Scheme to Keep Friends of the Republican Ticket in Front of Opened Registration Books Next Week

Ugly rumors are afloat regarding the plane of the Devilin machine to colonize the north end vote during the time five registration books are open on Monday. Tuesday and Wednesday of next week, and force the bona fide residents of the city who may desire to place their names on the books into second place or entirely beyond any chance to meet the requirements of the law.

It is intimated that a scheme is on foot to round up the north end denisons at different lodging houses in the district and hold a large "floating population" there in the interests of the Republican ticket. The story has it that ward workers in that district have already massed a considerable number of being suns at political headquarters and every voter is to be reached by Devilin scouts. This will be reached by Devilin scouts. This will be the official machine, with W. M. Cake the official machine, with W. M. Cake into oblivion though, but will continue his "unofficial" efforts in the North End district and in rounding up the saloon vote.

The first political meeting of the campaign will be held Monday night when the Union Republican club will father a raily in the Selling-Eirsch hall to whoop it up for the Republican ticket. Other meetings are being planned.

Unregistered Vote for Lane.

The Democratic managers are anxious for every qualified voter in Portland to be on the registration books and will aid in the registration of all legal voters and in the registration of all legal voters. aid in the registration of all legal voters not now registered. Those residents of the city who fall to register and vote are in the majority of cases men who have become politically inert on account of past machine rule in Portland. They are men who, if taking any part in any election, would cast their vote for a clean city and a depent administration.

Lane leaders are confident, therefore that the unregistered vote will be a Lane vote if it is brought to the polls. They are anxious therefore that the full legal vote of the city be registered. Reed to Be Let Out.

Forces Flour Up. The sharp advance of late in the price of wheat has forced the greatest advance ever made in the price of flour. This morning the larger manufacturers of the wheat country put up their prices $1 a barrel. Such an advance in flour has never before been attempted in this country. Even during the days of the country. Even during the days of the Civil war no such advances were made at one time, and never since has the milling fraternity tried such a feat. That the enormous advance can safely be maintained is the general opinion of the milling trade. "The Eilers Way"

"The Eilers Way" of selling pianos is the popular way-the only right way-strictly one price. It matters not whether the seeker be man, woman or child, there is but one price—the lowest price—and that price is the same on every salesman's list. Eilers price is absolutely the lowest price at which reliable pianos are sold-decidedly lower than can be quoted by other dealers, for no other pianoselling organization in America is so well equipped, has such perfect shipping and distributing facilities, covers so great a territory, or has such an enormous business-over 72 per cent of the entire piano trade in Oregon being handled by the many Eilers stores, as well as a like supremacy being enjoyed in all the other territory from California to Alaska and in all the great Inland Empire in addition-all of which gives the Eilers organization an advantage which the foremost piano-makers in the world are quick to appreciate, and which gives the House of Eilers a line of instruments that for individual and combined high quality is not approached by another firm on the continent.

Buying from the House of Ellers means securing the lowest price, the highest quality, the most satisfactory guarantee, the most liberal exchange privilege, the fairest, squarest treatment. It's the money-saving, easy-buying way-the popular way-the reliable way. Can you afford to buy any other way?
