Republican Managers Plan Game of Smear-Against Mayor's Administration.

WILL THROW DAUBS AT VERY LAST MOMENT

Bosses Shed Tears to Think They Must Resort to Such Methods-Moral Issue Is Slat With Which

Up at the headquarters of the Republican city central committee the tar bucket has been brought forth and its contents are being mixed and made plastic for immediate use, for the Re-publican managers have decided to surprise the community by raising the "moral Issue" and keeping it raised during the remainder of the campaign. From now on, they say, the Lane administration will be bedaubed and be-smeared with great gobs of official in-famy that will put the tenderloin af-fillations of the Devlin candidacy clear and the pale of human ken, Really Hate to Do It. Really Mate to De It.

It is with the same feeling of rejuctance and regret which fills the breast of the chastizing parent that the Republican campaign managers have at last picked up the paddle, so they say, but now that it has been grasped they have bared their right arms and will wield it good and hard. According to Mr. Sherwood, secretary of the committee, it was the desire of the managers that the campaign discussions be agers that the campaign discussions be confined strictly to municipal improve-

The moral issue will be brought out of hiding officially for the first time on Wednesday, May 29, when Mr. Devlin and City Treasurer Werieln will attempt to storm the Lane citadel in Sunnyside with a rally at Hunter's hall. Mr. Werlein will train his guns on the Lane administration and under-take to show that Dr. Lane is as spotted as a leopard. Mr. Devlin will back him and prove that he, himself, has no preliminary hints will be thrown out here and there beforehand just to pre-pare the general public for the grand

Week Tull of Rallies,

At the Lane headquarters there is not such doing except work and the reception of pleasing news. A schedule of meetings has been arranged and from now on every moment will be a busy one. Tonight Dr. Lane and .r. Devlin will discuss east side improvements be-fore the East Side Business Men's club. Priday night Mayor Lane will address the voters of Mt. Tabor and Saturday night it is probable that a rally will be neld at Montavilla, though this has not been determined definitely.

nday, May 27, Dr. Lane and other speakers will address a meeting at Hunter's hall in Sunnyside. Thursday, May 28, a meeting will be held at Albins. Wednesday, May 29, a rally will be held at Artisan's hall, Front and Gibbs streets in south Portland, while held in north Portland at a place yet to be chosen. Friday night, May 31, the Lane campaign will close on east side with a rally at Burkhard's hall, on East Buraside street, while the west side will see the wind up on Sat-unday night at a place yet to be chosen The Republican managers have also Purity in Street Art and Literature.

The regular county institute of the W. C. T. U. was held Tuesday in the Adventist church at St. Johns with a large and enthusiastic attendance. State President Mrs. L. H. Additon was present and delivered an interesting adwith Mrs. Alice Hanson, county president, in the chair.

After the opening devotional exercises Mrs. Ella Himes precipitated a discussion by reading a paper on "Scientific Instruction in the Public Schools." Mrs. M. L. Hidden, in her department, talked of "Purity in Literature and Art." Billboards and what she characterized as liam A. MAYOR LEADS WAY TO NEW SILVERTON better and newer Silverton is the am-bition of the new mayor of this town, Julius C. Wolf, whose inaugural mes-sage to the city council contains this keynote, the public's response to which has been ready and is destined to accomplish things:

"The growing demands of Silverton for better streets, a better sewer system, better fire protection and a larger and better water system are apparent to all. To obtain these we want the united efforts and good will of every citizen for a greater Silverton."

The mayor recommended bonding the city for the construction of a gravity water system. He also recommended that a fire limit be established, a continuance of street improvement and the opening of streets wherever required for the general good. He recommended the taxation of telegraph, telephone and

DIAMONDS ARE MISSING

W. C. T. U. Expresses Views on J. Edward Boeck Trades on His Friendship With Clark and Guggenheims.

> (Journal Special Service.) New York, May 23 .- J. Edward Boeck. "diamond broker" by courtesy, by? an art lover, jowel expert and fri ad of millionaires in fact, has dir ppeared from his office at 170 Broad ay. It is reported that about $250,800 worth of gems which he obtained on memorandum have not been accounted for except in a vague way. The grand jury took action in Boeck's case, and it is understood that an indictment for grand larceny was obtained.

As a friend of former Senator Wilnames he used freely, and whose friendly relations he seemed to prove by as-sertion, Boeck was able to obtain without valuable collateral a fortune in jewels to dispose of to wealthy friends and reputed clients.
It is said that Captain W. E. Dayton, well-known Egyptologist of this city and dealer in precious stones, trusted in Boeck, and that it was through Dayton that the Pinkertons have been notified to look for the missing man.

LOG ROLLING CONTEST ON FOURTH AT CARLTON

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Carlton, Or., May 21 .- At a well-attended meeting at Howe's hall it was decided to celebrate the Fourth of July. Committees were appointed, and work will start immediately, it being the in-tention to make this the biggest celebration ever held in this valley. Several hundred dollars has already been subscribed, and the finance committee expects to raise the amount necessary in a very short time.

Among the features already decided on is the log rolling contest on the pond of the Carlton Lumber company. Good prizes will be hung up for this contest, and it is expected there will be contestants present from all over the state. The full program has not been arranged, but will be announced soon.

AT THE THEATRES

"The Singing Girl." The Marquam Grand, the home of musics omedy, is now recognized as a place when everyone must go at least once a week. This week the attraction is "The Singing Girl" and this is the first time it has been presented in the Pacific northwest and the first time a company has undertaken to produce it at less than $2 prices. The San Francisco Opera company demonstrates that it is one of the best musical organisations in the country.

For the third week of its engagement at the Marquam Grand the San Francisco Opera company will produce that fuscinating musical comedy, "The Strollers." This will be offered next Monday night and all the week. In "The Strollers" the comedians will have a chance to shine and the principals will have a chance to shine and the principals will have a chance of attractive numbers, for "The Strollers" is a semi-comic opera, well written and with a score replete with catchy and high-class music.

"The Strollers."

Baker Company Scores Great Hit. In its presentation of "A Contented Woman" the Baker company has scored another hit and is giving one of the best shows of the season. "A Contented Woman" was written by Hoyt, who wrote so many clever plays. It is admirably suited to the individual abilities of the Baker company which is giving an excellent performance. It is pleasing large crowds.

Seaman Company's Last Week. This is the last week of the engagement of the Seaman Stock company at the Empire and the company is doing what is considered by many as the best work of its engagement. "Wicked London" is the bill and it is drawing large crowds at every performance. It is a melodrama that interests every one.

"The Counterfeiters."

The Allen Stock company is winning new admirers at the Lyric this week in the thrilling melodrama "The Counterfeiters." Miss Verna Felton is seen in a boy's part. All the favorites are in the cast. The stage effects are startling, Matiness Saturday and Sunday. Last time Sunday night. Reserved seats may be ordered by telephone.

"Polly Primrose."

Beginning Monday evening and continuing one week, with matinees Tuesday, Thursday, Saturday and Sunday, the Allen Stock company, with Miss Verna Felton, will be seen at the Lyric in the delightful comedy-drama "Polly Primrose." Special attention will be given to stage effects. Seat sale opens Sunday morning.

"Mrs. Warren's Profession."

"Mrs. Warren's Profession."

Beginning tomorrow (Friday) and continuing for three nights at the Heilig theatre. Fourteenth and Washington streets, theatregears will have an opportunity of witnessing, what has been acknowledged to be one of the biggest successes of the New York dramatic season, Bernard Shaw's "Mrs. Warren's Profession," with Bose Coghlan, supported by her magnificent company, which contains such sterling artists as Lynn Pratt, St. Clair Bayfield, Richard Pitman, Forest Orr, Lucile Stanford. Seats are now selling at the theatre Stanford. Seats are now selling at the theatre

Seat Sale for Henrietta Crosman. Henrietta Crosman will appear at the Hellig theatre next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday nights, May 27, 28 and 29, in the new modern rareical comedy "All-of-a-Sudden Peggy," in which she scored an unqualified hit at the Bijou theatre in New York. By every estimate this is the best play she has had, and ber bet in it overtops all former successes, not excepting "Sweet Kitty Bellairs," and "Mistress Nell," which ran for two years each in New York. "All-of-a-Sudden Peggy" is a witty comedy of today by Ernest Denny. The advance seat sale opens tomorrow (Friday) at box-of-fice, the theatre.

racing is not overlooked in "At the Turf Inn," and "The Waitress and the Cafe Plantst" is a musical sketch in which Jack Connelly shows himself, a wisard on the plane. The Grand bill is a laughter affair.

"Wedded But No Wife."

Bertha M. Clay, the novelist, wrote "Wedded but No Wife," and it won such immense popular or in book form that the story has been definatised and will be seen for the first time. In this city at the Star theatre next week, starting Monday night. With this play Raymond Whitaker and Margaret Pitt, now of the Seaman Stock company at the Empire, will join the stock company at the Star. Seats now selling.
