

FOULKES NOW IN NEW PASTORATE

Impressive Ceremony at First Presbyterian Church During Installation.

REV. SHARP DELIVERS CHARGE TO PASTOR

Congregation and Members of the Presbytery Present at Services Presided Over by Rev. Hare—Sermon by Rev. Ely.

With an interesting and impressive service Rev. William Hiram Foulkes was last night installed as pastor at the First Presbyterian church. The moderator of presbytery, Rev. David Henry Hare, presided. The sermon was given by Rev. Ben-Hara Stiles Ely, D. D., after which the constitutional questions were asked the pastor-elect and the people by Rev. Mr. Hare. The prayer of installation was given by Dr. J. R. Wilson.

Rev. Edward M. Sharp delivered the charge to the pastor. He spoke of the qualifications and the functions of the pastor's office, drawing the lesson from the position which Joseph held as interpreter to Pharaoh. He said that the people would come to their pastor with their troubled dreams and it was his high privilege as the interpreter of God to open to them the great storehouses of recognition and immortality. The qualifications demanded were those which had been catalogued by Paul—"Be thou an example of the believers in word, in manner of life, in love, in faith, in purity." His final charge to the pastor was to guard carefully and jealously the genuineness of his work as interpreter of the King.

The charge to the people was given by Dr. W. S. Holt, who spoke eloquently of the heritage of this church and charged the people to preserve it with fidelity and loyalty. He spoke of a church in eastern Oregon where he recently preached when there was in the audience Kip-Kapellik, who was the grandson of one of the Indians who in 1822 made the memorable journey to St. Louis to find the "white man's book." There was also present Old Sarah, a wisened old woman who had learned the gospel at the lips of Mrs. Marcus Whitman, the martyr, and an Indian whose whose ancestor had been one of Joseph's band.

EVERY MAN HAS A PROMISING FUTURE

But a Few Succeed in Catching Up With It.

Brown had a promising future before spring really opened, but it has not succeeded in catching up with it to quite the extent that was expected. Gray will again be a popular shade this summer. Our showing of gray suitings is remarkable for the beauty and variety of weaves and patterns. The gray fabric designers have surpassed their former best efforts. Until this season's fabrics arrived, we did not realize that gray would be combined with so many different colors and still retain its soft elegance and cool appearance. J. C. RUNAWAY KILLS ONE HORSE, INJURES OTHER

An exciting runaway, resulting in the death of one horse and serious injuries to another occurred yesterday afternoon at Third and Couch streets. Two spirited horses belonging to the Independent Haulage and Transfer company, were frightened by a switch engine, near the steel bridge and despite the efforts of W. S. Lynch, the driver, dashed down Third street.

At Couch street the animals collided with a lumber wagon, seriously injuring both steeds. As one of the horses sustained a broken leg, Patrolman Golts put the animal out of misery with a well-directed shot.

COLORADO CATTLEMEN KEEP MONEY AT HOME

(Journal Special Service.) Denver, May 10.—Colorado stockmen intend to erect a $100,000 pavilion in this city to be used for purposes of exhibiting Colorado stock. Just at this time particular attention is being paid to the stock raising industry in this state, and more especially to the hog raising. At a recent dinner here the fact was brought out that Colorado is now spending $10,000,000 on hog products to the east. Local cattlemen claim that this money ought to stay in the state, and it was learned that large improvements and additions to the present packing establishments of Colorado are planned.

can only furnish protection for a small number of cars. There are only 600 members of the police force and yesterday it took nearly 200 to protect two cars running through outlying sections of the city. Even Chief Dinan, who boasts of the ability of the police force to protect the cars, was unwilling to attempt to take the cars through the crowded parts of the city or through the burned district.

The United Railways will renew its attempt to operate cars today and just as many cars will be sent out. Chief of Police Dinan will guarantee protection for. The company announces that it is ready to send out cars on all lines at any moment, but until adequate protection is given by the municipal authorities, complete resumption of the streetcar traffic is impossible.

Military experts who have been consulted declare that a force of several thousand men would be required to insure the safe operation of cars over all lines of the company.

Not Enough Police.

Officials of the United Railways do not regard the developments in the situation yesterday as favorable to the renewal of normal traffic. The fact that the rioters hesitated to attack two cars under police protection is not taken as any indication that they will not attack unprotected cars, and the size of the police department makes it impossible to furnish guards to all the necessary cars for the resumption of traffic.

The schedule of the cars is at present dictated by Chief of Police Dinan and everything is in his hands. He is to notify President Calhoun what time today he can guarantee the safety of the cars and non-union carmen which will be sent out. Unless the state or federal authorities intervene with troops, the present condition of affairs is likely to remain unchanged.

Twelve affidavits of a sensational character were sworn to late last night in the offices of the United Railways at the car house at Turk and Fillmore streets, by 12 of the strikers who were arrested after the bloody battle on Turk street on Tuesday afternoon. These affidavits set forth that a number of non-union prisoners were beaten, knocked down and kicked by the police officers after they had been booked in lockups at Edley street central station on Tuesday afternoon. That they were tormented and reviled by the police and called unprintable names, photographed for the rogues gallery and compelled to submit to violation of the basic station of Richard Cornelius, president of the carmen's union, who, they stated, was admitted to their cells by the police.

Prisoners Refused Food.

Some of the affidavits also state that the men were given no beds or coats, that they took turns throughout Tuesday night in sleeping on bare benches without blankets, some standing while their comrades reposed, and then changing places with them, and that they were refused food and water by the police.

One of the deponents declared in his affidavit that when he demanded to know on what charge he was detained the police told him "murder," and that in remembrance he declared to them that he had not fired a single shot, and showed them in substantiation his two revolvers, fully loaded and their barrels clean. The men claim under oath that each night in sleeping on bare benches without blankets, some standing while their comrades reposed, and then changing places with them, and that they were refused food and water by the police.

made from simple native roots and herbs. For more than thirty years it has been helping women to be strong, regulating the functions perfectly and overcoming pain. It has also proved itself invaluable in preparing for child-birth and the Change of Life.

Mrs. A. M. Hagermann, of Bay Shore, L. I., writes:—Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—I suffered from a displacement, excessive and painful functions so that I had to lie down or sit still most of the time. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has made me a well woman so that I am able to attend to my duties. I wish every suffering woman would try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and see what relief it will give them.

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation to Women

Women suffering from any form of female illness are invited to write Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. for advice. She is the Mrs. Pinkham who has been advising sick women free of charge for more than twenty years, and before that she assisted her mother-in-law Lydia E. Pinkham in advising. Therefore she is especially well qualified to guide sick women back to health.

Oldest Woman in the World

MRS. MARY McGRATH, 110 YEARS OLD.

Mrs. Mary McGrath of Brandon, Wis., who is 110 years of age and the oldest woman in the world, says that when she takes Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey she feels so well she can walk a mile.

Mrs. McGrath says she tried several other medicines, which did her harm and finally used Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey as prescribed solely, which restored her to health and prolonged her life.

"I take pleasure in writing to you what a wonderful medicine your Malt Whiskey is. I am never tired of praising it, for it has done me so much good. While I was taking it I could go out and walk a mile. I have taken so many other kinds of medicines since I have been sick, and instead of improving me they did me harm. I know what Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey does for me, and I want no other medicine." Yours, Mrs. MARY McGRATH, Brandon, Wis., December 18th, 1906.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey is recognized as the best tonic stimulant in the world for both young and old.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey

is distilled wholly from malted grain by a most expensive method which has never been made public and this private process gives it great medicinal value and insures quality and flavor. Its age, softness, palatability and freedom from those injurious substances found in other whiskeys make it acceptable to the most sensitive stomach.

It is an absolutely pure, gentle and invigorating stimulant and tonic. It acts as an antitoxin which destroys and drives out all disease germs; creates new nerve tissues, tones and strengthens the heart, gives power to the brain and elasticity to the muscles, enriches the blood and soothes and heals the mucous membranes. It brings into action all the vital forces. It makes digestion perfect, and enables you to get from the food you eat the nourishment it contains. It is invaluable for overworked men, delicate women and sickly children. It strengthens the system, is a promoter of health and longevity, makes the old young and keeps the young strong. Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey is a form of food already digested and is recognized as a medicine everywhere.

CAUTION—Sold by all druggists, grocers and dealers or direct, in sealed bottles only; never in bulk. Price $1. Insist on the genuine and see that the "Old Chemist" trade-mark is on the label and that the seal over the cork is unbroken. Beware of refilled bottles and spurious malt whiskey substitutes offered for sale by unreliable dealers. They are positively harmful and will not cure. Illustrated medical booklet and doctor's advice free. Duffy Malt Whiskey Co., Rochester, N. Y.

conducting the boarding house. Governor Chamberlain terms the pardon a "square deal" pardon, White having agreed to pay a fine of $250, as his partners, Smith and White, did, and to pay the cost of the appeal. He also is said to have promised to conduct himself as a law-abiding citizen in the future and not violate the state or federal laws. At the time of his sentence White was admitted to bail in the sum of $1,000, John P. Falke, M. J. Malley and John Grant furnishing the bond.

Storm Warnings Issued

Storm warnings were ordered displayed last evening all along the coast by the weather bureau.

Anchor Probably Lost

The lights in command of Captain J. H. Harriman and carries a crew of 11 men all told. She is equipped with sails and would be able to hold her own if she could get under headway before getting too close to shore.

Captain F. J. Werlich, lighthouse inspector, was immediately notified of the accident this morning but it will not be known until the return of the Heaster whether a new anchor will have to be supplied or not. It is supposed that the anchor was lost. Captain Werlich says that Captain Harriman inspected the anchor chains a few days ago and found them in fine condition and from this it is supposed that the blow of last night must have been unusually severe.

the veniremen were farmers and Republicans. The attorneys for the prosecution made especial effort to ascertain whether or not any of the veniremen had or were reading social and trade union papers. "The appeal to Reason" or Girard, Kansas, was thrown into the limelight all through the questioning as the names of the veniremen called and questioned by the attorneys on both sides reverted to voluminous piles of papers wherein the man's history, religious, political and industrial, were inscribed. It is evident that the attorneys for the prosecution know pretty nearly the bias and character of virtually every possible juror in Ada county, and the attorneys for the defense proved that their knowledge of the same possible jurors is by no means limited. The questions were severe and particular, and it is expected that next week will be consumed before both sides will be satisfied with the persons whom they will admit to jury service.

Judge Wood indicated his apparent willingness to be fair in his rulings, and through no source a point arose that tested his temper.

Deputy Sheriff Haywood took keen interest in the proceedings, and occasionally prompted his attorneys. He is a law student, is familiar with court practice, and his words were heeded by the counsel. His invalid wife and two daughters sat by his side, and will continue to appear in court every day until the end of the trial.

Few labor men have arrived in Boise. Though the detectives say that the town will be overflowing with them inside of a week.

Among the Socialist writers are Ernest Untermyer, Ida Crouch Hazlet, W. Parks, H. P. Titus, Ryan Walker and G. H. Shook. These persons, while they are watched constantly by the police and detectives and have been warned by Mayor John M. Haines, are confining their activities purely to literary work. They firmly declare they are for peace and would deprecate any violent outbreak.

From the names of most of the witnesses subpoenaed by the state, it is plain that all the labor troubles of the last 15 years in Idaho, Colorado and
