

The Dream

Work and Cheerfulness. There are many women who go about each day's tasks in a state of discontent. It seems so monotonous, so trifling, so dreary to do the same thing over and over each day, without acknowledgment, without progress, without any enduring result. Sweep, wash dishes, iron, mend, cook, and then cook, wash dishes, sweep, and iron. What does it all amount to? It is never done, and it can never be done; it takes all a woman's time and energy, and as she looks back over the days, the weeks and the years she is apt to ask whether it is, after all, worth while. Mothers, wives, housekeepers, it is worth while. It is vitally worth while. Your work is not lost, though it is consumed each day and must be each day newly expended. You are, for one thing, making home the most comfortable place in the world for your family, in attending to their bodily wants; for another thing, you are making the home atmosphere that which clings to your children through all their lives. Wherever they go in the after years they will look back to their childhood days as the happy ones. Nothing else will have quite the same stable qualities of character, of fitness, as the things done, the food eaten, the simple pleasures enjoyed in the childhood's home.

What a blessed thing to be able to make the home atmosphere helpful, strong, uplifting. No; however the current of their lives may hereafter be turned, they will never forget the home influence.

For another thing, although you are burying your life, it is only to "find it" in the best sense. "Blessed be drudgery," said an eminent writer—why? Because only by drudgery do we acquire the most stable qualities of character. Consider a moment. What are some of the traits which make up a strong character? Industry, patience, steadiness, endurance—all these are gained by drudgery—by doing the same thing over and over, and never losing heart. By and by the doing of these things and the virtues that they stand for, become ingrained in the character.

One cannot acquire these particular qualities in any other way. No amount of cleverness, of brilliancy, of wit, will make up for a lack of these enduring qualities. So, "blessed be drudgery," says Drummond, "the one thing that we cannot do without."

At the same time I would not have any tired woman who reads this column imagine that she is not entitled to occasional relief from the monotony of toil, or that she is justified in making the daily tasks all of her life. The life is more than meat, and the body is man's habitation. No life can be well rounded if the drudgery is all that there is to be in it.

What his business is to a man, so the home life and its industries must be to the woman. A man who lets his business absorb all of his personality and a woman who sinks all of her life in the dishwashing, and who lets the cook stove and the wash tub comprise her whole outlook on life becomes scold, cross-pieced and narrow. How can she help it? Ask rather, how can this day of progress and of universal enlightenment it can be possible?

A really progressive, live, business man manages his business. He schemes and plans to arrange in the most expeditious manner. By systematic management of his business he gains some degree of leisure for himself. By the same kind of forethought and judicious management in the home who is burdened by family cares can do the same thing for herself.

As a man uses up-to-date methods, he shows his good sense and proves his business sagacity. So also should the housekeeper. She should have all the aids for housekeeping that can be obtained. The modern washing machine, volatile soaps, convenient ironing board and a low chair so that she may sit down to do much of the ironing, a carpet sweeper, a wringer, a kitchen cabinet, which saves steps; meat choppers and other kitchen helps are as much her right in the home as a good letter file system, typewriter, extension telephone and messenger call are the husband's right in the office.

The woman who is wise may have much to do, and yet not be much cumbered. In these days, if she has not the household helps it is perhaps because she has not asked her husband to provide them, but has gone on in the way that was her grandmother's in housekeeping, and which the grandmother was justified in using because no better was at hand, but which she is not justified in these days, when there are so many demands upon a woman outside of her kitchen work.

After all, it is the inner life which counts, which gives the tone to the outer life. A woman gains nothing by going about discontentedly moping over her housework with a long face and a wrinkled brow. Let us give the daily everyday commonplace things their due share of attention and do them with cheerfulness, but let us not allow them to absorb all our interest.

"I insist upon some time for myself," said a very busy mother once, "if it is only reading the morning paper after every one else has gone to bed." She insisted upon so much for her own refreshment and enlightenment. Surely every woman can have that much.

Menu Helps. For a delicious salad, dice an apple, an orange and two bananas, chop half a cupful of nuts, cut up two big stalks of celery, mix all together thoroughly and dress with boiled dressing with half a cupful of cream whipped stiff incorporated with it. An attractive and especially tasty salad is made of bananas and nuts. Peel the bananas and scrape them free from all coarses fiber. Then lay each on a bed of lettuce leaves, spread it with the boiled dressing and sprinkle with chopped nuts. Fresh molasses cake topped with whipped cream makes an appetizing dessert. For an excellent cake, use half a cupful of sugar, half a cupful of molasses, a teaspoonful of ginger, a cupful and a half of flour, a teaspoonful of soda and three quarters of a cupful of sour cream and a quarter of a cupful of milk. If there is no cream, use a cupful of sour milk and a level tablespoonful of butter. Bake in a long, shallow tin in a hot oven for about half an hour. Cut in squares and heap whipped cream on the top.

Women's 50c Vests 25c
A broken line of fine 50 cent garments, in the high neck and long-sleeve style. Fine goods, well worth 50c each—special for Wednesday only...
Women's Fancy Vests, with ribbon trimmed top, worth 35c—special...
Women's Vega Silk Union Suits, lace trimmed, worth $2.00 each—special...
Women's Union Suits, low neck, sleeveless style, worth 60c each—special...

SALE OF CURTAINS ON FOURTH FLOOR TOMORROW
Olds, Wortman & King
Fifth St. Washington St. Sixth St.
LADIES' HOME JOURNAL PATTERNS 10c AND 15c

Buy Seeds Quickly
For lawn or garden, for flower or vegetable beds, now is the time to get them started. Buy the kind we sell here. Good, hardy, Northern grown seeds that will grow and reward you for your labors. Special prices today. In the notion aisle.

That Tremendous Sale of Fine Haviland China Begins Wednesday at 8 a. m.

HUNDREDS AND HUNDREDS OF PIECES AND BARGAINS THAT ARE NOTHING SHORT OF PHENOMENAL. IMMENSE ASSORTMENTS AND Dainty SHAPES, PLEASING DECORATIONS AND SPLENDID QUALITIES. No such offer in fine China has been made since this store has existed. And need we tell you that we are the recognized headquarters for fine china and crockery? While our Mr. J. C. Olds was in the east a short time ago he saw a chance to buy this immense lot of chinaware for about half price and took the largest amount that we have ever bought in one bill, to secure the enormous price reduction that he was enabled to purchase these goods for. There'll be a fine display of this china in the window on Washington street and on the Third Floor, too. Come share in the bargains. If you think you are well supplied come anyway, for 'tis worth the trip down town to see such a magnificent assortment of pretty china.

Read of the Wondrous Values

Bread Trays, worth $1.15, for	65¢	Tea Plates, worth $4.15 dozen	$2.50
Chocolate Pots, worth $2.25 each, for	$1.30	Bread and Butter Plates, regularly worth $3.40 dozen, for	$2.10
Chocolate Pots, worth $1.65, for	$1.00	Haviland China Pudding or Oatmeal Plates, at one-third regular, Regularly 35c each, for	12¢
Creamers, worth 60c, for	35¢	Regularly 38c each, for	13¢
Cake Plates, worth 85c, for	52¢	Regularly 40c each, for	14¢
Chop Plates, worth $1.70, for	$1.05	Regularly 45c each, for	15¢
Dinner Plates, worth $5.38 dozen	$3.20	Regularly 50c each, for	16¢
Breakfast Plates, worth $5.00 dozen	$3.00
Sugars, worth $1.20 each, now	72¢	Haviland China Soup Plates, in three grades, one-third their real value—Read: Worth $6.00 dozen, for	$2.00
Spoon Trays, worth 60c each	35¢	Worth $7.00 dozen, for	$2.35
Teacups and Saucers, regularly worth $5.65 the dozen, for	$3.40	Worth $7.50 dozen, for	$2.50

SPREAD OUT ON LARGE TABLES SO YOU CAN EASILY AND QUICKLY SELECT THE PIECES YOU WANT. NO RESERVES, YOU MUST TAKE THE GOODS AT ONCE. NONE SENT OUT ON PHONE ORDERS OR LAID ASIDE FOR ANY ONE.

German China Dinner Sets, nicely decorated and good shapes, all 100-piece sets, little more than half regular prices. Regular $20.00 values... $11.25 Regular $22.00 values... $12.50 Regular $24.00 values, for... $13.50

Dress Goods Bargains BEYOND COMPARE
The Sale Continues With Unabated Vigor
We've done a mighty good business in Dress Goods for the last two days, but it seems as though the immense assortment were hardly touched, and those who come tomorrow find as good choosing as the women who came the first day. Every yard is a pattern woven for this spring's business, and all good patterns at that. Then with these low prices, can you hesitate?
$1.00 Dress Goods, yard 69¢—Many, many bolts of this lot; it's a fine assortment of fancy Panamas, in regular or chiffon weights. Comes in all designs and color combinations, a superb spring suiting, worth $1 the yard; special sale price... 69¢
$1.25 Dress Goods, yard 89¢—Fancy Panama weaves and fancy Mohairs and soft finished Foules and French Serges; 52 pieces in the lot; patterns are stripes and checked effects, simply grand; $1.20 qualities; special sale price... 89¢
$2.00 Dress Goods, yard $1.48—There are 54 pieces of these, including fancy Voiles, in imported French weaves, in the beautiful moonlight effects and soft color combinations in the pastel shades; regular $2 grades; sale price, the yard... $1.48
$2.50 Dress Goods, yard $1.89—The cream of the season's output in fine wool fabrics; made in domestic or foreign mills, and designed by the best textile artists in the world; 37 pieces of fancy Voiles, English Tailor Suiting, French serge in light or medium weights, and fancy Panamas. In fact, there's every wanted weave here; regular $2.50 quality—special price... $1.89

Silk Shirtwaist Suits 1-3 Less
For One Day Only—That's Wednesday
Charming costumes of superb, shimmering silk, made in pleasing models; made in a dashing style that is characteristic of the Olds, Wortman & King suit salon. Come in the blouse or Princess models, made plain or in daintily trimmed effects. Some have yokes of exquisitely pretty lace, others of shirring and tucks; trimmings are lace, braid, tucks, shirring and buttons, and they are applied by artists. These suits come in the good, plain colors, such as the new golden and russet browns, slate and navy blue, Nile green, reds and changeable effects, as well as fancy plaids. They have either the full length or 3/4 sleeves, worth from $15 to $45, and all reduced one-third.
Regular $15 Suits, sell for only... $10.00
Regular $28.50 Suits... $18.50
Regular $35.00 Suits... $23.34
Regular $25.00 Suits sell for only... $16.66
Regular $45.00 Suits... $30.00

NAVAL OFFICER WEDS POPULAR SOCIETY MAID
(Journal Special Service.)
Washington, April 30.—Fashionable society folk of Washington and a number of guests from out of town filled St. John's church at noon today at the wedding of Miss Zaida Gaff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Gaff, and Dr. Cary Langhorne, United States navy. The bride had as her attendant maid her cousin, Miss Rachel and Miss Mary Holmes of Cincinnati. Miss large...

LIFE OF HEDGES FILLED WITH HIGH ACHIEVEMENT
(Special Dispatch to the Journal.)
Helena, Mont., April 30.—Cornelius Hedges, "father of Montana Masonry," who died yesterday, was a charter member of the first Masonic lodge in Montana. With the late United States Senator Sanders, he took a prominent part in the work of the vigilance committee in riding the community of its lawless element. He was one of the lead...

Men's Fine Shoes Special $2.59
A one-day special that will make every man in Portland want to buy shoes here. We have nearly 2,000 pairs of them—enough for all day, good styles, every pair in the lot, and they sell for just about wholesale price for Wednesday only. Four different styles to choose from. Come early as possible.
Style 606 1/2—An all-patent oxford in the blucher lace style; made with best oak soles, and the new cadet toe, and made mighty well, too. Compares well with any $3.50 shoe made—Wednesday... $2.59
Style 654 1/2—A fine velour calf oxford, made on a neat, straight last, with dull calf top, oak tanned soles, and Goodyear welt sewed—a swell shoe for... $2.59
Style 686—A bright finished calf shoe, made on a new swing last, with medium-weight soles, and top of dull calf. Hooks and eyelets are finished to match—special, the pair, Wednesday... $2.59
Style 685—A splendid men's shoe, made of prime vicci kid, on a straight last with medium round toe, flexible soles, medium weight—a dandy shoe for summer wear... $2.59

Children's Aprons
Regular 75c for 49c
Made of a good quality gingham, with long sleeves and turned-down collar; some in light blue, pink or red checked patterns, and have neat little belt edged with white; for little ones 2 to 8 years of age, worth 75c, for only... 49¢
Women's and Misses' Sunbonnets, of plain or fancy chambray, percale or gingham; something you'll find plenty of use for now, worth 25c—special... 17¢
Hand Emb. Scarfs, Doylies & Cent'r Pcs
Square or round shapes, in the rich, handsome Slovak embroidery—a splendid assortment of doylies, scarfs, squares and center-pieces; white floss embroidery on fine white materials, rich and attractive in all ways. Priced thus: 6-inch size, worth 20c, for... 13¢ 12-inch size, worth 60c, for... 39¢ 20-inch size, worth $1.40, for... 97¢ 24-inch size, worth $2, for... $1.28 36-inch size, worth $4.75... $3.25
Other Values in Proportion to These Mentioned.

Untrimmed HATS
49c Each
A Wednesday sale of smart headgear for miss or madam. The very desirable shapes in a fine quality, at a price that will appeal irresistibly to those economically inclined. Splendid shapes of straw, in the hood, chip flat or Leghorn. Hats that are easily shaped in the popular mushroom models.
Bedford Cord Chip Hood Hats, regularly 65c—special at... 49c
Women's Hood Hats, in horsehair braids, worth $1.65, each... 89c
Women's Chip Braid Hood Hats, regularly worth $1.65, for... 89c
Women's Hood Hats, of Tuscan braid, worth $2.50—special... $1.49
Children's Untrimmed Leghorn Hats, regularly 50c—special... 25c

GERMAN SOCIALISTS NOT TO CELEBRATE
(Journal Special Service.)
Berlin, April 30.—May day in Berlin and throughout the empire promises to pass off quietly and without the customary demonstrations and suspension of labor. The executive committee of the German Social Democratic party has issued a manifesto commending its members of the party to continue their work as usual tomorrow, and the order will be generally observed. The players have combined in a declaration that any workman taking a holiday Monday will be punished by being turned out for 10 days. The teachers have received the same order. They are not to be permitted to leave their schools on Monday. The same order has been issued to the police and the military. The funeral will be held here Wednesday or Thursday.