A wild beginning by Pitcher Hoag, a hit in the right spot by Walter McCredie, an ability of Kinsella to pull out of a bad hole and an exceedingly brilliant cate by First Baseman Carson, combined to land Sunday's game on the Beavers' hook. The score was 4 to 3.

The runs were all made in the first two innings, but the excitement didn't stop there, by any means. Several times the Seals came within an eyebrow of the Seals came within an eyebrow of tying the score or worse, and once, in the eighth, there were two men on bases and nobody out. There were other thrilling incidents in this inning, but of them later.

Three hits in the first round sent three of the Seals across the pan, but matters were nearly evened up in the second half. Shinn got out, Hoag walked, Lovett and Casey got his bag on First Baseman Williams' muff of a thrown ball. Then Loag walked Mc-Credie, Mott and Bassey in succession, forcing two runs. Score; to 2. McCredie's Eit Does It,

The Seals went out quickly in the second, but the Beavers stayed awhile Fumbles by Williams and Hoag put Shinn and Lovett on bases. Casey flew out to right, but Shinn and Lovett advanced a peg on the throw-in. Then came McCredie with his opportune sinle over the third baseman's head, Shinn and Lovett ran in and the score

Both pitchers were more or less in the air in the first inning. After that both did great work. Hoag allowed only two hits throughout the game and Kin-sella gave only five. Street came to but with a wicked light in his eye and Kinsella let him take his base on balls. The bases were full with the bat and Murphy and the bat and Murphy expected that the second baseman would hit the ball. The only 4 to 3 in favor of Portland.

Then came the great play of the day, the great play of the week, in fact. Murphy hit a high foul far over toward the right bleachers. Carson, the first baseman, ducked his head and dug his toes into the mud. Nearly 4,000 spectators held their breaths while Carson ran on a d the sphere shot towar, the earth. Portland is a great baseball town, the greatest on earth for its size almost. Who would have expected nearly 4,000 people to brave yesterday's showers and to sit in a cold grandstand simply to be afforded the chance—not certainty of seeing a ball game?

Nothing doing out at the grounds to day. It's Monday, you know; no game and not even practice. Practice in the nud is worse for the nerves than no practice at all, so today the Beavers take a vacation. The Los Angeles agregation, which just beat Oakland to a frizzle in a series of six games, will arrive tomorrow morning and in the afternoon the second week's play at Recrea-tion Park will begin. COURSE MILE AND HALF ON LAKE WASHINGTON

President R. W. Wilbur Returns From Board Meeting at Seattle, Where All Arrangements for the Events for Fourth Are Completed.

The annual regatta of the North Pa cific Association of Amateur Oarsmen will be held this year on July 3 and 4 on Lake Washington. R. W. Wilbur, president of the association, returned today from Seattle, where he went for purpose of attending a meeting of the board of directors.

The directors met Saturday at the Seattle Athletic club and made final arrangements for the regatta. Yester-day they took a trip over the course, a mile and a half straightaway from Madrona park to the foot of Madison street. A. U. Balliette, a former football star of Yale, will act as commodore of the races, & W. Wade will act as vicecommodore, P. E. Hughes will be en-sign, R. W. Wilbur, umpire, and M. M. O'Dell, starter.

Six clubs compose the membership of the North Pacific Association of Amateur Oarsmen, and President Wilbur reports that all have crews in active training. The interest aroused by the intercollegiate race which is to be held at Seattle on May 30 has had the effect of creating much enthusiasm among the oars men and all the clubs expect to be there with a full list of entries. Two clubs from Seattle, one from Portland, one from Vancouver, and from Nelson and one from Victoria will be sented at the regatta. Cups will be given in all the events, but in addition to these there will be other trophies, which are to be provided by the Scattle people. Scattle will also look after the banquet, which will be given to the visiting carsmen on the evening of July 4. The Stanford and Berkeley crews were scheduled to arrive in the sound city today to begin training for the three-cornered race with Washington university on Decoration day. The in-tercollegiate race will be four miles long, one and one half miles of the distance being the same as that selected at the Fourth of July regatta.

Sherwood Nine Beaten.

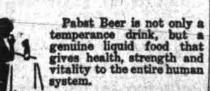

Sherwood, Or., May 20.—By the score of 1 to 0 the Sherwood baseball team met its first Waterloo at the hands of Wilsonville's strong aggregation yesterday. The game was a pitcher's battle start to finish, Baker of Sherwood carrying off the laurels, but a bad throw to first let in the winning run in the fifth inning.

CUBS LOSE TRI-CITY CONTEST TO ST. JOHNS

Game is Played in Suburban Town and Becomes Mad Mud Frolic.

A small crowd of loyal and enthusi-astic fans hoisted their umbrellas and sat out nine innings of mud plugging at St. Johns, Sunday afternoon and were rewarded by seeing the home team show them what real mud larks are. The game was between the St. Johns Blues and the Brainard Cubs and, for the condition of the field, was a good contest. The minor leaguers tried to give the fans their money's worth and performed stunts in the drizzle that would put a major leaguer to the blush. Kotteman was put in for the Cubs to heave 'em over, but he got off on the wrong foot, and after Charlie Moore had swatted one over the fence for a home run and divers other Apostles had connected safely he retired in favor of Olney, who held the Apostles down and stopped the swatfest for several in-

Charlie Moore twirled a good, steady game for the St. Johns bunch and was stingy with the hits. Owing to the nuddy diamond neither infield was able to distinguish itself and several hits were credited that otherwise would been killed. The outfleiders did some tall sprinting after hard-hit balls and did well, considering that the gardens were miniature lakes.

This victory for the Apostles puts them high on the Tri-City percentage ladder and a close second to the Frakes. The morning game scheduled between the Cubs and the Apostles was declared off on account of rain. This still leaves a double-header between the two teams when next they meet. The score in de-
