Thy Saints."

OLD SLEUTH BLOOD IN THEIR VEINS

Two Youths Feed on Yellow-Backed
Novels, Buy Revolvers and Start for Bad Man's Land.

Three 13-year-old school boys, their imagination excited by nickel novels and the first blush of spring, played truant last Friday, bought a couple of 22-calibre revolvers and flash-light lanterns and started for the cowboy plains of Texas. They went as far as Albany, where they were arrested by Chief of Police McClain.

McClain wired to Portland and Truant Officer White took the next train for the town to the south. He brought the boys back and lodged them in the home of the Boys' and Girls' Aid society. Late this afternoon they will appear in the juvenile court and afterwards will be turned over to their parents. They are Archie McCauley of 385 Twelfth street, Eugene Spencer of Twenty-fifth and Mildred streets, and James Ellison of Twenty-fifth and Alberta streets.
