Will Be Open All Day Sunday—Acquiescing in the desire of numerous persons anxious for an opportunity to invest in its shares, the Butte Boys Consolidated Mining company, Weatherly building, 380 East Morrison street, has decided to have its office open all day Sunday for the sale of its stock. The company's advertisements have announced for a week that the price of shares would be advanced from 10 cents to 15 cents on the morning of May 5, in consequence of which there has been a tremendous rush for stock every day this week. In fact, Secretary McKechnie has been swamped, and it will be Tuesday before he has his decks all cleared. Manager Bever says that the man or woman who is compelled to work all week ought to have an opportunity to seek to better his or her condition even if a sacrifice must be made, and for that reason he will give an opportunity on Sunday to be possessed of as many of the company's shares as they care to buy. The Butte Boys gives every promise of becoming another Mohawk. If it does all its stockholders will certainly have reason to rejoice.

In a lecture before the People's Forum on "Some American Ideals," E. S. J. McAllister last night charged that the United States senate was the most corrupt and debauched legislative body for the world and challenged any one in the audience to name one man in the senate who actually represents the people. A number of speakers followed, including F. A. Brown, who stated that Senator Bourne represents the people, because he is the only man in the senate chosen by the people of any state and that all his actions so far bear out the fact that he is working for the interests of the people.

Sheriff Stevens was yesterday afternoon called upon by the county authorities at Salem to serve a writ of habeas corpus on Mrs. Lena Kaptahahn, compelling her to deliver her 8-year-old child to the circuit court of Marion county. Mrs. Kaptahahn is accused by her divorced husband of neglecting the child and leaving it with strangers while she visited in Portland. The woman heard of the issuance of the papers and took the train for Salem before she could be served here. The papers were remitted to the capital last night. The husband is E. L. Kaptahahn. The couple were divorced last July.

The funeral of William M. Patterson, who died at his home in Mount Tabor yesterday at the age of 82, was held this afternoon. William M. Patterson was born in Edwardsville, Illinois, in 1825 and came to the Pacific coast in 1850. He was a veteran of the war of the Rebellion and had been a resident of Portland for the last 23 years. He leaves the following children: Captain W. H. Patterson, James Patterson and Miss Louise Patterson.

FOR CITY ATTORNEY

WILLIAM R. MCGARRY.

That W. R. McGarry will be nominated by the Republicans for city attorney tomorrow is a foregone conclusion. If Mr. McGarry is elected city attorney the people of Portland will have retained a lawyer of standing and not a machine politician representing any special interest.

Mr. McGarry's standing as a lawyer and gentleman is thus summed up by Hon. Willis B. Perkins of the Michigan bench: "William R. McGarry has been an honored and successful practitioner before the bar of this court for a number of years last past. Since coming to this city about seven years ago to practice his profession, his gentlemanly conduct and legal abilities have commanded the respect and confidence of all with whom he has been brought into social or business relations, and it is with the deepest regret that his friends learn that he is about to remove from this city to another field of labor.

"It is a pleasure to say that as a lawyer, Mr. McGarry's work has always been of the highest character, being marked by the most careful preparation of his cases and an earnestness and zeal in their presentation which leaves but little to be said by others when he is done. His practice during the past few years has included many of the most important cases tried in the courts of this state during that time, and wherever he may determine to locate it is the earnest wish of his friends and business associates here that he may soon achieve that success which his character and abilities deserve."
