"Owl" Cut Rate Drug Store Wins Its Fight Against Trust

For two years Lipman, Wolfe & Co. have been saving Portland people thousands of dollars by selling standard remedies and pure drugs at cut prices. We have been bitterly fought and blacklisted by the drug trust. A United States court decision just rendered permanently restrains the drug trust from criminal restraint of trade. The pure-food law makes the drug stores carry equally high grades of drugs as department stores. A great victory.

FOUNDER OF CHURCH OF NAZARENE SPEAKS HERE

Dr. P. F. Breesee of Los Angeles Will Address Portland Members Sunday—Denomination Has Had Remarkable Growth Since Its Organization in California Ten Years Ago.

The general assembly of the Church of the Nazarene, which ended its session at North Yakima, Washington, on Sunday, May 13, selected Portland for its meeting place next year. This assembly district comprises the states of Rev. P. F. Breesee, D. D.

Oregon, Washington, Idaho and Montana, and the churches of the district were well represented at the North Yakima assembly.

In Portland the church is but six months old, its first pastor, Rev. A. O. Henricks, arriving here from Los Angeles last fall. Its services are held in the old Swedish Lutheran church, 432 Burnside street, between Tenth and Eleventh. Another organization will be affected at Sellwood within the next two weeks, with Rev. J. H. McIntire, of Los Angeles, as its pastor.

Two members of the First church, as the one now in existence is called, Mr. and Mrs. Bartholomew, residing at Sellwood, have bought the old M. E. church building and it will be removed to a lot owned by them, and this will become the home of the Sellwood church of the Nazarene.

Mr. and Mrs. Bartholomew will donate the use of the structure until such time as the congregation feels able to buy it, when it will be turned over to the official body at its present actual cost.

It is expected to pay off this obligation within a year, and the Nazarenes of that suburb will then have a home of their own. The First church is also contesting about for a location for a new place of worship.

Founded First Church.

Rev. P. F. Breesee, D. D., still pastor of the parent church of Los Angeles, California, founded the Church of the Nazarene 10 years ago. As presiding elder of the Methodist Episcopal church he became estranged from that body, large numbers of his congregation going with him. It was not at first intended to establish any but the one place of worship, but so wonderfully successful were the first efforts that the work soon spread, and today there are 20 churches in California alone, besides other church organizations in that state, and the movement, up to two months ago, covered the states of Nevada, Washington, Oregon, Idaho, Montana, Illinois and other parts of the country.

Within the last two months, at a general assembly held in Brooklyn, New York, the Church of the Nazarene and the association of Pentecostal churches of America, have taken action for the union of the two bodies, and it is expected to complete this arrangement at the Church of the Nazarene at a final assembly to be held in the First church of Chicago, October 7, 1907.

IS TO COLLECT NORTHERN BIRDS

Professor W. T. Shaw Will Spend Two Months in Alaska for His College.

NOTED SCIENTIST TO HUNT FOR KADIAK BEAR

Washington Institution at Pullman Employs Member of Faculty to Go to Sitka for Specimens to Add to Collection.

Pullman, Wash., May 15.—Professor W. T. Shaw of the State college department of zoology has been employed by the college authorities to spend two months in Alaska, during the coming vacation, collecting specimens of northern birds and mammals for the college museum. Immediately after commencement Professor Shaw will proceed to Seattle, and thence to Sitka, Alaska, which place he will use as headquarters while collecting specimens. The professor expects to secure certain specimens of birds from the rocky islands which are scattered along the sea coast near Sitka. Having completed his collection of birds, he will visit the Kadiak islands, if time remains, where he hopes to secure a Kadiak bear. These bears are reputed to be the largest and fiercest of Alaska's wild animals.

A peculiarity of the collection will exist in the fact that birds, well known by their plumage in temperate climates, are entirely different in plumage when living in their northern habitat during the summer months. For instance, the loon has an unobscured slate-colored plumage in the winter, but when found in Alaska during the warm season, its plumage is of a metallic bluish black, strikingly marked with white. Most birds who change their habitats from north to south at different seasons of the year exhibit more or less corresponding change of plumage. In arranging his specimens, Professor Shaw will attempt, by comparison, to show this peculiarity.

SICK JUROR DELAYS ATWOOD HEARING

Trial Postponed Until Friday—Girl is First Witness Against Doctor.

Owing to the sudden illness of Juror D. C. Rogers, the trial of Dr. C. H. T. Atwood for manslaughter was postponed yesterday until Friday. Judge Gantenben was notified by telephone that Rogers was seriously ill at his home at St. Johns. Rogers expects to be able to attend court again Friday and the trial was postponed until that day.

Dr. Atwood is accused of manslaughter by performing an illegal operation upon 15-year-old Hattie Fee. The girl herself was the first witness for the prosecution, and the courtroom was cleared while she sobbed out her story to the jury. She said W. B. Holdiman, aged 40 years, a married man with two children, had caused her trouble and arranged with Dr. Atwood to perform the operation. She related the details of her visits to the doctor's office.

Holdiman is being held in the county jail to await trial on a felony charge, and will be one of the witnesses for the prosecution in the trial of Dr. Atwood.

CORVALLIS HAS JOINED CELEBRATORS' RANKS

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Corvallis, May 15.—Corvallis will celebrate the Fourth of July in fitting style this year, and for the purpose of getting the good work started committees have been appointed as follows:

Finance, Henry Ambler, M. M. Long and Charles Small; arrangements, M. L. Long, Charles Small, W. B. Smith, Henry Ambler, John Allen and S. I. Kline. As Corvallis has not celebrated for three years, every effort will be put forth to make this one a success.

MELVILLE MUST FACE FIRST DEGREE CHARGE

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Helena, Mont., May 15.—George Melville, who, upon being informed by his wife that she had been afflicted and slapped by Winfield Guthrie, a roomer at their house at East Butte, dashed the latter with a knife, resulting in his death, must answer to a first-degree murder charge, such an information having been filed late yesterday afternoon by the county attorney, Mrs. Melville was released. The hearing was set for Monday.

WILLAMETTE CREAM CO.

The Willamette Cream company, on Union avenue, near Everett, is doing a big business, although it is one of the newest institutions of the city in the industrial line. The management claim that the "Willamette" has the most complete creamery plant in the city. In their own building they have installed all the latest machinery. At the present time the "Willamette" is turning out 300 gallons of ice cream per week and 500 pounds of butter, and by the first of June the management expects to be putting out 1,000 pounds of butter. The popularity of their brand of butter, the "Puritan," is phenomenal. The public are invited to inspect the equipment and methods of this creamery and study the policy and appreciate the general atmosphere of cleanliness that pervades the place.

PIONEERS ON THE THIRD—EAGLES ON THE FOURTH

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Dallas, Or., May 15.—Dallas will have a joint pioneers' picnic and Fourth of July celebration this year. At a mass meeting of citizens an executive committee, composed of C. L. Crider, J. H. Hollister and J. C. Hayer, with Mayor A. B. Muir and Auditor L. D. Brown as chairman and secretary, was appointed to make all arrangements.

The Polk county pioneers had already arranged to hold their annual picnic on July 3, and this combine will make a two-day celebration. Timon Ford of Salem will deliver the annual address for the pioneers, and efforts will be

TWO INTERESTING CASES IN POLK CIRCUIT COURT

Taylor-Young Shooting and Kirkpatrick Condemnation Cases to Be Tried.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Dallas, Or., May 15.—Circuit court, department No. 1, Judge George H. Burnett presiding, is in session with a number of important cases on the docket. The most important are the Taylor-Young shooting scrape and the Kirkpatrick condemnation suit.

In the Taylor-Young case E. Young, a wealthy independence hopgrower, is charged with assault with a dangerous weapon on the person of Marshal Taylor of Independence, and his son, A. B. Taylor of the same place, arising from an altercation over a dog tax. The younger Taylor and Young became involved in a fist fight, and the marshal endeavored to separate them when Young pulled a revolver and began shooting at the Taylors, all the shots taking effect, but making only slight wounds. The outcome of the case is being watched with interest, as all participants are well known in Polk county. District Attorney McNary will prosecute the case, while John Carson of Salem and Oscar Hayer of Dallas will look after the defense.

In the Kirkpatrick condemnation proceedings the Southern Pacific railroad is endeavoring to condemn a strip of land belonging to Mary V. and E. C. Kirkpatrick in the north edge of Dallas in order to establish a freight depot site. The company alleges the reasonable value of the land to be $205, and offers that amount. The defendants allege they will be damaged in the sum of $3,400, and ask that for the site. W. D. Fenion of Portland and Oscar Hayer of Dallas appear for the plaintiff and W. T. Muir of Portland and J. E. Sibley of Dallas for the defendants.

SCOTCH VERDICT IN CASE OF OLIVER ERICKSON

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Prineville, Or., May 15.—After 80 hours' deliberation, the second jury in the case of Oliver Erickson, charged with stealing a horse, has brought in a verdict of not guilty. This jury, it is said, believed the defendant guilty but that it should not convict, because some minor points in the testimony were lacking. The moral effect, however, will probably be that of a conviction. The jury in the first trial, held early last week, stood throughout its 24 hours' deliberation evenly divided.

IMMIGRANTS POUR INTO THE KLAMATH COUNTY

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Klamath Falls, Or., May 15.—People are coming into Klamath county in great numbers, the homeseeker, the investor, the business man and the laborer. The stage company and boat operating between this city and Foglans carried about 300 passengers during the month of April. Besides those coming by boat and stage many come by wagon and some by way of

CARUSO IS GIVEN OVATION IN LONDON

London, May 15.—No stigma is fixed on Caruso, the tenor, here in consequence of the recent events in his career in New York. He made his first appearance of the season at the Covent Garden theatre in "Le Bohème" last night and got a reception which is no exaggeration to call a triumph. Caruso was in splendid voice and never sang better. He was repeatedly called before the curtain and cheered tumultuously.
