AT THE THEATRES

'Salome" Tonight and Sunday Night. The attraction at the Heilig theatre, Four-teenth and Washington streets, tonight and tomorrow night, will be Oscar Wilde's great drama, "Salome." Wilfred Roger will be seen as "King Herod" and Elizabeth Stuart as "Salome." The clever sketch "Miss Civilization" precedes "Salome." Seats are selling at Heilig theatre box office.

Seat Sale for "Fantana."

Seat Sale for "Fantana."

This afternoon there was a long line of people waiting for the box office to open at the Marquam Grand for seats for "Fantana."

The new season of musical comedy will begin at this fine theatre next Wednesday evening, when the San Francisco Opera company, composed of many favorites of the old Tivoli Opera company, will make its appearance. "Fantana" is one of the most popular of moderu light operas and has been selected as one of the most attractive offerings with which to reopen Portland besutiful theatre. The Marquam Grand has been completely renovated at a cost of over $40,000 and is now entering on a new lease of life under new management. Remember that the seats are now selling for "Fantana" and you will want to see it.

"The New Dominion" Coming. At the Baker theatre next week "The New Dominion" will be the bill. This is a play by Clay Clement, a favorite with many Portland-ers. It has always made a strong impression wherever groduced and next week will un-doubtedly add to its popularity in this city.

Empire Is Good. Alaska 1907 EXCURSIONS It will be a hard matter to surpass "She Dared Do Right," the big melodrama which is drawing the people to the Empire this week. There's an abundance of real human interest about this play that will make one remember it for a long time.

Empire's Next Melodrama.

"The White Caps' is a melodrama of the kind that will make the Empire the center of popular entetrainment next week. It opens with the Sunday matinee. Daily the patronage of the Empire is growing, and "there's a reason."

"The Silver King."

Tonight, tomorrow afternoon and night ends the engagement of "The Silver King" at the Star theatre. This famous melodrama has served to introduce the new stock company at the Star and the public new realizes there is a first-class performance at popular prices being given in the core; theatre on Washington street given in the cory theatre on Washington street.
"The Silver King" is an English melodrama which has served as a starring vehicle for some of the greatest actors in America.

For Baseball Fans.

The baseball season is about to open and all the fans want to hear the baseball jokes which Gil Brown cracks about the Beaver team at the Grand this week. Tomorrow will be the last time to hear him. It will also be the last chance to see "The Sallor and the Horse." "How the Widow Has Won," and the rest of the high-grade specialities with which the current Grand program is supplied. Usual Sunday performances tomorrow.

"Devil's Island."

Captain Dreyfus has been placed on the stage in "Devil's Island," the new drama which the Star theatre company will present for the first time next week, starting Monday night. The play sticks closely to the facts in the trial and experiences of Captain Dreyfus and is a sensational drama. Seats are now on sale. Tonight, tomorrow matinee and night are

Rev. Vosburgh of Rochester Will Lecture Tomorrow Afternoon at Heilig Theatre.

Members of the Woman's club were entertained yesterday afternoon by two remarkably fine papers and were any thusiastic over the fact that the papers were prepared and read by members of the club. Mrs. C. H. Rankin presented an able article on contemporary literature and Mrs. Emma Marshall treated of newspaper and magasine writers in a paper which was full of interest.

Mrs. Ernest Laidlaw sang two numbers with sweetness and spirit. The sum of $10 was voted as a contribution to the Whittier statue fund for a memorial at Amesbury, Mass.

The committee appointed to interview the depot officials and to protest against the unsanitary conditions of tollet facilities at the Union depet, reported that they had been received most entertained by some as a fad of the hour; by others as a menace to society and by others.
