THIRD STRAIGHT LOST THIS WAY

Thursday's, Friday's and Saturday's Games Lost by Portland in Final Inning.

THIS TIME HOME RUN BY EGAN DOES BUSINESS

Beavers Have Lead, but Miserable Hoodoo Follows Them to the Last and Leaves Them Still Deeper in the Mire.

Table with 4 columns: Team, Won, Lost, P.C. Rows include Oakland, San Francisco, Los Angeles, and Portland.

Journal Special Service. San Francisco, May 11.—Truck Egan, for the second time this week, drove a home run over the right field fence at Recreation park this afternoon.

This particular four bagger came at a most spectacular moment. Oakland had led by one run up to first half of the ninth. Then Portland crowded in a pair and had all the best of the argument. Not so, however, when Truck came to the plate in the Commuter's half of that same last frame.

FRISCO TURNS TABLES

Ashley Slaughtered, but Henley Holds Angels Safe.

Los Angeles, May 11.—The strikers hung in on the Angels today in a closely played game by the score of 4 to 3. Ashley was in the box for the visitors. He did well, striking eighth inning when he was slaughtered, retiring in favor of Henley, who held the Angels safe.

THE BIRD IS FLYING HIGH THIS YEAR

Fourteen Teams Have Promised to Enter Annual Thirteen-Mile Endurance Test.

Fourteen Portland grammar schools have signified their intention of entering the second annual relay race between Oregon City and Portland, which will take place on June 1. Other schools may enter, and although some may drop out, it is expected that at least a dozen will actually compete.

DRIVING CLUB'S PLANS FOR YEAR

Association Will Give Matinee Program at Irvington on June Fifteenth.

The Riverside Driving association is starting the season with more enthusiasm than it has shown for a number of years. It has as members many of the most prominent citizens of Portland in business, professional and social life, as well as a number of enthusiastic admirers of the light harness horse from Albany, Eugene, Salem, Hillsborough and other towns in the valley.

YACHT CLUB ABSORBS MINOR WATER BODIES

The Oregon Canoe club consolidated with the Oregon Yacht club yesterday and is now engaged in moving its property to the home of the Yacht club at the north end of The Oaks resort. The Y. M. C. A. Canoe club was taken into the Yacht club a few days ago and now the latter organization has more than 100 members. The recently elected officers are very enthusiastic and expect that this number will be doubled before the season really opens.

NO BALL GAME FOR NEWS WRITERS TODAY

Men who smiled yesterday in glad anticipation of the rare treat that was promised them are nursing wounded spirits this morning, and vowing that the weather man will get his. Dark frowns of disappointment mantle the brows of 49,000 baseball fans, and 28 reporters.
