

A Little Ad in THE JOURNAL Brings Results. Costs Only One Cent a Word.

The Weather—Fair and cooler tonight; Thursday fair and warmer.

Oregon DAILY Journal

Journal Circulation Yesterday Was 29,189

VOL. VI. NO. 37.

PORTLAND, OREGON, WEDNESDAY EVENING, APRIL 17, 1907.—SIXTEEN PAGES.

PRICE TWO CENTS.

ON TRAINS AND NEWS STANDS FIVE CENTS

NOB HILL BURGLAR CAUGHT BY WOMAN

POLICE NAB YOUTH AFTER PISTOL PLAY

Ernest Lane Held for Rountree Outrage and Other Puzzling Deeds of Darkness

Wife of Proprietor Hammersley, Former Officer, Finds Black-jack in Pocket of Young Lodger and Husband Notifies Detectives and Aids in Capture

Ernest Lane, Alias Earl Lewis, Captured After a Hard Fight Through the Efforts of Mrs. Tom Hammersley Early This Morning.

The Burglar. Ernest Lane, alias Earl Lewis, alias John Davis.

Twenty years of age. Native of Creswell, Oregon. Committed to Oregon state reform school in 1904, and paroled same year.

Arrested June 25, 1904, by Detectives Snow, Kerrigan and Day for robbing residence of H. Rasmussen, 411 North Twenty-fourth street, March 4 and March 18, 1904.

Returned to reform school in June and paroled last year.

Ernest's Alleged Crimes. March 26—Entered home of Newton W. Rountree, 69 Ella street, murderously assaulted Mrs. Rountree, who was alone in the house at the time, and carried away her diamond earrings, valued at $200.

March 30—Effectuated an entrance to home of Mrs. Van Winkle, 666 Couch street, and stole large quantity of valuable jewelry.

April 1—Climbed through rear window of the residence of P. C. Patterson, 771 Everett street, at 11:45 p. m., and attempted to hold up Patterson, who was reading in bed. Noise of intruder aroused E. C. Giltner, in flat above, who fired several shots at the burglar, causing him to beat hasty retreat.

April 3—Surprised in home of Mrs. Rosetta Sherlock, 35 North Twenty-first street, by unexpected return of woman, and escaped through rear window.

April 4—Held up Henry Hahn on porch of his residence, 235 Cornell road, and forced Hahn at muzzle of gun to enter house and turn over gold watch and $1.50. Subsequently fired at five times by Hahn, but escaped unscathed.

April 11—Broke into store of Portland Gun & Bicycle company, 151 First street, and carried away several revolvers, rifles and other articles.

April 16—Forced an entrance into Moore's studio, 323 1/2 Washington street, at 2 a. m., bound and gagged J. Z. Dufrene, an artist, and after securing gold watch and $25 in cash made his way across roofs to Sixth street.

It remained for a quick-witted little matron, unversed in the detective arts, but possessing an abundance of good, common sense, keen perception and the natural suspicious nature of woman, to furnish the information which resulted in the capture at 3 o'clock this morning of Ernest Lane, the desperate felon held responsible for the unparalleled series of burglaries in the Nob Hill district, in—

(Continued on Page Fourteen.)

ENTIRE FAMILY MYSTERIOUSLY GIVEN POISON

Father and Mother Dead, Three Sons Seriously Ill—Daughter and Cook Ill in Hospital Under Arrest—Arsenic Is Found in Flour Barrel.

Chicago, April 17.—Repeated poisonings of the members of the Mette family of Irving Park, this city, are giving the police a mystery to solve, containing melodramatic features seldom equaled. The father and mother are dead and a daughter and Mrs. Mary Sladek, housekeeper for the family, are under arrest in the hospital, where they are suffering themselves.

Quantities of arsenic were found in the flour and meal barrels in the house and other poison was found buried beneath the woodpile in the basement. This morning detectives en route to the Mette house to resume their investigations met Joseph Mette. Mette was deathly pale and grew worse before them. The officers hastened Joseph to a doctor and then continued to the home, where they found Charles, aged 18, and Rudolph, aged 15, suffering apparently from the same trouble. All are dangerously ill.

Mills Did Not Retire. Albany, Or., April 17.—Contrary to expectations, D. O. Mills did not retire from the directorate of the New York Central railroad today. He was reelected, but may retire later.

RAILROAD ESTIMATES OF CONSTRUCTION COST ARE PROVED EXCESSIVE

Spokane Introduces Evidence to Offset That of the Railroads—Woodworth States That Complainant Has Been Specially Favored and Coast Discriminated Against—Distance Tariffs Would Force Inland City to Purchase From Pacific Points Instead of From East—Portland Demands Reduced Rates.

"The interest of the great mass of the people of this coast is to get their products to market, east or west, as cheaply as possible, not primarily to get eastern goods into the hands of interior jobbers at a lower rate. The interest of the great mass of the people of this coast is to get what they consume to them as cheaply as possible, through low distributive rates from their natural coast market."—J. N. Teal to the interstate commerce commission at Portland hearing.

Evidence given this forenoon by railroad traffic men before the interstate commerce commission in the Spokane rate case emphasized the force of Portland's claims as a coast point for interior distributive freight rates, and in the same ratio damaged the Spokane argument that that city, without water competition, should be entitled to terminal rates now given the coast cities. J. G. Woodworth, traffic manager of the Northern Pacific railroad, was asked by W. W. Cotton the following vitally important question:

(Continued on Page Two.)

"HARRIMAN MUST GO"

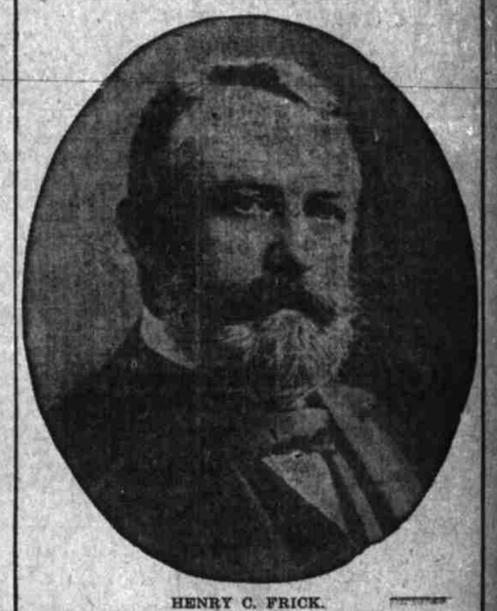

(Journal Special Service.)

New York, April 17.—"Harriman must go," is the edict issued in high financial circles, and to this end a systematic warfare is being waged upon the Union Pacific magnate. Local and foreign investors are backing Henry C. Frick and Jacob H. Schiff in their efforts to oust Harriman from control, having lost all confidence in him because of his radical plunges and the expose of his methods as shown by the interstate commerce investigation. There are indications on "change today" that "something is hanging over the Pacific," but just what is uncertain.

A split has occurred in the group of financiers that have for several years been known as the Harriman syndicate, which may result in important changes in the Union Pacific railroad, so long dominated by E. H. Harriman. There has been a lining up of the members of the syndicate with Henry C. Frick, Jacob H. Schiff and William Rockefeller on the one side as favoring a change in the management and with Harriman and Henry H. Rogers opposed to them and wanting things to remain as they are.

Ever since Harriman gave the now famous testimony before the interstate commerce commission, which was followed by the crash in stocks and especially in Union Pacific shares, culminating in the panic of March 14, it is said that there have been mutterings in the Harriman camp. The panic resulted in very heavy losses to many of the friends and followers of the Harriman group, and these losses are thought to have extended to some of that group itself.

The poor rallying power of Union Pacific stock in the market has been a matter of observation in Wall street since the panic.

HENRY C. FRICK.

YOU SOON MUST PAY TEN CENTS MORE PER TRIM

Price of Haircuts Will Be Thirty-Five Cents in Another Month, so You Had Better Get a Year's Supply at the Present Rates.

Barber cutting 35 cents. Dig. The barber has got you. You can't use a safety pair of shears and out your hair, so get ready to meet smilingly the new schedule which becomes effective May 15. Until then you can save 10 cents a cut. Better get several before the raise.

The new price list for hair cutting is the result of the action taken by the committee consisting of F. T. Rogers, A. R. Ritter and J. W. Rounds appointed at a meeting last Monday night. Since that time practically every shop in the city has signed the agreement to increase the price of hair cutting from 25 to 35 cents. Once down their names cannot be withdrawn and only a few of the smallest shops in Portland have refused to give their consent to the change.

Portland, it is said, is the only city in the country charging 35 cents for hair cutting when only 15 cents is received for shaving. Hence the forthcoming increase, the sorrow to the patient, and the joy to the barber.

(Continued on Page Two.)

BORAH'S AFFAIR MARKS A CRISIS FOR ROOSEVELT

If President Interferes to Stop Indictment and Prosecution as Requested by Borah, He Will Be Accused of Protecting Some and Prosecuting Others.

Washington, April 17.—Eastern newspapers almost unanimously assert this morning that the attorney-general cannot intervene in favor of Senator Borah in Idaho to stop proceedings against him for alleged conspiracy in land matters. Federal District Attorney Rulick of Idaho is due here now to lay the facts before the department of justice.

The matter has grown to a sensation of national scope owing to the fact that labor men, Moyer, Haywood and Pettibone, in Idaho are involved, according to Borah, in a conspiracy to injure him as their prosecutor. Practically every labor organization in the east is wrought up over the president's letter to Congressman Sherman condemning Moyer and others prior to their trial.

Crisis for Roosevelt. Special representatives of the laborers are due to call at the White House today to demand a statement as to whether Roosevelt made the statement attributed to him in the Sherman letter. The opinion is growing that for the

(Continued on Page Two.)

FRISCO DANCES ON ANNIVERSARY OF EARTHQUAKE

Brilliant Social Function Ushers in First Anniversary of Disaster—Seven Thousand Attend Charity Ball Dedicating Magnificent Fairmount Hotel.

San Francisco, April 17.—The celebration of the first anniversary of the new San Francisco began last night with a charity ball and promenade concert in the magnificent new Hotel Fairmount which crowns Nob Hill. It was in the nature of an informal opening of the new hotel. The formal opening takes place on Thursday, April 18, the anniversary of the great earthquake.

Never before in the history of the city has there been such a brilliant social function as the promenade concert and ball at the Fairmount hotel last night. It was conceived on regal proportions as an appropriate event for the informal opening of the magnificent new hotel and to give much needed financial assistance to three of the most prominent and deserving charities in San Francisco—Doctors' Daughters' Nursery for Homeless Children and Polyvalent.

The plans of the ladies interested in the affair were splendidly executed and the result was successful beyond the highest expectations. It seemed that

(Continued on Page Two.)

ROOSEVELT GUILTY OF HIGH CRIMES AND SHOULD BE IMPEACHED, SAYS DEBS

PRESIDENT GRILLED AS ENEMY TO LABOR

(Journal Special Service.) Pittsburg, Kan., April 17.—"Hypocrite," "demagogue" and "political prostitute" are some of the milder terms applied to President Roosevelt by Eugene V. Debs, former Socialist candidate for president, in a signed statement made public today. Debs' attack on the president was occasioned by the latter's recent characterization of Hearst, Moyer, Haywood and Debs as "undesirable citizens," and is in part as follows:

BY EUGENE V. DEBS. Regarding the president of the United States, as I do, simply as a citizen and fellowman, the same as any other, I shall speak of him and his acts free alike from awe and malice, and if I place him in the public pillory, where he has placed so many others, to be seen and despised of men, it will be from a sense that his official acts, so often in flat denial of his professions, merit the execration of honest men. In the first place, I charge President Roosevelt with being a hypocrite, the greatest that ever occupied the executive seat of the nation. His profession of pure politics is false, his boasted moral courage the bluff of a bully and his "square deal" a delusion and a sham.

THEODORE ROOSEVELT.

Debs on Roosevelt

I charge President Roosevelt with being a hypocrite, the greatest that ever occupied the executive seat of the nation. His profession of pure politics is false, his boasted moral courage the bluff of a bully and his "square deal" a delusion and a sham.

EUGENE V. DEBS.

CABINET MEMBERS WALL STREET PETS

White House and called Moyer, Haywood and Pettibone "murderers," men he had never seen and did not know; men who had never been tried, never convicted and whom every law of the land held innocent until proven guilty, he fell a million miles beneath where Lincoln stood and there he grovels to-day with his political crones, one after another, finding him out and pointing at him with their accusing fingers.

No president of the United States has ever descended to such depths as has Roosevelt to serve his law-defying and crime-inflicting masters. The act is simply horrible and without a parallel in American history.

Theodore Roosevelt is swift to brand other men who even venture to disagree with him as liars. He according to himself, is immaculate and infallible. The greatest liar in the world was only there in others.