Deed to Portland Heights Lot

Drops From Balloon

Sunday, May 12
Is the Date

Prof. Miller will make a parachute jump at an elevation of more than 5,000 feet, or a mile above the earth.

The person who secures the deed gets the lot absolutely free. The ascent will be made from "The Heights Terraces," at the head of Seventh, Park, Tenth and Twelfth streets, just above the castle, where the "1905" Fair sign stood. This slightly property is now on the market. Lots from $500 up. A car line is being built to the property, and gas, water and sewer pipes will be put in immediately.

SHADY WOOD PARK

An addition in the most desirable residence district of Lents. This offer is made to call the attention of a great number of people to the remaining lots of this tract. Take the pleasant car ride on the Oregon Water Power's palatial coaches to Lents and see both the beautiful lots and beautiful paintings. The giving of a valuable framed oil painting with each lot does not mean that the price of the lots has been advanced. The paintings embrace a variety of subjects, among them a picture of Thunder Mountain, Idaho, a new canvas of this majestic mountain scenery that has received much favorable comment. The pictures run in size from 18x24 up. On exhibition every day at
