$750,000 BONDS FOR BOODLERS

Calhoun and Others Give Bail on Indictments Returned. More Are Expected Today

News of Grand Jury Leaks Out to Railroads—Officials Knew Several Days Ago That Indictments Had Been Voted—Each Name Separately Voted Upon.

(Journal Special Service.) San Francisco, May 25.—Messrs. Calhoun, Ford, Abbott, Mullally, Schmitt, Glass and Halsey appeared in court this morning and gave a bond on all the indictments returned last night. The aggregate bond is $750,000. Ruel did not appear as he is in custody.

It is expected that additional indictments will be returned this afternoon against Abe Ruel, Mayor Schmitt and several others.

Before the grand jury had completed its work last night, two of the members left the meeting room. Charles Sonntag and Herman H. Young did not take part in the last formalities which preceded the bringing in of the indictments against the officials of the United Railroads.

Sonntag's departure from the council chamber was accompanied by a dramatic incident. While it is asserted that he did not leave in bad temper, he seemed somewhat excited.

Link to Railroads. After Sonntag had left the building, Henny appeared at the jury room and called for Henny, one of Burn's guards. Receiving no answer, he ran down stairs, and finding Henny, asked him to go after Sonntag. Henny then returned to the jury room. Henny returned later without having found Sonntag, who had gone to San Jose.

It has been discovered that United Railroads has been furnished with information of the proceedings of the grand jury in progress of the investigation of the trolley bribery and that officials of the company knew of the voting of indictments against them several days ago. They were also informed at an early hour yesterday afternoon that indictments would be filed before Judge Coffey at 5 o'clock.

The fact that the indictments against Calhoun, Mullally, Terry L. Ford and Abbott were combined in one bill led to the circulation of the report that the grand jury members had refused to bring one of these indictments if it had been considered separately. The fact that each name was separately voted on and that the district attorney's office afterward saw fit to combine them in one bill.

More Sensations Coming. It is said that other indictments of a sensational nature are yet to be voted against men in high places. One of the agencies which the United Railroads will employ to wipe out the carmen's union may be the enforcement of the provisions of the Cady anti-trust law, passed at the last session of the legislature. The measure designed to crush monopolies is possible to be made a weapon in the hands of the corporations. It is claimed that if the Cartwright law withstands the tests of the courts it will deprive organized labor of its strongest arm, the boycott.

Long Association With Maniacs Makes Hospital Engineer Lose His Reason—Becomes Violent and Is Sent to Cell.

(Journal Special Service.) San Bernardino, Cal., May 25.—Long association with maniacs has de-throned the reason of James Haskell, chief engineer of the southern California state hospital at Patton. While performing his duties he suddenly became violent and several of the strongest attendants were required to assist before he could be restrained. He was brought to court and committed to the institution of which he has been an official for 10 years.

Just before being taken into court Haskell recovered his mental equilibrium in a measure and pleaded pathetically to be saved the ordeal of commitment. As the medical board had stated emphatically that, though he might show improvement, it was only temporary, his dementia being of the worst type and as he was dangerous, the court could not do otherwise than commit him. Soon after his return to the asylum he lapsed into violence.

NEW SENSATIONS IN GOULD CASE

Millionaire's Wife Declares Mail Was Tampered With and Post-office Department Probably Will Take a Hand.

(Journal Special Service.) New York, May 25.—Disclosures of a sensational nature are said to have been made to Police Commissioner Bingham by Mrs. Howard Gould, which will assure the continuance of the investigation of the activity of the police department in the family troubles of the Goulds. It is rumored that Mrs. Gould's mail was tampered with and there is a possibility of the postoffice department taking up the matter.

Another report in connection with the Gould case is to the effect that Abe Hummel wrote to Mrs. Gould, while she was being shadowed, and offered her services in having the detectives called off. There is also a story that former Inspector Byrnes had detectives on her trail to establish the fact that she had married George Dawson and had a husband living when she married Gould.

The report that money was paid the detectives for taking up the Gould case may be investigated by the district attorney's office. The fact that the detectives received extra pay for their activity in the case will not conform with Mr. Nicol's statement. He said the police took a hand in the matter because it had been reported to them that a crime had been committed by Mrs. Gould having married a second time when she had a husband living, and that the whole matter was dropped when this was found to be groundless.

Portland Japanese Will Not Be Allowed to Take Out Naturalization Papers Until Authorities Determine Their Color

County Clerk Fields is in a dilemma as to whether Japanese are white or otherwise. Declarations of intention to become citizens of the United States are filed in his office, and he is undecided whether to allow Japanese to make such declarations. His difficulty has been increased by the fact that in other parts of the country, Japanese have

ORCHARD'S CONFESSION NOW KNOWN

Defense Secures Copy and Is Now in Position to Contradict Assassin's Story

New Venire Needed to Complete Jury—Only a Few Challenges Left Each Side—Attorneys for Haywood Jubilant—Dreary Progress of the Case.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Boise, Idaho, May 25.—Harry Orchard's complete confession is at last in the possession of the defense in the Haywood murder trial. This is the worst blow yet sustained by the state and the interests who back the prosecution. The state planned to keep the defense in absolute ignorance of what Orchard would say in order that they would be unable to produce witnesses who would contradict his statements. How the leak occurred is unknown, but the jubilant attitude of Richardson and Darrow indicate that they believe they at last have penetrated the state's armor and are now in a position to protect their clients intelligently.

That the defense outwitted the prosecution in seeing the confession is openly alleged to be the reason of the frequent clashes between Hawley and Darrow. Attorneys for the defense were jubilant when court reconvened this morning over the two decided victories scored Friday. Darrow gained one by having Henry censured by the court for blaspheming the other when, by invoking President Roosevelt's undesirable citizen's letter he eliminated from the box the Lee letter, who although declaring absolute prejudice against the Miners' Federation, seemed determined to qualify.

As soon as court reconvened today, the defense began an examination of Finley McBean. Darrow says it will be impossible to complete the jury from the present venire, and adjournment cannot be avoided.

J. E. Tourtellotte, an architect, was accepted, but the state peremptorily challenged George McIntyre. McBean qualified subject to peremptory challenge. The defense challenged John Whitlock. The defense had three and the prosecution two peremptory challenges left and 16 veniremen remained of the special panel when recess was taken.

TRIAL A DREARY FARCE

Farmers Lie Out of Serring and Postpone Case.

(By Hugh O'Neill, Special Commissioner for Denver Post and Oregon Journal.) Boise, Idaho, May 25.—We take it all back again. Senator Borah takes it back and I take it back and the court that was stern has melted and the man who says he knows anything about this case, prophesies anything or even believes anything is foredoomed and forever. When Senator Borah told me on Tuesday that the jury would be filled on Friday and the trial commenced on Monday he was telling the truth as he saw it. The state was ready to accept any kind of a reasonable jury.

TEN THOUSAND DOLLARS REWARD FOR MRS. GRACE TAGGART AND CHILDREN

SEEK GIRL WHO LEFT HOME WHEN DAD SPANKED HER

Parents Reduce Themselves to Poverty Searching for Daughter Who Ran Away Two Years Ago—Marriage License in Journal Leads to Search Here.

Two years' fruitless search for a daughter who became piqued and ran away from home because of a spanking has been transferred to Portland by the announcement of a marriage license in The Journal. According to the story told by a friend of the family who is in Portland, the girl's parents are John L. Robison and his wife, Lost Valley, Oregon. The girl had disobeyed her father, was spanked for it, and ran away from home in anger.

They were well-to-do when their daughter left them, but have since spent money freely advertising all over the United States for some trace of her. The old home place has been mortgaged and the parents reduced almost to poverty to pay the cost of the long search for the girl.

Recently they saw a Portland paper and in the record of marriage licenses they found the name of Lizzie Robison—their daughter's name. The age, given as 18 years, corresponded to the age of their daughter. The man to whom Lizzie Robison was married is Joseph E. Simpson, who was then living at the Oak hotel. The ceremony was performed on April 6.

Being unable themselves to make the long journey from their eastern Oregon home to Portland, the old couple entrusted to a friend the errand of visiting Mrs. Simpson to learn whether she was their lost daughter.

Inquiry at the Oak hotel led only to another disappointment. For the inquirer was told that Simpson and his bride had moved away, and no one knew where they had gone. It is not known whether the couple are in the city or not, and until they are found, John Robison and his wife will live in the hope that Mrs. Simpson is their daughter.

TAKEN BACK TO NEW YORK

Solomon Miller, Accused of Stealing Money, Watch and Chain From Young Woman Loses Fight Against Extradition

Governor Chamberlain this morning, after hearing the arguments for the defense in the Solomon Miller case, granted the extradition papers asked for, and the defendant will be taken back to New York city to answer to the charge of grand larceny.

For a time this morning it was thought that Miller, who since his arrest here has been out on bail, had escaped from the city. Last night he visited the home of Sam Leibovitch, 422 Third street, with whose daughter, Elizabeth, he has been keeping company, and at 10 o'clock Miller and the girl disappeared. Leibovitch rushed into police head-

LEADS WORLD IN BANK CLEARINGS

Portland Shows a Phenomenal Gain of Sixty-Five Per Cent Over the Corresponding Week a Year Ago.

Again Portland has distanced all the large cities in the world for percentage of gain in bank clearings for the week just closed. The Portland clearing house made a record of $7,717,000, an increase of business 65 per cent over that of the same week last year. Of the coast cities Spokane came next with a gain of 42 per cent, Tacoma with 32 per cent, Los Angeles 21 per cent and Seattle 20 per cent.

Portland's phenomenal record of bank clearings and building operations every week since March 1 has attracted nationwide attention, and is gaining for this city an enviable reputation among investors east and south. There is talk of important additions to the Portland banking fraternity. The Bank of Paris will probably establish a banking house in this city. Two other new banks are considering propositions for opening business here.

The Security Savings bank is out with a new statement following its condition to date. Its growth has been one of the marvels of Pacific coast banking. Today it has total resources of $2,242,611. Its deposits in 1907, $1,192,000, have grown to $5,494,756. It has undivided profits and surplus of $1,777,755. With completion of the Corbett office building at Morrison and Fifth streets the Security will be located in elegant quarters on the corner.
