First Home Game of Portland's Team to Be Preceded by Ceremonies.

RIVAL NINES TO LEAD PARADE TO GROUNDS

Mayor Lane Will Pitch First Ball, Auditor Devlin Will Catch at It and Judge Williams Will Umpire and Raise 1906 Pennant.

Mayor Lane will pitch the first ball in the game that will open the 1907 season for the Pacific Coast league in Portland.

And Auditor Devlin, if he is not too shy to consent, will make a wild effort to catch it. Judge George H. Williams will stand somewhere about the diamond and call "strike" in loud, stentorian voice; that is, if he doesn't forget the word.

These little stunts will constitute only a few of the ceremonies that will attend the opening of the season in Portland. Among the others will be the raising of the 1906 pennant by Judge Williams and an automobile parade before the game.

The printed schedule of the Pacific Coast league says that the Beavers will be home to open the season with San Francisco on Tuesday next, May 14. But they will not be able to make connections and the first game will be played on Wednesday, May 15.

Portland's business houses will be asked to close in the afternoon and at 2 o'clock a brass band and parade will move through the streets to the grounds. The rival teams will be borne in uniform at the head of the procession and the auto club has given its promise that from 50 to 75 cars will be in line.

Judge Williams will hoist the pennant to the top of the flagpole, where it will fly all year. Then will follow the other little ceremonies and, at 8:30 or thereabouts, the first game will begin in earnest.

Here's to the Portland club. May her luck change with the home coming of her ball players!

BASEBALL IN WOBBLY SHAPE IN VANCOUVER

Officers Take Salary Agreement Seriously and Come Near Dropping Out of League.

By A. P. Garvey. (Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Vancouver, B. C., May 9.—Three weeks have passed since the opening of the Northwestern league, and although a few of the clubs on the Sound have done well financially, the game has received a setback in Vancouver and in order to give the game a boost, the directors of the club must take action at once. They realize that if the American national pastime is to continue as a leading sport of this city they must be more liberal with the money.

At the commencement of the season the league magnates at their organization meeting decided that although it was not absolutely necessary to set a salary limit, none of the interested clubs should go over the $2,000 mark. The officials of the clubs were unanimous in this, but trouble soon arose.

Kicked Roof Off.
The Aberdeen club kicked the roof off the salary limit. In fact, the men behind the Black Coats have a payroll that exceeds the $2,000 mark. They spared no expense in gathering together some of the best men on the coast, with the result that insofar as good baseball is concerned, none of the other clubs are in the same class.

The officers of the Vancouver club agreed with "Cupid" Dugdale that the club should not go over $1,800 for salaries and the result was that Vancouver had a decidedly poor team, but it was the best that could be secured by Parke Wilson for the money that was offered.

The Canucks were left in the cellar from the start and today Parke Wilson's chances of winning the pennant are very slim. However, the directors of the home club have come to Wilson's assistance and have offered him the necessary money and he is now securing the country for players. The fans were disgusted at the playing of the home team, and had the directors delayed in the matter of securing better material, it is almost sure that the club would have given way and allowed the games to be transferred to Bellingham, or one of the Sound cities.

SEASON SCHEDULE OF POWERS' BLUES

Popular Amateur Club to Make Trip Through Eastern Oregon and Washington.

The manager of the Powers Blues is now engaged in lining out the team's schedule for the summer season of 1907. With the unlimited backing accorded them, the Blues have gone far afield to secure games with teams worthy of their steel.

Matches are already booked with strong teams from Ballard and Seattle. Negotiations are about closed for return games with the strongest semi-professional club of Tacoma. The Dalles team will play here next Sunday and there are other matches in prospect.

On June 29 the Powers Blues will start their invasion of eastern Oregon and the inland empire. During this trip about 10 games will be played and the best teams of that section will be met. The series will open at The Dalles on the 29th and following this Pendleton, La Grande, Baker City, Walla Walla and Spokane will be visited.

METROPOLITAN HANDICAP TO BE RUN AT BELMONT

New York, May 9.—Fourteen horses will go to the post in the Metropolitan handicap which will be run at the opening of Belmont park today. The prize is $10,000 and the favorite is Roseben, at 2 to 1. The horses, weights and jockeys are: Gloster (119), Garner; Roseben (124) J. Martin; Dandelion (119), Radke; W. H. Carey (118) McDaniel; Dishable (116), L. Williams; Tokalon (115) Booker; B. Landy (111), Mountain; Superman (100), Lowe; Sewell (109), Brunsell; Ben MacIntosh (94), Preston; Zienah (94), Hog; Nealon (114), Dugan; J. C. Core (88) Miller; Tanya (115) Koener.

SULLIVAN COMPARES WEIGHT WITH TAFT

(Journal Special Service.) Washington, May 9.—John L. Sullivan yesterday called on Secretary Taft and compared weights, and was received by the president and reviewed many of his fights. The president was a spectator at a number of them and talked intelligently in the ring lingo. Sullivan, in leaving, said:

"The president is all right, and so is Taft. The big fellows are hot stuff. It takes 'em a long time to get started, but when they get going they go like hell."

At Jamaica.
New York, May 9.—Jamaica race results: Five furlongs—Sweet Taire won, Alud second, The Dane third; time, 1:03. Mile and a sixteenth—Tony Bonero won, Shenandoah second, John Spulski third; time, 1:48. Mile and a sixteenth—Dolly Spunker won, Tommy Waddell second, Flip Flap third; time, 1:48 2-5.

Wisconsin League Starts.
Milwaukee, Wis., May 9.—With brighter prospects than ever before in its history the Wisconsin state baseball league enters upon the season of 1907 today. The circuit this year could hardly be improved upon, comprising as it does eight good ball towns. The opening games, weather permitting, will be played as follows: Green Bay at Freport, Oshkosh at Madison, Wausau at Eau Claire and Fond du Lac at La Crosse. The schedule provides for 126 games, the season to close September 22.

COCAINE STEALS MAN'S FORTUNE

Julius Richtnatz, Formerly Rich Helena Merchant, Dies in the Slums.

REFUSED TO ABANDON DRUG TO CLAIM MONEY

Ten Thousand Dollars Left Friend a Year Ago by Relatives, but He Lacked the Ambition to Prove His Right to the Legacy.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Butte, Mont., May 9.—Julius Richtnatz, once worth $500,000, and one of the most prominent merchants of Helena, died last night in a filthy den inhabited by cocaine fiends in Wyoming street alley. His life is a story of contrasts—once an honored and respected young merchant, high in the esteem of his fellow Jews of Helena, he died in the most horrible of low places in Butte.

MILLIONAIRE'S WIFE HAS NARROW ESCAPE

(Journal Special Service.) Reno, Nev., May 9.—Mrs. Nixon, wife of United States Senator George S. Nixon, narrowly escaped a tragic death while automobiling on the streets of Reno yesterday afternoon. As Nixon's big car was speeding down Virginia street, near Second, where some firemen were working on the telephone wires overhead, a small guy line slipped down in a loop, knocking the driver's hat off and swung back and caught Mrs. Nixon about the neck. The driver in reaching back for his hat saw what had happened and immediately applied the brakes, sliding the big machine to a quick stop. Had there not been considerable slack in the wire it would have jerked Mrs. Nixon from the automobile and caused a serious accident, if not a fatal one. As it was, it badly bruised her neck, and the fireman above was jerked from his platform, saving himself from a fall of 30 feet only by the presence of mind in grasping a big cable and hanging there until rescued.

IRISHMEN WILL DEMAND COMPLETE HOME RULE

John Redmond Says Lawmaking Machine Must Be Removed to Dublin.

(Journal Special Service.) London, May 9.—Not doctrinaire, but practical, will be our attitude toward the British government bill to establish in Dublin an Irish council to control the more important features of the Irish administration," said John Redmond today.

"In other words," he continued, "unless I misunderstand Irish opinion, which will be clearly expressed at the forthcoming Dublin convention, we intend to take whatever is obtainable in the way of real self-government so long as nothing prejudices our case for complete autonomy on the Canadian and Australian model."

UNIVERSITY STUDENTS MAKE NOMINATIONS

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) University of Oregon, Eugene, May 9.—The student body has nominated the following for officers during the coming year, the election to be held next week:

For president, Bert Prescott, Baker City; vice-president, Oscar Prosser, Eugene, and William Woods of Astoria; for executive committee, Harold Clifford, Baker City; James Cunningham, Baker City, and Bolton Hamble, Eugene; athletic council, Gordon Moore, Salem; Roy Zacharias, Modesto, California; Grover Kestley, Eugene, and P. W. Reed, Portland; editor of the Oregon Weekly, T. R. Townsend, Roseburg; assistant editor, Miss Nieta Harding, Oliver; business manager, Benjamin Huntington; business manager, Carl B. Neal of Salem and Walter Eaton of Eugene; managing editor of monthly, Earl F. Strong, Roseburg; literary editor of monthly, Miss Miriam Van Waters, Portland; William Chandler, Marshfield. Chandler is a senior, but accepted the nomination in a jocular mood as it was offered. Assistant editors, Francis Oberlester, Portland; J. H. Bond and William Dill; business manager, William Noon, Portland; and Lloyd Brooke, Portland; secretary of the student body, Misses Edna Crawford, Cora Cameron, Agnes Stephen and Gladys McKenzie.

CULBERSON MAY BE NEXT MINORITY LEADER

Washington, D. C., May 9.—It now begins to look very much as though Senator Charles A. Culbertson has the best chance of being chosen minority leader in the senate next December. According to report, Senator Culbertson now claims he has enough pledges from

Your grocer returns your money if you don't like Schilling's Best we say this.

L. Morrison, a partner in the Hubert's saloon at Colville and East Main streets, has been missing since April 20. Considerable mystery surrounds his disappearance. Mrs. Morrison believes he has been drowned but this is denied by the police. Morrison is in custody of the police, took the first train the day before he disappeared and is believed he has simply left the city.
