

THE SADDLE WAS A SUCCESS ONLY FOR THE CAT

Dear Tommy:—Jim has been trying to teach the twins to drive Fido to harness—

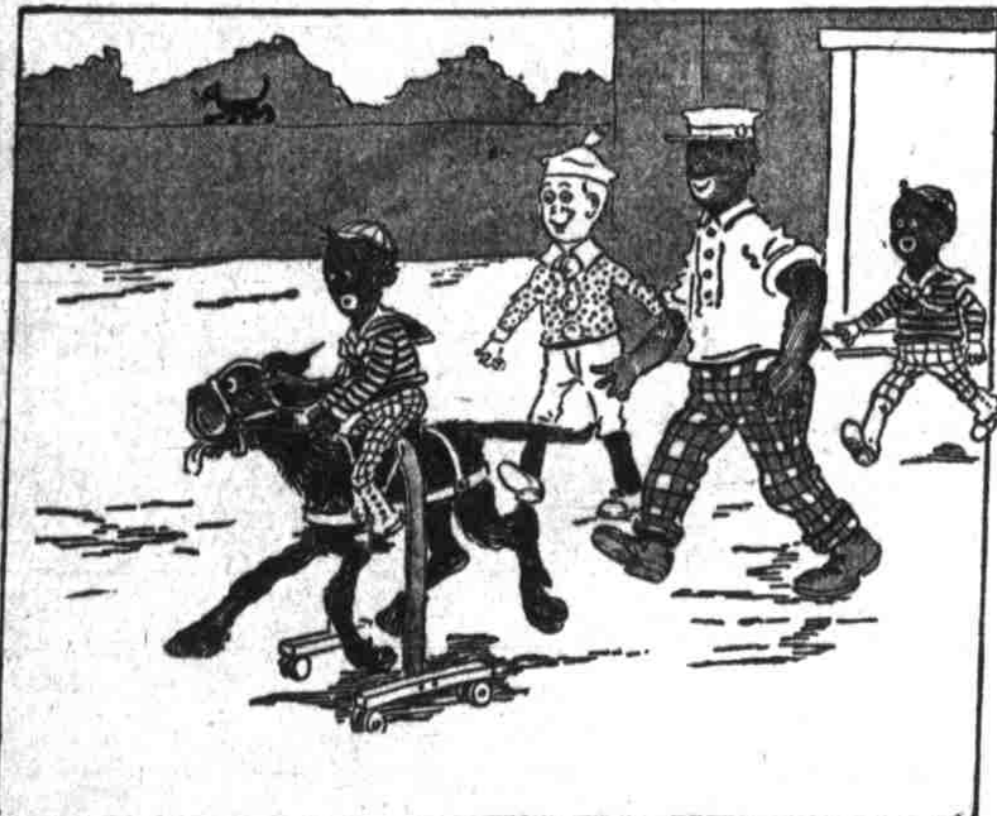

WILLIE WESTINGHOUSE EDISON SMITH, PAT.

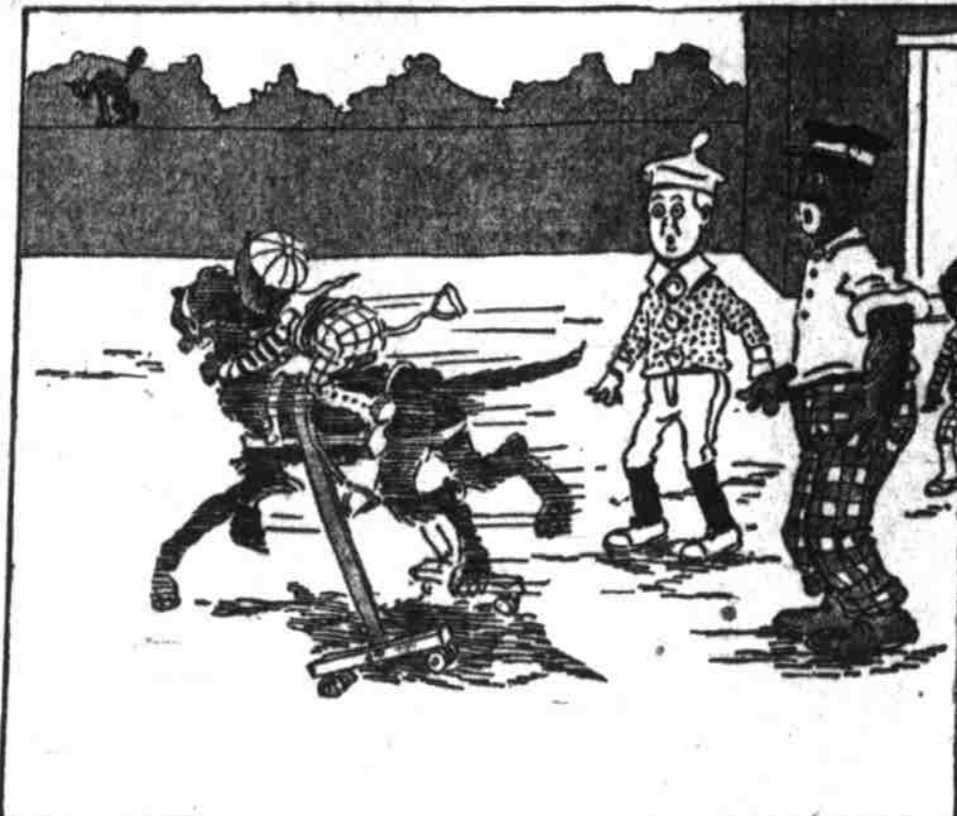

But he couldn't get him to go, so I built a saddle like this.

Then there was no weight on the dog's back and he didn't mind it a bit.

Jim put one of the twins up and Fido started off on a gentle trot.

Just then he saw a cat on the fence and made a wild dash for it.

Little Jimmy fell off and wasn't hurt a bit, but big Jim was half scared to death.

PA'S NIGHTMARE---AND WHAT A TERROR IT WAS!
