

CITY MUST BE OUT OF PARTISAN HANDS OF BUFFINGTON TO SUCCEED COREY MRS. MCKINLEY AND ROSE ACTION OF ASSEMBLY KENTUCKY JURY JOE DAVIS WILL GO

Speakers at Portsmouth Meeting Show Why Better Government of Portland Is Obtained When Machine Politics Do Not Rule—Corruption Result of Party Control.

Portsmouth voters met in large numbers last night at Artisan's hall in that district to hear Mayor Lane and Judge Pipes discuss municipal questions. The meeting was presided over by Charles E. Glou, a well-known Republican resident of that part of the city.

Head of the Illinois Steel Company Chosen as Successor to Mabelle's Husband.

(Journal Special Service.) New York, May 22.—E. J. Buffington will succeed W. B. Corey as president of the United States Steel corporation. Mr. Corey's resignation is in the hands of the directors of the company, and it will be acted upon during the month of June.

Widow of President Suffers a Stroke of Paralysis and Cannot Survive.

(Journal Special Service.) Canton, O., May 22.—Mrs. McKinley, widow of the late President McKinley, died today at 10 o'clock of a stroke of paralysis which she had contracted several days ago.

Portland Presbyterians Concur in Decision Made on Temperance Work.

Leading Portland Presbyterians concurred heartily in the action taken by the general assembly of the Presbyterian church at Columbus, Ohio, yesterday, which declared that the permanent committee on temperance should not encroach upon or interfere with the work of the Anti-Saloon league.

Judge Not Guilty of Complicity in the Murder of Marshal James Cockrill.

(Journal Special Service.) Lexington, Ky., May 22.—Judge James Hargis was acquitted after the jury was out one hour of the charge of conspiracy to cause the death of Marshal James Cockrill, who was shot down on the streets of Jackson. A former jury disagreed.

Ex-City Detective Selected to Bring Back Bartender Thompson.

(Journal Special Service.) London, May 22.—J. T. Thompson, wanted in Oregon on the charge of larceny of $750, was remanded for extradition today.

PLANS FOR PERMANENT EXPOSITION COMPLETE

A country club with a great outdoor show ground, large exposition building and complete facilities for a mammoth livestock show is assured for Portland by action taken today at a meeting of leading citizens at the Commercial club.

WOOL GOES TO 22 CENTS TODAY

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Portland, Or., May 23.—Twenty-two cents, the top price for wool today, was received by A. Knotts for 35,000 pounds by Orocot for John Wright of Boston.

WOMAN KILLED AT LINTON BY TRAIN

In attempting to cross the tracks at Linton at 11:15 o'clock this morning Mrs. C. J. Carlson was run down by a through freight and instantly killed. Her body was frightfully mangled.

VALUE OF FINGER PLACED AT $100

Bertha Strang will receive only $100 for the finger which she values at $2,500, according to the verdict of the jury which heard the trial of her suit against the American Can company in the United States circuit court.

ODD FELLOWS CONFER GRAND LODGE DEGREES

Rebekah Lodge Elects Officers for Ensuing Year at La Grande. (Special Dispatch to The Journal.) La Grande, Or., May 22.—This is the second and last day of the fifty-second annual convention of the grand lodge, I. O. O. F., of Oregon.

FRUITGROWERS INCORPORATE

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Boise, Idaho, May 22.—To secure a better market for their produce and to promote the interests of the fruit-growing section in which the reside, the fruitmen of Brooks, Clear Lake and Lake Lahish have formed an organization which has been formally incorporated.

BRITONS WILL CELEBRATE QUEEN VICTORIA'S BIRTHDAY

Queen Victoria's birthday, now called Empire day, will be fittingly observed in Portland tomorrow evening, Friday, May 24, by the British societies, at the Armory, Tenth and Couch streets.

CHEAP RATES TO ROSE CARNIVAL

Cheap rates to Portland have been offered by both the O. R. & N. and the Southern Pacific company during the time of the rose carnival, June 26 and 27.

STOP ALL LEASING OF UMATILLA LANDS

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Pendleton, Or., May 23.—By an order received from the Indian department at Washington all leasing and sale of Indian lands on the Umatilla reservation have been suspended until the new agent arrives and takes charge of the affairs of the reservation.

SON'S LOCATION STILL PUZZLES

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) T. H. Wells, the aged man from Wellsboro, Indiana, who is in Portland searching for his son, has failed to locate the young man. He has been traveling since last December in the hope of finding a trace of the son who left his home many years ago.

REFERENDUM FOR OFFICIALS PASS BILL

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Salem, May 22.—Jacob Vorhees of Woodburn and C. E. Spence of near Molalla filed yesterday two petitions asking for the referendum on the official pass bill and on the Army appropriation bill.

PRESBYTERIANS PLAN TO ATTEND BALL GAME

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Columbia, Mo., May 22.—The general assembly of the Presbyterians is driving to a close. A number of the members plan attending a ball game today.

PORTLAND REALTY ATTRACTS WEALTHY DULUTH INVESTOR

Realty transfers to the value of $71,103 were filed for record yesterday. A majority of the sales recorded was for sums less than $2,000. The largest sale of the day was that by Grace D. Jaeger to the American Investment company of a one third undivided interest in the half block fronting the north side of Flanders street between Fifth and Sixth streets.

SALE OF LOTS ENDS IN LOTS OF TROUBLE

The suit of C. C. Vaughn for $10,000 damages from A. L. Stone for breach of contract is on trial before Judge Fraser in the circuit court today. Vaughn alleges that on July 28, 1906, he entered into a contract with Stone whereby Stone was to give him the sale of a large number of lots at Fairview at a stipulated price.

AGED FATHER CONTINUES SEARCH FOR MISSING MEMBER OF THE FAMILY.

T. H. Wells, the aged man from Wellsboro, Indiana, who is in Portland searching for his son, has failed to locate the young man. He has been traveling since last December in the hope of finding a trace of the son who left his home many years ago.

IRRIGATED LAND SOLD BY JOURNAL ARTICLE

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Pendleton, Or., May 23.—That the Oregon Daily Journal is a good advertising medium is shown by the fact that a short time ago a party of men came from Goldendale, Washington, to Hermiston, the new town in the heart of the East Umatilla irrigation project with a Sunday Journal in their pocket as a guide.

GLENDALE INJURED WILL ALL BE SAVED

(Journal Special Service.) Los Angeles, May 23.—It is now believed the Glendale wreck will claim no more fatalities, as the injured are doing well. There is no clear to the identity of the wreckers. The officers are vigorously prosecuting a search of the surrounding country.

STRANGER HAS NARROW ESCAPE FROM DROWNING

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Oregon City, May 23.—An unknown man fell into the river near the feed barn about noon yesterday, and had it not been for the timely assistance of a couple of men passing in a boat he would undoubtedly have been drowned.

JAPS ACQUITTED IN SHORT TIME

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Tacoma, Wash., May 23.—Just 17 minutes were required by the jury to render a verdict of "not guilty" in the trial of M. Moriysu and T. Nakamura, two Japanese charged with murder in the first degree by killing H. Omote, a countryman. The case was the quickest ever disposed of in Pierce county, considering the gravity of the charge.

YOUNG FORGER IS CAPTURED

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) The Dalles, Or., May 23.—Walter Edwards was arrested 15 miles from The Dalles last evening by Deputy Sheriff Wood for forgery. He had forged checks amounting to $250 and cashed them the day before. He was led in the country on horseback as rapidly as possible. No check was less than $40 and he signed the name W. H. Edwards to them.

REFUSE TO GIVE PENNIES TO PEARY

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Salem, Or., May 23.—The pupils of the Kaleser school located a few miles north of Salem, have changed their minds and will not contribute to the "Peary fund" and believe that they have a better place to spend their money, and that is to enlarge their library by the purchase of several new volumes.

WOULD-BE BANKRUPT SAYS HE IS PLUMBER

Two petitions in bankruptcy were filed in the United States district court this morning. One was that of E. J. Brigham, a plumber of Portland, whose liabilities were placed at $1,340, and his assets at $50; and Clayport Brothers, merchants of Prineville whose liabilities are $5,251.28, and assets $7,893.45, $400 of which is claimed exempt.

HARRY DAUGHERTY IS GIVEN GOOD POSITION

(Journal Special Service.) Washington, May 23.—Harry E. Daugherty of Pennsylvania was today promoted to membership on the Spanish treaty claims committee. The position was recently vacated by Lieutenant-Governor L. Y. Sherman of Illinois.

FIVE COLORADOANS ACCUSED OF FRAUD

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Denver, May 22.—The federal grand jury indicted five Coloradans in the land fraud cases. Their names are not mentioned.

SLAYERS OF BAD MAN ARE FREED AND COUNTRYMEN REJOICE AT THE VERDICT.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Tacoma, Wash., May 23.—Just 17 minutes were required by the jury to render a verdict of "not guilty" in the trial of M. Moriysu and T. Nakamura, two Japanese charged with murder in the first degree by killing H. Omote, a countryman.

TILLAMOOK MAN GETS BIG ORDER FOR CHEESE

A single order for 20,000 pounds of Tillamook county cheese has been placed by R. Robinson of Portland. The price paid was 14 cents per pound, which means from 25 to 37 cents per pound net to Oregon farmers for butter fat.

MRS. MAGENOW AGAIN INDICTED FOR MURDER

(Journal Special Service.) Chicago, May 23.—Mrs. Lucy Magenow was re-indicted today by the grand jury on the charge of causing the death by illegal operation of Lola Maddison of Salt Lake, a sister of Mrs. Anna Bradley, now in jail at Washington awaiting trial for the alleged shooting of ex-senator Brown.

ACID THROWER IN SMALL FINE IN COURT

John Henzeveld, charged by his divorced wife with throwing muriatic acid in her face during a disagreement at Linton last Sunday, was arraigned in Justice Reed's court yesterday afternoon. He pleaded guilty and was fined $25. He said, the fine.

HUGHES ASKS PASSAGE OF RECOUNT MEASURE

(Journal Special Service.) Albany, N. Y., May 23.—Governor Hughes sent an emergency message to the senate today asking the passage of the majority recount bill, recommending that the legislature postpone adjournment till the bill is made a law. The action of the governor is a surprise to politicians, as Haest, in whose behalf the bill was urged, has fought Hughes throughout his term.

TEA Every pound package of Schilling's Best is a free sample, if you don't like it.

Your grocer returns your money if you don't like Schilling's Best, p. 11.