Portland Good Field for Missionary Work

Statement is Made and Assistance Asked at Northwest District Convention.

The convention of the Northwest District Oregon Christian Missionary society held its sessions yesterday in the German Evangelical church and in the First Christian church.

A resolution was also adopted asking that the state convention assist in the work in Portland. During the discussion on this resolution the statements were frequently made that Portland afforded the best field in Oregon for missionary work.

At the afternoon session several interesting addresses were delivered, dealing with the different phases of home missionary work. Rev. F. Elmo Robinson spoke on "The Field and How to Keep a District Evangelist in It All the Time."

Rev. C. F. Swander of McMinnville spoke at the night session on "An Enlarged Vision"; he told of the recent announcement that the Presbyterian church would raise $50,000 annually to support 5,000 missionaries.

Hastin Road Along Snake

Harriman Crowding Construction Work on Huntington-Lewiston Line.

TRACK INTO HOMESTEAD INSIDE NINEITY DAYS Four Thousand Men Engaged in Laying Rails—Line Will Give Low Grade Route Into Portland and Handle Copper Ore.

The railroad that is being built by the Oregon Short Line from Huntington along the Snake river to Lewiston will reach Homestead, Oregon, within 90 days, and will be operating that far north by September 15.

The railroad company has between 2,000 and 5,000 men at work on construction between Huntington and Ballard's landing, and the work is being pushed for some time that Harriman is determined upon possessing the Snake river water grade, and that he will succeed in pushing the Short Line through to Lewiston.

Favored Route for Heavy Tonnage. For heavy freight tonnage the Snake river route via Lewiston will become the favored route, as against the shorter road through the Blue Mountain region.

Thousands of Tons of Ore. "When I visited Council, the northern terminus of the present Short Line branch out at the mouth of the Snake river, I found piles of ore stacked up along the route awaiting cars to carry the stuff to the smelter."

THE BROKEN DOLLAR The average man will think twice before he breaks a dollar to purchase 5 cents' worth of amusement or enjoyment, because he realizes that the remains of the dollar take wings and quickly fly away. Neither will a man write a check for 5 cents—it seems too small. Therefore, the man who deposits all his earnings in this strong bank and pays his bills by checking against his account is in a fair way to cut off the small extravagances that prevent so many of us from achieving financial success. If it is hard for you to lay by a store for the future try this plan. We will welcome your account, however small and assist you on the way to success.

HOOD RIVER KICKS FOR AND GETS GOOD PHONES Hood River, Or., May 11.—Tired of what they claim is an inadequate service, residents of Hood River valley have petitioned the Hood River Commercial club and the city council to grant a franchise to another telephone company. The service here at present is owned by the Pacific States company and in proportion to its population Hood River has more phones than any district in Oregon. Insufficient help is said to be the cause of the poor service. In compliance with the petition the city council has passed an ordinance giving a franchise to the Northwestern Telephone & Telegraph company, which has an automatic system. It will establish connection with Portland some time during the summer.
