HOLDING ON TO THE LOWER RUNG

Portland Meets Oakland Again and Once More We Are the Enemy's.

COSTLY ERRORS THE CAUSE OF THE DEFEAT

Newman Dislocates His Shoulder and Will Be Out of Play for Some Time—Incidents of a Game That Locals Lost: Five to Two.

(Hearst News by Longest Leased Wire.)

Oakland, 5; Portland, 2. San Francisco, April 20.—What's the matter with the catchers on the Oakland and Portland teams? Address answers to Hackett and Donahue. Neither the rotund receiver of the Oakland team nor the wiry backstop of the Portland aggregation seemed able to find second base in this afternoon's struggle. Hackett escaped with only one error, but it was costly; for Haley's agility on the second station he might have had more. Pat Donahue on his first appearance since his accession from Stockton, was in poor form. He drew two of Portland's misplays; charge the other two mistakes to Walt McCredie.

It was a so-so game. Randolph pitched for seven innings. Schimpf for Portland was rapped for nine. The score was 5 to 2 in favor of the Commuters.

Newman Injured.

Scoring started in the second frame. Newman, for Portland, was slugged on the walk in the second. He was slugged and dislocated his shoulder. He may be out of the game for several weeks. Carson was put in to take his place on the circuit when the injury was over. Moore was sent to cover first. With Carson on second Hackett drew his one error by winging wild to catch him napping. Carson went right on past third and did not stop until he had got Newman's name in the run column.

Van Hatten's men came in in the same inning and registered two. The work of Donahue, Portland's backstop, had some bearing on the first one of these marks. He batted second on Pat's wildness. The fat one singled and went to second on Bigbee's sacrifice. Haley was ticked and Donahue, in a scourageous attempt to catch him off first, shot the sphere to the right field bleachers. Hackett came all the way in from second. Haley, meanwhile, had gone to third and scored on Deveraux's infield out.

More Bases for Oakland. In the fourth, Eagan and Hackett singled and both advanced on Bigbee's infield out. Haley flew out to right and Eagan best the throw-in. In the fifth Randolph's single, Smith's sacrifice and Van Hatten's single netted another. Van's rap was vicious and missed being a double by about two feet, as the old boy almost stretched it. The Beavers got their other mark in the seventh on Moore's two-bagger. Staton's infield out and Donahue's miff of Van Hatten's long fly. A good Saturday crowd sat the encounter out.

OREGON DEFEATS MULTNOMAH NINE

University Lads Too Fast for the Amateur Boys of Multnomah.

GAME WAS SLOW AND JAMMED WITH ERRORS

Huston, Clark and Campbell Did Some Fine Stickwork, Securing Two Doubles Each—Story of the Contest and Official Score.

(Hearst News by Longest Leased Wire.)

Multnomah's baseball team went down to defeat yesterday afternoon before their old rivals from the University of Oregon by a score of 12 to 7 in a game that was slow and full of errors, though not more than could be expected, since this is the first game of the season for either team.

It was Oregon's game from the start, though Multnomah made a rally in the third inning and put themselves ahead of the board for a short time. The crisis of the game came in the seventh inning as usual, when Oregon bunched six runs on the Portland boys, and from that time on held the reins as they wanted them.

Multnomah seemingly knew that she was up against a hard proposition, for Chester Murphy was at the third bag. In spite of it all, however, nothing could be done with the shifty boys from up the valley, though the local lads played hard at the game until the last misfortune put them out of the running.

Huston and Clark, both from Oregon, and Campbell from Multnomah, did some heavy stick work and got two nicks each. Huston and Gray, Morris, Sinner and Huston were the ones who made the only two doubles of the game. Other than those features the game was not so fast as many seen on the Multnomah field. Oregon, however, evened things up at the tenth by their victory.

Following is the summary of the game:

AUTO CLUB WILL HOLD FIRST RUN

Members Will Assemble at the Multnomah Club and Start for the Sandy.

LARGE GATHERING IS EXPECTED TO PARTICIPATE

Fred A. Bennett Is Greatly Pleased Upon Receiving Big Shipment of Reo Cars From Factory—Brief Notes of Interest to Auto Trade.

(Hearst News by Longest Leased Wire.)

The first run of the Portland Automobile club this season will be held today, and if the weather is good a large turnout of cars is expected. Secretary William Lipman of the club has been arousing the members into an activity that has not been observed before in the organization, and if the members take the same interest in auto, in good roads, in better laws for the auto men as does Mr. Lipman, the results that will be achieved will be far-reaching and enduring. There is no more enthusiastic worker in the automobile club than William Lipman, and if his plans are carried out the club will be on the proper road to success.

Today's run will start at 11 o'clock. The machine owners have been notified to report at the Multnomah club, where the start will be made. H. L. Keats and Dr. Brown and several others who know the road thoroughly will take the lead and go direct to Sandy, where they will be expected. The party will take the Base Line road, stop at the 12-mile house for refreshments and return to the city about 8 o'clock.

A little play is a good thing for humanity, but the working parts of an automobile don't want much play. Keep them adjusted snugly.

An interesting simile was employed recently by a salesman in answer to a man who asked wherein one car could be worth several thousand dollars more than another. The reply of F. M. Hobbit, salesman for the Berlet car, was that one learns the value of a car from Pittsburgh today, by the score of 5 to 1. Lundgren for Chicago outpitched Leever and the Pirates erred outrageously, making more errors than hits.
