

ADDICKS HAUNTS EYE BY HIS TOGA DREAM

Political Outcast Avers He Will Ever Go Washingtonward, Living or Dead.

STRONGER IN UTTER NEED THAN WITH HIS MILLIONS

Then There Are Those Who Say He Has a Cache Somewhere and Is Only Playing He Is Hard Up—Organizing the Malcontents.

(Hearst News by Longest Leased Wire.)
New York, April 27.—From millions of millionaires who could make the financial world tremble to a poverty-stricken debt-harassed creditor, is the astonishing plight of J. Edward Addicks, whose "no of money" policy for years left Delaware without representation in the United States.
More than a week ago he slipped away from a little flat in Hoboken, where he had been in hiding. His whereabouts was unknown until today, when he was found in Philadelphia.
Although, according to court records, Addicks is $4,000,000 worse than bankrupt, and although he has been betrayed by his political captives in Delaware and deserted by practically all of his influential friends, Addicks is still defiant and even now is preparing to make another dash for the United States senate four years hence.
Playing Financial Poet.
Today, when asked whether he was still a candidate for the senate, he said: "I am still a candidate. I will be heading for Washington when they carry my corpse out of New York to bury me in Delaware. We have wended out the traitors and are again in line for the fray."
There are those who say Addicks' present day poverty is assumed and that he has sufficient of his fortune hidden away to operate on a large scale when the time is again ripe for one of his "financial finance" operations.

Baltimore & Ohio Structure Falls Into Harbor, Burying Many Workmen.

FOUR BODIES RECOVERED; MANY EMPLOYEES MISSING

Search Kept Up All Night for Those Who Disappeared and Who Are Supposed to Be Under Wreckage—Many Badly Injured.

(Publishers' Press by Special Leased Wire.)
Baltimore, Md., April 27.—With a roar and a crash which set the waters off Locust Point into a lashing fury, the entire outer end of the Baltimore & Ohio pier No. 8, under construction, collapsed about 11 o'clock today. The bodies of four men have been recovered from the wreckage and it is believed that other bodies are in the ruins.
Officials of the contracting firms have not yet "checked up" on the exact number of missing employees. All day reports from various sources had it that two scores were missing, but it is believed tonight that many of the so-called missing whose addresses were not known to their employers had escaped injury and made their way to their homes. Search is being diligently kept up tonight for the bodies of those supposed to be beneath the ruins. So far as known the injured number 10 and it is stated tonight that these will recover.
Superintendent Dead.
Howard L. Ellender, superintendent of the McLean Contracting company, lost his life as a result of his heroic effort to save the lives of men on the outer end of the pier. A few minutes before the collapse, while he was at the shore end of the pier, he heard the creaking and grinding which presaged the catastrophe and it flashed upon him that the pier was going down.
Shouting to some workmen near him, Ellender rushed forward along the pier, calling to the others to get out of the water and run for their lives. Some of the workmen heard the cry in time to save themselves, but those on the far end of the pier were too late.
Mr. Ellender himself gave no heed to his personal safety when he started back to land it was too late. The big pier was slipping faster and faster, the roar and rumbling of the falling mass was terrifying and the water under the pier was rising. The structure collapsed. This afternoon Ellender's body was found under a heavy load of debris, practically cut in two.
Star Nearly Wrecked.
The pier work, which was begun a year ago, was intended to get out of the water what was under roof. The land end was yet a skeleton and had to be closed in.
The pier was 150 feet long and jutted into the water 330 feet. It was cut into sections by a concrete wall which refused longer to carry the load. So far as has been ascertained the collapse has been caused by a gradual giving away of piling and underpinning toward the outer end.
For a month, it is alleged, there have been signs of weakening, and for some time a crack in the shore end had plainly indicated that there was trouble further out that should be remedied, or sooner or later the pier would go down.
The known dead:
Howard L. Ellender, superintendent.
Robert Sweetman, carpenter.
Max Speights, engineer.

Rating of Mills Left to Roads

(Washington Bureau of The Journal.)
Washington, April 27.—Oswald West, Oregon railroad commissioner and former state land agent of Oregon, who came as a witness in the Hyde-Henson case, is putting in the time in hard work at the headquarters of the interstate commerce commission and the general land office. He is gathering data and studying the needs of the interstate commerce commission with the view to perfecting a knowledge of railroad matters.
At the land office he is looking after the state's selections from the public domain. He will remain a few days, returning home in a week. Mr. West learned today that Commissioner General Ballinger of the land office had issued instructions to register and verify of local land offices in the matter of the selection of lands by states and territories under grants for educational and other purposes.
Under the new regulations the states will be permitted to make indemnity school land selections in lieu of fractional portions of legal subdivisions, which heretofore has been prohibited. Notice of all selections made by the state will be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the county where the lands selected are situated. A few other minor modifications are made, designed to facilitate selections of lands by state officers.

DEAFNESS And Catarrh SUCCESSFULLY TREATED BY "ACTINA"

Rating of Mills Left to Roads

Washington Commission Steps Responsibility—Distribution Check Adopted.

FACE SLASHED IN ROW IN NORTH END SALOON

Ninety-five percent of the cases of deafness brought to our attention is the result of chronic catarrh of the throat and middle ear. The air passages become clogged with catarrhal debris, stopping the action of the vibratory bones. Until these debris are removed the inner ear cannot be reached by probing or spraying, hence the inability of specialists to always give relief. That there is a scientific treatment for most forms of deafness and catarrh is demonstrated every day by the "Actina" treatment. The vapor generated in the "Actina" passes through the Eustachian tubes into the middle ear, removing the catarrhal obstructions and loosens up the bones (hammer, anvil and stirrup) in the inner ear, causing them to respond to the vibration of sound. "Actina" is also very successful in relieving head noises. We have known people afflicted with this distressing trouble for years to be completely relieved in a few weeks by this wonderful invention. It has also been very successful in the treatment of the grippe, influenza, bronchitis, sore throat, weak lungs, colds and nasal catarrh and other troubles that are directly or indirectly due to catarrh. "Actina" will be sent on trial, postpaid. Write us about your case. Our advice will be free as well as a valuable book—Prof. Wilson's Treatise on Diseases. BAY CITY SLEUTH NOW IN PORTLAND

Captain Seymour Bears Letters From W. J. Burns of the Secret Service.

OBJECT OF VISIT IS AROUSING SECULATION

Terror to Thieves Has a Remarkable Record in His Home Town, and Now Is in the Employ of an Express Company.

By the arrival in this city of Captain John F. Seymour, chief of Wells-Fargo & Co.'s detective bureau, armed with letters of introduction to various persons from Secret Service operative William J. Burns, considerable speculation has been aroused.
Captain Seymour, who is one of the best known "dief catchers" on the coast, arrived here yesterday and is registered at the Hotel Eaton. Seymour, always close mouthed, skillfully parries all interrogations as to his mission here, but there is an indefinable something in his manner which strengthens the belief that he is not in the Oregon country for his health.
Paid Tribute to Bess.
It is currently reported that a local sleuth, machine owner who maintained a large number of "nickel cabs" in the Bay City, has declared that he was compelled to pay Abe Ruef an enormous percentage of the profits derived from the contrivances, and this may be one of the matters Seymour intends to investigate.
John F. Seymour was for many years captain of detectives of the San Francisco police department and resigned about 1894 to accept a position with the Fair estate. During the famous Fair will contest Captain Seymour worked assiduously for the heirs against Mrs. Margaret Craven, and it was partially through his efforts that the pencil will was proved a forgery. Seymour was succeeded as head of the detective bureau by Captain John H. Martin, who later gave way to the late Captain J. J. Burnett.
A few years ago Seymour was transferred the position of director of the detective branch of Wells-Fargo & Co.'s Express and resigned from the employ of the Fair estate to accept that berth. He is still with the express company, but his presence in this city, fortified with letters from Francis J. Heney's assistant, is to say the least, exceedingly strange.
It is now well known that for over a year prior to the Heney case, Seymour was in the California metropolis, a corps of detectives under the direction of William J. Burns were weaving the web about the bribe-takers, and Seymour's unexpected descent on Portland may herald the inauguration of the same plan here.

FOUR HUNDRED REWARD FOR FINDING A BODY

Affection's Dictate Supplemented by Consideration of Life Insurance Benefit.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Madras, Or., April 27.—Mrs. Homer M. Street has offered a $400 reward for the recovery of the body of her husband, which is supposed to have been blown into the Matias river by a dynamite explosion on the evening of March 23. Although diligent search has been made since the accident, and the badly mutilated body of the horse which Street was riding has been found, not a trace of the body of the man nor any of his clothing has so far been recovered. The recovery of the body is necessary to make possible the collection of a $4,000 policy which carried on his life. Besides this amount he had a $2,000 policy in the A. O. U. Lodge.

PENROSE ABSENT FROM GRANT MEMORIAL DINNER

(Publishers' Press by Special Leased Wire.)
Pittsburg, April 27.—With an attendance and enthusiasm equaling that of similar occasions the American Republican club of this city held its twenty-first annual dinner commemorative of the birth of General U. S. Grant at Hotel Schenley tonight. The most prominent in the list of speakers were Secretary of Agriculture James Wilson, Congressman Grant E. Mouser of Ohio and Congressman Washington S. Gardner of Michigan. Senator Penrose was absent, he was also Senator Knott, who with the local and party at the Jamestown exposition. The unexplained absence of Senator Penrose was much commented upon. A reception for the guests, lasting half an hour, preceded the banquet.

AMERICAN DENTIST GETS INTO SULTAN'S HAREM

(Hearst News by Longest Leased Wire.)
Cochecton, O., April 27.—Word was received here today that Dr. Frank Roelwick of this city, now located at Gibraltar, has become dentist to the sultan of Morocco. The work upon the royal molars will probably consume a long time as Roelwick is allowed to work upon them only one hour each day. The sultan endures pain well and has grown so fond of the American that he meets him each morning in the hall of the palace and when particularly pleased he allows him to examine the teeth of the members of the harem. The admission of an outsider to this place on such an errand is without precedent.

CLEAN UP OR PAY UP IS ABERDEEN'S ORDER

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Aberdeen, Wash., April 27.—Dr. Chamberlain and Street Commissioner R. J. Ellis, who constitute the board of health, have been making a campaign for cleaner city. Dr. Chamberlain a few days ago employed a man to serve personal notice on property-owners and residents that all grounds around residences must be cleaned up, on penalty of arrest. Next Monday the health commissioner will make a thorough inspection. Where the order has not been heeded arrest will follow, and no one, however prominent, will be allowed to escape. The fine for neglect is $25 to $50.

GREAT LOVE FOR POODLE CAUSED DIVORCE

(Hearst News by Longest Leased Wire.)
Cleveland, April 27.—Gus Zimmerman was today granted a divorce from Grace Zimmerman by Judge Estess because she loved her poodle dog more than she did him. Mrs. Zimmerman was formerly an actress and it was when she was on the stage that she became so fond of dogs.

ERNE BESTS CORBETT IN WELL-FOUGHT FIGHT

(Publishers' Press by Special Leased Wire.)
Philadelphia, April 27.—Only one fact that is in superb condition enabled young Erne to get the better of young Corbett in a six-round bout here tonight. To many at the ringside it seemed that the fight was a "draw" as "Terrible" Terry McGovern had come back into his own.
Appearing in the ring for the first time under the management of Joe Funch, the man who formerly had McGovern under his wing, Corbett showed a much improved condition and a better knowledge of the many art than he had exhibited in his fights the past year.
While Erne gave his usual exhibition of cleverness and blocked the frequent leads of his adversary, Corbett many times during the fight got under the guard of the Philadelphia and in the third round drove him to the ropes. Erne had the better of the first few rounds while Corbett finished up strong in the final stages.

DRUGGISTS ARGUE TO ACCEPT INJUNCTION

(Publishers' Press by Special Leased Wire.)
Indianapolis, Ind., April 27.—A tentative agreement for a decree was reached at a conference today between attorneys representing practically all of the defendants in the case of the United States against the National Association of Retail Druggists and others and Addison C. Harris and C. W. Miller, associates counsel for the government. This case is known as the "drug trust case." Of the 32 defendants, attorneys representing all but nine have joined in the agreement, subject in a number of cases, however, to the approval of their clients. In a general way the agreement provides for an injunction against the defendants which will restrain them from the alleged acts complained of in the bill of complaint. It was alleged that they had entered into a conspiracy to restrain trade in violation of the Sherman law.

EUGENE BOYS PUNISHED FOR STEALING BEER

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Eugene, Or., April 27.—Several of the boys arrested at Junction City for breaking into a freight car and stealing a number of kegs of beer were sentenced today. Herbert Thom and Willard Letteller were committed to the reform school, Ralph Conant was sentenced to the county jail for six months and "Charley" McKillop, Cecil Moffitt, Archie Warthen and Stanley Thompson were sentenced to the county jail for three months. In the last four cases sentence was suspended during good behavior.

TWO WOMEN KILLED IN PANIC IN CATHEDRAL

(Hearst News by Longest Leased Wire.)
Portland, Or., April 27.—During a panic in the cathedral today two women were trampled to death. The people have been worked up to a great pitch of excitement by frequent earthquakes which have been occurring since the organ of the cathedral rumbled forth. It was thought to be another earthquake and a wild rush was made for the doors. Besides the two women killed, over 100 others were seriously injured.

MOROCAN NATIVES ARE ON VERGE OF REBELLION

Tangier, Morocco, April 27.—The natives have been worked up to a great state of excitement by the bandit, Raissuli and his ally, Rhuasama, pretender to the throne. Agitators have been sent among the people to say that the sultan sold Oudjda to the French and that is why French troops are now in possession of the town. An outbreak may occur at any hour as many sections are on the verge of rebellion.
