The lone score in the second contest was made in the ninth. With two men out Moore threw wild in trying to head off Bliss at second and the catcher ran home as the ball bounded over the turf in the outfield had a hard day of it again and came near being mobbed by the fans in the first game. THE MASK OF HEALTH

Few People Are Really as Well as They Look. Cause and Remedy.
Many people in Portland, both men and women, who believe themselves to be in perfect health, are often in the greatest danger. Indigestion, which is so common a trouble, is the principal cause of the greater share of the general poor health. It has misleading symptoms that seem to have no reference to the stomach, such as headache, sleepless nights, specks before the eyes, pains in the back and side, etc.

LOCAL ATHLETES AT STATE MEET

Four Portland Schools Send Teams to All-Oregon High School Field Day.

THIRTEEN SCHOOLS TO RUN ON COLLEGE TRACK

Mays, Glass, Taylor, Latourette, Hawkins and Other Local Intercollegiate Stars Will Compete in First Meet of Its Kind in State.

Interest in intercollegiate athletic circles is centered this week on the first annual all-Oregon high school track and field day, which will be held tomorrow afternoon on the track and field at Corvallis. The 43 leading preparatory schools of the state will send teams and more than 50 of the best high school athletes in the state will be in competition.

The meet will comprise the 13 regular events and a relay race. It will be held under the direction of the student body of the Oregon agricultural college, and 24 trophies will be given as prizes. The school winning the highest number of points will get a handsome silver cup, and there will be a cup for the high school taking second place.

For the athlete winning the highest number of points there will be a gold medal. In addition the winners of first place will get a gold medal each, and the winners of second places will get a silver medal each.

Portland Sends Athletes.

Four preparatory schools of Portland will be represented at the meet. The Hill Military academy has sent four crack men, Mays, Taylor, Hill and Daly. Mays will probably win the mile and the half mile. In these runs he has no equal in the preparatory schools about Portland. At least Taylor won the high jump, the shot put and the discus throw in last Saturday's intercollegiate meet, and should capture anywhere from 10 to 15 points tomorrow.

The Central academy has sent Glass, Stokes, Williams, Bell, Norris, Gammons, Baird and Cornell. Glass won the 100-yard dash, the 220-yard dash and the high jump on Multnomah field last Saturday, doing the runs in the fast time of 19.5 and 23.5. Baird won the half-mile run last Saturday. Mays being disqualified on account of being coached by a comrade.

West Side High Men.

All the Portland athletes left for Corvallis this morning. The Portland High school sent eight men, Meier, Dart, Brax, Latourette, Hawkins, Woodard, Brodding and McGuire. These are all good men and nearly all of them should capture one or more points. It was by general excellence that the West Side High won the intercollegiate meet last Saturday and it is possible that the same team may carry off the first prize at Corvallis.

Portland High school won the relay race last Saturday.

Her only other firsts were captured in the hurdles, discus and shot put. The sprints and hurdles were easy for Oregon. Old track men who saw today's meet say that the team from the Beaver state is the strongest ever turned out in the west and the strongest turned out by any college this year in the United States.

Summary of events follows:

100-yard dash—Kelly, Oregon; Moores, Oregon; Hall, Washington. Time 10 1-5 seconds.

Shot-put—McKinney, Oregon, 46 feet; Hug, Oregon, and Zacharias, Oregon, tied for second place at 44 5-10 feet.
Oliver O. Cutts is referee and Bruce C. Short is starter. The track was in wretched condition, but the day was fine and the crowd large and enthusiastic. The Oregonians were loudly cheered by the Washington rooters.

Chances of Pendleton.

The Pendleton high school is another of the competitors which has sent what it believes will be a winning team. In Jay, the Pendleton team has one of the best high school athletes in the northwest. His record is: Pole vault, 12 feet 6 inches; high jump, 5 feet 9 inches; broad jump, 19 feet; discus, 100 feet 2 inches; high hurdles, 17 1/2 seconds. He is the star of the tri-state intercollegiate track meet held at Whitman, Washington, and the best all-around man in eastern Oregon.

In A Means, manager, a weight man who puts the shot 40 feet.

Walters, the Island City sprinter, is claimed as the strongest junior athlete in the state, having in the eastern Oregon meet won first place in the 100, 220 and 440 yard dashes.
Thirteen high schools and academies will have teams at the Corvallis meet, as follows: Pendleton, Island City, Bellingham, Union, Astoria, Astoria, Portland high school, East Side high school, Hill Military academy, Portland academy, Eugene, Salem, Rosburg.

Great interest has been awakened throughout the state in the big meet that occurs here Saturday, and every preparation is now complete for entertaining the guests.

Some Other Entries.
The Baker City High school, while it has sent only two men, expects to win 23 points. Robert Kellogg has done 29 feet in the hammer throw, 42 feet 6 inches in the shot put, 101 feet in the discus and 5 feet 6 inches in the high jump. George J. Jett has done the 120 hurdles in 28 1-5 seconds, the 120 hurdles in 19 seconds, has thrown the discus 87 feet 6 inches, has put the shot 38 feet, done 18 feet 3 inches in the broad jump and 9 feet in the pole vault.
The team from the Eugene High school is made up as follows: Kestly, 100 and 220-yard dashes and shot-put; Elmker, 220 dash; Robert E. Kuykendall, 120 hurdles and broad jump; Bean, 440 run; Knox, high jump, and Sweek in the weights.
The Astoria High school team consists of Sidney Sover, Edwin Short, Stanley Young and Percy Tags.
