EXPOSITION RINK SOLD

Rink to Be Operated Next Season by Company of Pifty Portland Young Man.

It will no doubt be interesting to the skate-loving public to learn that the Exposition rink will be operated next eason on a grander scale than ever. Mesars, Honeyman and Murphy, who have owned and operated the skating have owned and operated the skating rink in the Exposition building on Washington street, have disposed of their interests to other young men of this city. It is the intention of the pur-chasers to incorporate a company of 50 prominent young men of the city and operate the rink next season on the same high plane as has been maintained during the past seasons. The rink is to be extensively altered and made one of the safest and finest rinks in the country. The big floor will be extended and a new maple floor laid. The posts will be removed and a new entrance be made direct from Washington street. Honeyman & Murphy just closed their second successful season Baturday

Honeyman & Murphy just closed their second successful season faturday night, and the sale of the rink was consummated yesterday. It is the intention of the new owners to reopen the rink for one week and to hold a big six-days race. The rink will reopen Monday, May 20, for the races. There will be racing every afternoon and evening and general skating before and after the races. Until the fail open-ing of the rink it will continue under the able management of Officer Staple-ton.
