

LEMONS AND MUD FLY AT COFFEY AND CAMERON

Mayorality Candidate and Police Judge Are Singed by Branding Irons in Hands of Fellow-Politicians at Union Republican Club Meeting—Magistrate Replies.

"This Davis handed out a short-arm job to the candidacy of John B. Coffey for mayor during the last few minutes of the meeting of the Union Republican club last night. He said that it was time for the club to begin to inquire into the loyalty of all candidates to the Republican ticket, whatever the ticket might be after the primaries, and gave notice that he would press his contention for the endorsement of a primary ticket by the club at the next meeting on Monday night of the coming week. Mr. Davis then referred to the reports that Coffey had entered into an agreement to become an independent labor candidate in the event of his defeat in the primaries, and urged the club to take immediate action in securing pledges from every candidate.

Press Plain Words.

"It is getting too late for us to waste time on any man who intends to betray us," said Mr. Davis in discussing the question. "I gave notice at the last meeting," he continued, "that I would present a ticket here tonight for the endorsement of the club. The provision of the constitution naming one of the objects of the club as the endorsement of candidates for primary nominating elections, still stands and while it is in effect, I think it should be enforced. The county central committee formulated a platform some time ago and sent it to the candidates, asking them to subscribe to it. One of the planks was that each candidate should pledge himself to support the ticket in defeat as loyally as though he had been successful. I would like to know what responses have been received to this platform."

W. M. Calk, chairman of the county central committee, explained that the platform had been sent to each candidate, who was given until April 24 to reply.

"The central committee is carrying out its own plans in its own way," said Judge Coffey, who had opposed Mr. Davis' idea of endorsing candidates prior to the primaries.

Plugs at Coffey.

"Well," said Mr. Davis, taking up again the thread of his contention, "well, I have read this evening of one of the candidates for mayor who is reported as intending to become an independent candidate for the Labor party in the event of his defeat for the nomination. He himself has not stated it in so many words, but he declines to state that he will support the ticket after the primaries, saying he has not decided what he will do. I think it is growing too late for us to waste time on a man who will betray us. I think that we should take up the question of endorsing a ticket for the primaries at once."

Mr. Calk then explained that the central committee would meet in the Selling-Hirsch building on Friday evening to receive the replies of the different candidates, and had requested all of them to be present if convenient. At that time the report of the committee would be made up and the public would be informed of the attitude of the different candidates through the press.

Upon receiving this information Mr. Davis at once made a motion to adjourn until Monday next, at which time he stated he would be present with the firm intention of presenting a ticket for the endorsement of the club.

Silvestone Mad Too Thick.

Julius Silvestone, a candidate for nomination for municipal judge, injected the only unpleasant incident into the proceedings of the meeting. He has been guilty of bringing a handful of mud here and there at his opponent, George J. Cameron, at every public meeting which he has so far attended. Last night he threw too hard and drew a rise out of Judge Cameron and A. B. Ferrara, besides receiving the rebuke of the chair.

Mr. Silvestone began his statement by saying he was the son of a Lincoln Republican. He then injected a little advice into his remarks by stating that the Republican party was in danger of wrecking itself upon the rocks of special privileges. He then dropped his dynamite by stating that Judge Cameron, who had preceded him, had misrepresented his official record and had held nine different offices.

Besides that, Silvestone said he himself would never hold an uneven scale of justice in the event of his election, no matter what the nationality or creed or occupation of the offender who came before him. Mr. Silvestone sat down amid a pained silence and Judge Cameron rose to reply.

Cameron Comes Back.

The judge said that he had practiced before all of the courts of the state for the past 17 years and that in all that time he never remembered having seen Silvestone once. He did not know, therefore, how the previous speaker knew that the scale of justice he held by the present municipal judge were crooked or unbalanced.

A. B. Ferrara took the floor and began a fiery speech directed toward Mr. Silvestone's corner, but he was stopped by a member of the club and the chair declared the incident closed after stating that all candidates were the guests of the club and as such had no right to indulge in personalities.

Those who spoke at the meeting last night were: Louis Zimmerman, Thomas C. Devlin, candidates for mayor; J. E. Werlein, candidate for treasurer; O. E. Miller, A. L. Harbur, for city auditor; John P. Kavanagh, for city attorney; George J. Cameron, J. S. Winchester and J. Silvestone, for municipal judge; M. J. Driscoll, J. N. Blair, George M. Hyland, Fred T. Merrill and William De Veeney, councilmen at large; George L. Baker and Rufus Holman, fourth ward; J. F. Booth, fifth ward; George F. Brice, eighth ward.

St. Maries rivers in Idaho that was sold lately to the Monarchs Lumber company for $750,000. The purchase was made of A. L. Flewelling of Spokane.

Diamond "W" Coffee.

Blended to suit the most exacting taste. Diamond "W" Coffee is an ideal breakfast beverage and after-dinner drink. Packed in one and two-pound sealed cans, 40 cents per pound at your grocer's.

AT THE STOCK THEATRES

"Snowball" at Lyric.

There are laughs in abundance at the Lyric this week, where the Lyric company is producing one of the funniest farces ever offered in Portland. It is entitled "Snowball," and is drawing crowded houses.

"Snowball" is a play in which a suspicious wife deliberately tries to lead her husband's fidelity. The complications which follow are about as amusing as one could imagine, and provide as many laughs as the ordinary individual is able to endure in one evening.

As the evening Venus Miss Howard is delightful, and demonstrates her ability to handle other than serious parts. Miss Lillian Griffith does the part of the investigating wife excellently. Frank Fanning has a part this week that requires his presence on the stage for only a few minutes.

The play is making more than a pleasing impression, and bids fair to be something of a record-breaker for the Lyric.

Blue Ridge Play at Star.

There is little likelihood of the public ever growing weary of plays dealing with the feudists of the Blue Ridge Mountains. They have been almost as popular as stories of the civil war. Realizing this, Manager Allen of the Star is offering "The Hearts of the Blue Ridge" this week, a play dealing with a feud between two old families of the Kentucky mountains.

It is an excellent story, absorbingly interesting and well told. The play is unusually good, and is admirably interpreted by the Allen company. Several members of the company appear to really good advantage in this week's offering.

The play is highly pleasing to patrons of the Star, and is drawing well. It will be the bill for the entire week.

CO-EDS FIGHTING WEIGHT AND HEALTH

And to Date, the More They Fight Him the Worse He Seems to Get.

HAS STAID STANFORD BUZZING HORNET-LIKE

Poem Entitled Bathsheba Was Only Just a Little Worse Than His Regular and Systematic Evil Doings—Something Deadly Being Plotted.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Stanford University, Cal., April 22.—Not for a long time has any event out of the ordinary caused such a pitch of excitement on the Stanford campus as that which recently followed the appearance of the May "Sequoia," the monthly literary magazine. And all the trouble has been caused by a poem, "The Love Letters of a Co-Ed," which has literally stirred up a hornet's nest about him, and the offense this time happens to be the women of the university. The climax to long smoldering indignation among the women students, who are regularly subscribers, was brought about when a boycott was declared by them on the recent publication. Not a girl was to buy a copy, and it was the general sentiment that those who are regular subscribers should refuse to read the offensive journal.

Before Editor Herron Came.

Before the advent of Editor Herron, who is also a cadet and intercollegiate debater, the "Sequoia" was a staid and sober publication, dealing with problems of literature, art and kindred subjects. The best literary people in the university, as well as members of the faculty, contributed to their pages. The covers of the publication were neat, not of flaming colors, and the policy of the management was a conservative one. The circulation of the magazine was small, since there was nothing about it particularly to attract the popular interest.

But with the coming of W. F. Herron, whose ideas of literary excellence were of the sensational order, the whole complexion of the "Sequoia" was changed. Something was to be done to raise the publication to the position which the other papers of the university enjoyed. A means of increasing the circulation was not far off, and the magazine was to be made to appeal to the popular eye. The "Sequoia" was to have fetching covers—the "selling" kind. Sombre colors of gray and brown gave way to red and yellow hues, and one might have thought that a new publication had supplanted the old.

A Sensation Eeried.

The appearance of the first number itself caused a mild sensation. Garing placards, prominently placed around the university building, gave out the information beforehand that the next number would, among other features, contain "An Exposition of the Business Office," an article in defense of drinking by "A Student Woman," and other such articles of a most sensational order.

The fire of indignation was then kindled among the women students, who could not appreciate Editor Herron's article on drinking, written above the signature of one of their number.

"Love Letters of a Co-Ed."

Nor did the enterprising editor hesitate to heap fuel upon the flames, and in a subsequent number there appeared the first installment of a series entitled "The Love Letters of a Co-Ed." Besides this there were attacks upon the faculty, and the policy of the editor became radical as well as sensational.

In the words of one Stanford woman, the recent "Sequoia" was "the straw that broke the camel's back." Details of the "revolution" are not easy to secure, but the impetus for the outbreak of indignation came from the women students, who seem to have been the advertisement in bold letters of the appearance of a poem called "Bathsheba." It had come to the ears of the boycotters that this poem was not all that should be expected, and that it was not of the kind to be published in a Stanford literary magazine.

An Anti-Bathsheba Crusade.

A house-to-house canvass seems to have been the method whereby sentiment was crystallized and unanimity of action reached in dealing with Herron's hateful policy. At the time of the appearance of "The Love Letters of a Co-Ed" the boycott method of venting their displeasure was first proposed by the women. President Jordan at this time, so it is reported, concurred at a meeting of the women's conference in a plan of refusing to purchase the offensive publication. Herron's ideas of dealing with the "Boys" were, however, anonymous sheet recently appeared upon the campus, did not meet their approval.

Herron Simply Orders More Copies.

For some days the word has been going the rounds that now is the time for once and for all for the women to express their disapprobation of the editorial tactics which have proved so distasteful to them. The plan has been a matter of common discussion in the society houses and girls' dormitories. To add to the thoroughness of their disapproval, the agitators have secured the resignation of the women members of the magazine staff.

As for Herron's part, rather than be

CATARRH CAN BE CURED.

Kill the Germs by Breathing Hy-o-mel, Gives Quick Relief.

Many people who have suffered with catarrh for years naturally feel that the disease cannot be cured, and become discouraged.

Their failure to get relief is due to the fact that they have not used the right remedy. Catarrh is an affection of the head, throat and lungs, and cannot be cured by stomach dosing.

The only scientific and natural treatment for this disease is Hy-o-mel, which is breathed through a neat pocket inhaler, so that its healing medicated air reaches the most remote air-cells, kills all catarrh germs, and restores the mucous membrane of the nose, throat and lungs to a healthy condition.

We do not want anyone's money unless Hy-o-mel gives relief and cure, and we absolutely agree that money will be refunded should the remedy give satisfaction.

All druggists should be able to supply you with Hy-o-mel, or we will send it by mail on receipt of price, $1.00, and every package is sent with the distinct understanding that it costs nothing unless it cures. Booth's Hy-o-mel Company, Buffalo, N. Y.

WEIGHT AND HEALTH

THIS WOMAN TOOK DR. WILLIAMS' PINK PILLS, GAINED THIRTY POUNDS AND HAS BEEN WELL EVER SINCE.

How many women—and men too—are suffering from a general decline in health which the ordinary remedies seem unable to check? How many husbands see their wives wasting away, steadily losing health and beauty, and are powerless to help? Consumption and other germ diseases find in these debilitated systems easy prey, for the lowered vitality is unequal to the task of fighting off the infection of these diseases to which most of us are almost daily exposed.

The symptoms indicating the decline which may have results so fatal could scarcely be better described than in the statement of Mrs. William Manley of 22 Court street, Utica, N. Y. Her case is a typical one. She says: "For six months after the birth of my baby, I suffered from sick, dizzy headaches, which seemed like a rush of blood to my forehead, just back of my eyes. Some days they twinged so I could hardly see any. Black spots floated before them. The least exertion brought on this sickness. My appetite was poor and I was often sick to my stomach.

"If I tried to work my feet soon became swollen, causing me terribly. I had sinking spells and grew pale and nervous. I was so thin that I weighed only 92 pounds.

"One day when at the drug store to get headache powders I decided to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills instead. I soon noticed that my headache was disappearing and my nerves gradually grew stronger. The pills gave me a hearty appetite and I now weigh over 120 pounds. I believe the pills to be the best tonic and builder a woman can take, as they certainly helped me when my condition was critical and I have never been seriously ill since."

The great value of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills lies in the fact that they actually make new blood and this carries health and strength to every portion of the body. The stomach is toned up, the nerves are strengthened, every organ is stimulated to do its work.

If you are ill and the treatment you are taking does not cure you, write for proof of what Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have done in similar cases.

Your druggist sells them, or they will be sent by mail, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box, six boxes for $2.50, by the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y.

Artistic, Gentlemanly Attire

AS SOLE distributors of the most exclusive manufacturers of men's ready-to-wear clothing in the world, we offer, for your consideration, a complete assortment of their choicest novelties for Spring and Summer.

IMPORTED fabrics of rich pattern designs, hand-tailored, elegantly modeled. Largest stock in the Pacific Northwest. Prices easily within reach.

Magnificent Line of Men's Outing Suits Now Ready Desirable in Weight, Pattern and Model—$10-$25

A. B. Steinbach & Co.

Mail Orders for Clothing, Hats and Furnishings Promptly Filled

BIG SALE OF TIMBER LAND IN NORTH IDAHO

Panhandle Lumber Company increases its area to Hundred Thousand Acres.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Spokane, Wash., April 22.—The Panhandle Lumber company has purchased of the Rogers Lumber company of Minneapolis 20,000 acres of timber land in one piece in the neighborhood of Spirit Lake, in northern Idaho, for $750,000. It will be crossed by the Washington & Idaho railroad, which the company is building.

The Panhandle company now owns about 100,000 acres of land in northern Idaho, valued at $2,950,000. It bought the Bradley tract, on the bend of the d'Orville river, recently for something like $1,000,000. Manager Lindsay of the Panhandle company said last night:

"The timber on the Rogers tract is unusually heavy, averaging about 25,000 feet to the acre, or a total of about 450,000,000 feet. Sixty per cent of the timber is white pine, the rest is mixed timber. We do not contemplate building a mill at present, but ultimately the property will be developed. We are building the railroad in order to make the timber accessible."

F. A. Blackwell, the company's president, was a heavy individual and was in a tract of land along the St. Joe and

WOULDN'T GO BACK TO OLD DAYS OF COFFEE MISERY

A New York lady is emphatic about coffee, and in comparing her former condition when using it, with her later improvement under Postum Food Coffee, says:

"We have used Postum instead of coffee for the past four years and have been greatly benefited by the change. "I have always had a weak stomach from childhood, and about five years ago one doctor told me I must leave off coffee entirely. I thought I could not, but tried it for a few mornings, using cocoa in its place, but tired of it. "Then I went back to coffee and kept getting worse, until my stomach was unable to hold or digest much of anything. "One day I got hold of a little booklet, 'The Road to Wellville.' I read it and decided to try Postum. "I got better as time went on and we all learned to like it so well that now we use it to the exclusion of everything else in the line of drink at table. "This summer I went away for two weeks and my husband took his meals at the restaurant. As he did not drink coffee he asked for Postum. They brought it to him, 'pale, weak stuff,' and in a hurry.

"But the first morning after I returned home he said, 'Oh, it seems good to have a cup of Postum that's made right!' At the restaurant, he said, they did not boil it long enough. (Postum must be well boiled to get the delicious flavor—see directions). "I would not use coffee again and go back to the old days of suffering for millions. I have a friend who drinks Postum for two weeks, during a siege of typhoid fever, the only nourishment she took in all that time, and she came out all right. I would be willing to give $1.00 a box for Postum rather than use coffee." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

Send "The Road to Wellville," in paper. There's a reason."

AT THE STOCK THEATRES

"Snowball" at Lyric.

There are laughs in abundance at the Lyric this week, where the Lyric company is producing one of the funniest farces ever offered in Portland. It is entitled "Snowball," and is drawing crowded houses.

"Snowball" is a play in which a suspicious wife deliberately tries to lead her husband's fidelity. The complications which follow are about as amusing as one could imagine, and provide as many laughs as the ordinary individual is able to endure in one evening.

As the evening Venus Miss Howard is delightful, and demonstrates her ability to handle other than serious parts. Miss Lillian Griffith does the part of the investigating wife excellently. Frank Fanning has a part this week that requires his presence on the stage for only a few minutes.

The play is making more than a pleasing impression, and bids fair to be something of a record-breaker for the Lyric.

AT THE VAUDEVILLE THEATRES

Thaw Pictures at Grand.

A decided feature in local vaudeville is the moving pictures at the Grand this week, showing the Thaw-White tragedy, under the "The Unwritten Law." The pictures show every stage of the case from the time the girl is introduced by her mother to the architect until the trial of the assassin.

Lavigne and Leonard offer a comedy automobile act which is certainly funny. J. Bernard Drlyn is a singing comedian, who is attracting a good deal of attention with his song, "Just as Teddy Did." A farce of unusual cleverness called "Mush" is produced by Rawls and Van Kaufman.

There are numbers of other really good features on the bill which is considered one of the best the Grand has yet offered.

HIGH SCORES BY NAVY AT TARGET PRACTICE

Two Vessels of Pacific Squadron Achieve Fame at Target Shooting.

(Journal Special Service.)
Washington, April 22.—At least two ships of the Pacific squadron covered themselves with credit in the late target practice at Annapolis bay, and one of them is the torpedo boat Frobie, commanded by Lieutenant Frederick N. Freeman. She made a higher score than was ever made before by a torpedo boat in the navy. She is likely to carry off the trophy now held by the torpedo boat Perry. The other ship is the cruiser Boston, commander De Witt Coffman, which made a score of 100 per cent better than she ever made before.

Reports from other ships are anxiously awaited by the navy department. It is known that the Maryland, on the Asiatic station, and the Missouri and Illinois of the Atlantic fleet, made an average of seven hits a minute with six-inch guns, which is considered remarkable shooting, although some of the gun crews have made 11 shots a minute and few now make less than five or six.

CHICAGO GRAND JURY AFTER MEN HIGHER UP

Investigation of Campaign Contributions Levied on Chicago Police Is Sensational.

(Journal Special Service.)
Chicago, April 22.—Officials high in the recent Democratic city administration are likely to be involved in the investigation of the police campaign assessments which was begun by the grand jury, while every person in any way connected with the levying of political tribute is liable to punishment under the civil service law. It is expected the grand jury will take into consideration that in nearly every case the ranking officers and patrolmen were obeying orders, and that the real offenders were the men who collected and disbursed the money, knowing that it was obtained without lawful authority.

Practically all the testimony given to the civil service commission during the last three weeks shows that the money, from whatever branch of the department it was obtained, eventually found its way into the hands of one of three men who had been honored by Mayor Dunne with appointment to

TEA

There is nothing that costs so little, both money and work, and that goes so far if it has the chance.

Your grocer returns your money if you don't like Schilling's Best, we say him.

DeCastro's Sacred Bark Tea

If energy and ambition are lacking

If the mind is dull, inactive or depressed and trifling annoyances irritate and exasperate, then the LIVER is in trouble. The system is clogged with undigested and decaying food.

DeCastro's Sacred Bark Tea

Is the best remedy for LIVER troubles. It increases both energy and ambition and induces healthful sleep. It is THE BEST SPRING MEDICINE.

25 Cents at All Drug Stores. Booklet and Sample Free.

MOYTT CHEMICAL CO. PORTLAND, OR.

places of trust, and it is not shown by any evidence that any portion of the money was returned as having been tainted.

Damaging admissions came out at the hearings concerning the police contributions being handed up to Chief of Police Collins, Commissioner of Public Works O'Connell and E. H. Roche, Mayor Dunne's personal friends.

MONTANA GRAND ARMY'S ANNUAL ENCAMPMENT

Helena, Mont., April 22.—Veterans of the civil war from all over the state are assembled in Helena today for the twenty-third annual encampment of the Montana department of the Grand Army of the Republic. The reports of the officials show that despite the large death rate, the Montana department is

Fine, Large Store For Rent

LOW RENT, LONG LEASE, FIREPROOF BUILDING, FULL BASEMENT, MODERN GLASS FRONT, LIVE BUSINESS LOCATION, UPPER WASHINGTON STREET.

Gevurtz & Sons

YAMHILL STREET, FIRST TO SECOND