

JAMESTOWN EXPOSITION TO BE OPENED FRIDAY

Celebration of Tercentenary of Founding of English Colony at Jamestown.

ROOSEVELT TO PRESIDE AT OPENING EXERCISES

Regiment of Infantry Encamped at the Exposition Grounds—Hampton Roads to Be Scene of Brilliant Naval Display—Program Complete

(Journal Special Service.) Norfolk, Va., April 24.—The gates of the Jamestown Tercentenary exposition will be thrown open to the public day after tomorrow. That the success of the stupendous enterprise will justify the most sanguine expectations of its promoters is indicated in many directions, and they are looking ahead to a season of unexampled prosperity. Hundreds of letters received daily by the department of publicity and promotion, by the hotels and by business houses support this optimistic view of the future of the exposition.

Virginia is proud of her achievement. She is proud of it not alone because it is evidence of her own wealth and prosperity, but because it represents the highest form of American enterprise, energy and courage. The exposition, with its beautiful white buildings and its priceless collection of exhibits gathered from every part of the country, is a monument to the ever-living faith of a people in the destiny of the Old Dominion.

Opening Day Program Complete. The program of the opening day exercises is complete, and as it now stands it is elaborate enough to please everybody. President Roosevelt will officiate, governors of states and the diplomatic representatives of foreign countries will participate, and there will be a military and naval display the like of which never has been seen before in American waters.

At present every effort of the management is being concentrated on the work of transferring exhibits from the railroad yards to the exposition grounds, superintending their setting up in the several buildings and preparing for the first rush of visitors that will follow the opening of the big fair. Norfolk, Hampton Roads and vicinity are preparing for an invasion of visitors, the advance guard of which is already arriving, and which will continue until the exposition gates are permanently closed. Nobody has undertaken to estimate closely just how many persons will be attracted to

SUDDEN DEATH ENDS CAREER OF REV. ROSS

Seattle Pastor Was Well Known in Portland and Throughout the Northwest.

Rev. Donald Ross, well known in this city and throughout the northwest, died suddenly at his home in Seattle on April 15, while engaged in spading his garden. His daughter, Miss Elizabeth Ross, saw the spade fall from his hands and ran to his side. He died just as she reached him. Heart disease is thought to have been the immediate cause of his death, superinduced by grief at the recent death of his son.

Donald Ross was born at Pitou, Nova Scotia, April 9, 1832, and was 75 years of age last week. At the age of 37 he entered the Presbyterian ministry, and remained in almost continuous service until four years ago, when his failing health compelled him to give up his work.

For 25 years he was engaged in the ministry in eastern Canada, after which time he held a pastorate in Fond du Lac, Wisconsin. He resided in this city for a short time and then removed to Spokane. From Spokane he went to Seattle, where he had lived for the past eight years.

A fellow clergyman who knew him intimately describes the dead clergyman as a fine scholar, a man widely read and one who was greatly beloved for his fine qualities of heart.

His wife and three children survive: Mrs. Margaret Nicholson of Spokane, Miss Elizabeth, at home, and a son, Kenneth Ross, at Bellingham, Washington. The death of his other son, James, who was killed in a train wreck near Tacoma, in December last, was a great shock to his father, and he never quite recovered from the blow.

AMATEUR RACES TONIGHT

Skating Gains Favor at Oaks as Pleasant Weather Increases.

The nicer the day the greater the crowd at the Oaks rink. As the spring advances new classes in skating are being formed in anticipation of the summer season. The great Oaks rink is light and airy, giving all the benefit to the skaters of the delightful park breeze. Tonight will again be an amateur night and a number of interesting races will be run. The races are open to all who care to enter and amateurs are solicited to try their speed.

"I have been somewhat covetous, but Doan's Regulets gave just the results desired. They act mildly and regulate the bowels perfectly."—George B. Grause, 366 Walnut Ave., Alton, Pa.

Eugene Park Commission Organizes. Eugene, Or., April 24.—Eugene's new city park commission, created by ordinance at a recent meeting of the council, held its first meeting yesterday afternoon and elected F. M. Wilkins president and W. W. Calkins secretary. The other members are T. G. Hendricks, Alton Tampton and Darwin Bristow.

TOWN TOPICS

Allen Patawa, the Umatilla Indian who came to Portland a few days ago to testify before the United States grand jury, possesses a fair degree of education and writes as good a hand as the average white man. Mr. Patawa called at the rooms of the Oregon Historical society yesterday, and was shown around by Mr. Himes, and the object of such work was fully explained, in all of which he took deep interest and seemed to fully comprehend.

It is not generally known that M. Marks, who did the funny stunt in the society circus as a policeman on a miniature bicycle, was no other than M. Marks Junior of the Marks Shoe company. Since the night of the circus Mr. Marks has been often pleased with the comment that this act was one of the best in the show, though very few knew that M. Marks and M. Marks Jr. of the Marks Shoe Company were one and the same.

Coffee, Coffee, Coffee! The finest 40c coffee in use city for 25c per pound Thursday. Also a full line of butter, eggs, cheese, honey, etc., at Oregon Cheese Co. store, 125 Fifth street, Sweetland building.

The Woodstock Push club will give a dance and basket social Friday evening, April 26, at the Woodstock hall. The proceeds will be used to clean up and improve the streets.

The educational department of the Woman's club will meet with Mrs. J. C. Pritchard, 896 East Couch street, tomorrow afternoon, at 1:30 o'clock. Miss Jennie Gray of the Yvonne club will address the department.

Miss Nellie Ross, a Portland girl, made a hit as Leona Court in Miner's Merry Burlesque company in New York last week at the Bijou theatre.

Judge H. L. Benson of Klamath Falls, who has been acting as secretary of state during the illness of his brother, Frank W. Benson, was at the Imperial hotel yesterday, and stated that his brother is in Los Angeles much improved in health. Judge Benson will continue to act in his brother's position until his return. If this interferes with Judge Benson's judicial duties, Judge George H. Burnett of Salem will preside over the Klamath county court in the May term.

Mrs. Elizabeth Craig is home again from a two months' stay in Dallas, Texas. After experiencing the lurid heat of Texas, the cool weather in Portland is quite refreshing.

Bishop James Mills Thoburn of the Methodist Episcopal church arrived in Portland yesterday from his missionary field, which includes a greater part of French India, and the Indo-Chinese peninsula, and is visiting for a time at the home of Mrs. C. R. Thoburn, 569 East Pine street. Bishop Thoburn has just finished a tour of his missionary field, and at Bererilly, India, attended a jubilee meeting of Methodist missions. He is a graduate of Alleghany college, and has been an Asiatie missionary bishop for the past 35 years.

Plenty of Cecilian Music

The Reed-French Co. has received a full complement of Cecilian music. We have parlor facilities for trying this music, and wish every lover of music would make himself at home with us.

It makes no difference what "player" he plays, he will find the Scherer-Cecilian ready to respond to his most delicate shading. Our exchange system is new to Portland, and is much more agreeable than the old style "library" arrangement. Try the Cecilian some afternoon—it will please us both.
