VOLIVA TO FOUND CITY ON MISSISSIPPI BANKS

(Journal Special Service.) Chicago, May 17.—Followers of Wil-bur Voliva, the usurper of the throne of John Alexander Dowie, were panio-stricken when it became known that in all probability Judge K. M. Landis will appoint Deacon John A. Lewis as Dowie's successor and thus end the self-

Dowie's successor and thus end the-self-apointed rule of Voliva. Descon Lewis was named in Dowie's will as his successor, and if Judge Landis recognizes him as the head of the city Voliva will gather those that are faithful to him, about him, and lead them away from Zion City. It is said he contamplates founding a new colony on the banks of the Mississippi river some place in the south.

tom of Narragansett bay yesterday aft-ernoon, after being submerged 24 hours. All on board were well. The test made by the United States government was successful in every way. This stay of human beings under water is said to be the longest on record. The crews passed the time comfortably, playing games, reading and sleeping. The of-ficers who were concerned with the records of the test, did not-sleep, and when released went immediately to bed. The Lake was connected with shore by a telephone throughout the test, the

His brother, William S. Mason of Bwasston, who did not like railroading and quit the profession, must be satis-fied with a much smaller bequest. George Grant Mason left for New York. He says he shall continue to look care-fully after the fortunes of the St. Paul railway and intends to invest most of his new fortune in that company. "My uncle must have kept a close watch of all of us," said Mr. Mason this evening, "and I believe he favored me because I stuck to work he outlined for me, incidentally making good in the way of earning promotion from time to time."

WOMAN AT ABERDEEN SHOOTS SELF TO KILL

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Abardeen, Wash., May 17.—In her rooms over the Grand saloon Mirs. Teress Dolan attempted to commit sui-cide by shooting herself. Three shots were fired, but only one took effect. A lodger, hearing the shots, investi-gated, and found the woman lying on the floor with the smoking revolver still in her hand. She was taken to a hospital and now lies in a critical con-dition. No reason is given for her at-tempt on her life.
