guests, besides Miss Morrison, were: Miss Dorothy Morrison, Miss Carolyn Burns, Miss Lisa Wood, Miss Hazel Dolph, Miss Genevieve Park, Miss Gladys Weidner, Miss Effie Houghton, Miss Margaret Walter, Miss Margaret Montgomery, Miss Helen White, Miss Florence Williams of The Dalles, Miss Mable Rendell of San Francisco and Miss Mae Whidden.

Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Horace S. Butterfield was hostess to about 200 of her calling list in compliment to her guest, Mrs. J. M. Turney of New York. The rooms were prettily arranged with white Kalamata roses and maidenhair fern in the music room, where Mrs. Butterfield and Mrs. Turney stood in the reception hall where Caroline Test-out roses and the stairway was banked in with sweetbriar. Behind a screen of fishnet interlaced with huckleberry vines the orchestra played. The veranda was enclosed with screens, flags and evergreens and a pretty effect gained with rugs and chairs. Here punch was served by Mrs. H. A. Sar-

Mrs. D. J. Moore, Mrs. A. H. Tanner, Mrs. A. G. Klosterman and Mrs. J. M. Martin.

Mrs. George Davis, Vancouver, entertained a few friends informally Tuesday afternoon at the barracks. Bridge was played under the trees and the prizes were won by Mrs. Henry Nunn and Miss Hoyt. The guests were: Mrs. J. Frank Watson, Mrs. L. Allen Lewis, Mrs. R. Lea Barnes, Mrs. Frank Hart, Mrs. C. J. Reed, Miss Hoyt, Mrs. David C. Lewis, Mrs. William C. Alvord, Mrs. John Eben Young, Mrs. Walter Burns, Miss Williams, Mrs. Charles Hurley of Tacoma, Mrs. Henry Nunn and Mrs. Fred Sladen and Mrs. Weeks of the barracks. The regimental band played during supper.

Miss Helene White was the honor guest Wednesday afternoon at an afternoon of bridge given by Miss Clara Boot for the girls of the younger set. Prizes were given at each of the five tables to Miss Williams, Miss Rush, Miss Miller, Miss Robertson and Miss

THE first week in June, more perhaps than any other in the month, is annually prominent for its wedding. There is no exception. Miss Helene White's marriage to Clyde Hixon Reade will take place Tuesday morning. Wednesday Miss Florence Lillian Loller will be married to Dr. Edward Alfred Marshall at home. The same day a wedding of no less interest will take place, though the principals are both out-of-town people. Miss Mabelle Brents will be married in Walla Walla with an elaborate ceremony to John Robb, and a number will attend the wedding. Mrs. Walter Cook left early in the week to assist the bride, and Mrs. Brent's cousin, Miss Genevieve Thompson, had expected to attend but changed her plans and went east.

The entertaining of the week has been rather small and informal in general. The approach of summer is beginning to make itself felt and there will be little of importance the rest of the season. Many families are making their preparations for their summers away, and several cottages at the coast are already occupied.

Among the dances this week are the H. M. A. hop Friday and the University of Oregon alumni dance Saturday.

A pretty luncheon was given Wednesday at the Portland grill in compliment to Miss Mills Wessinger who leaves Tuesday with her mother for Germany. Covers were laid for 19 and Miss Wessinger's school girl friends made up the party. A miniature vessel, a replica of Kaiser Wilhelm der Grossa, on which the Wessingers sail, formed the centerpiece and blue cornflowers determined the color plan. The menu cards were quaint little Dutch maidens. The party consisted of Miss Wessinger, Miss Ruth Honeyman, Miss Alta Rush, Miss Hazel Robb, Miss Jean Mackenzie, Miss Beckie Biddle, Miss Katherine Powell of Omaha, Miss Celeste Moore, and Miss Lesley Smith.

One of the prettiest dinners of the season was given at the Portland hotel last evening by John D. Coleman, in honor of John Barrett, director of the international bureau of the American republics. The affair was held in the beautiful palm room of the hotel and the decorations and menu were artistic and elaborate. The other guests were Governor and Mrs. George H. Chamberlain, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Patton, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Ideman, Mr. and Mrs. Paul C. Bates, Leslie M. Scott, Miss Judith Scott and Mr. and Mrs. William Rea Jr., of St. Paul.

Miss Marion Jackson entertained informally Tuesday evening with a charming dinner in honor of Frank Dekum. Mr. Dekum, who is visiting his sister, Mrs. T. T. Strain, was a popular member of the younger set when he lived here and now, since he has gone on the stage, is always much entertained on his short visits here.

Miss Leslie Knapp gave a pretty debutante luncheon Friday afternoon, in compliment to Miss Margaret Morrison, whose engagement to Thomas Sharp Jr., was announced last week. All but two or three of the guests "came out" this season, and the Caroline restaurant roses made the pink color scheme. The gent and Mrs. Roswell Lamson.

The mantle and windows in the dining room were banked with Scotch broom and on the tea-table were yellow Marsechal Niel roses. Mrs. James D. Hart and Mrs. Mark Gill poured and Mrs. E. F. Tucker and Mrs. Allen M. Ellsworth served ices. Mrs. Hart and Mrs. Tucker were in pale blue costumes, Mrs. Ellsworth in white and Mrs. Gill in pink and white flowered mull. Mrs. Butterfield wore a handsome costume of blue crepe de Paris, cut empire, with garnitures of white Spanish lace. Mrs. Turney was in rich black satin brocade trimmed with duchesse lace.

Those assisting Mrs. Butterfield as "flowers" were Mrs. F. D. Chamberlain, Mrs. E. F. Geary, Mrs. F. A. Nitchey, Borup. The guests for the afternoon were Miss Maida Hart, Miss Barbara Crocker, Miss Muriel Williams, Miss Helen Brigham, Miss Maud Hahn, Miss Virginia Borup, Miss Miller of St. Paul, Minnesota; Mabel Devers, Miss Margaret Walter, Miss Margaret Morrison, Miss Nan Robertson, Miss Alta Rush, Miss Clara MacEwan, Miss Willie of California, Miss Myrtle Schaffer, Miss Lucile Smith, Miss Grace Nicholson, Miss Inez Cumming and Miss Leslie Knapp.

The announcements for commencement at St. Helen's hall are of a present some interesting features. Next Tuesday afternoon, from 3 to 5, there will be a musical recital of the elementary pupils, with a studio reception and an exhibition of drawings. The following Monday, June 10, "Cinderella," a pretty operetta, will be given by the elementary department in the afternoon, and in the evening there will be a recital by the department of elocution. Tuesday afternoon will be the musical recital and evening the commencement concert. The commencement exercises, with the awarding of diplomas, will take place in the gymnasium Wednesday evening.

Mrs. P. P. Dabney entertained the Fortna beautiful suburban home Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Dabney's roses and the grounds were charming. The house was profusely decorated with Scotch broom and Imperial poppies. Dutch whist was the game for the afternoon. The prize winners were Mrs. P. P. Dabney, Mrs. B. S. Fague and Mrs. George F. Brice. The hostess for Tuesday, June 11, will be Mrs. B. S. Fague of 729 Overton street. Mrs. W. Y. Myers will give an evening function to the club next Friday at her home, 675 East Madison street, with cards and dancing.

The golf tournament last week took many people out to the Waverly links all the latter part of the week. Thursday, Memorial day, there was good attendance, and many staid to dine. The Norman Langs entertained at dinner, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lewis, and Mr. and Mrs. John C. Atkinson. Mr. and Mrs. David T. Honeyman and Mr. and Mrs. David C. Lewis dined together, and a few others dining there were: Mr. and Mrs. Zera Snow, Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Burns and the Percy Blyths.

The society baseball game to be played at the Multnomah club Saturday, June 23, for the benefit of the flower mission day nursery, is attracting much attention and undoubtedly the grandstand will that day be filled with a brilliant assemblage. The bankers are to line up against the lawyers and doctors, and friends are expecting to derive a great deal of amusement from the game, besides seeing some "first-class sport."

The marriage of Miss Helene White, whose picture is shown today, and Clyde Hixon Reade will be celebrated at St. Mark's chapel Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock. Miss White has been entertained informally by her friends the past week in honor of her coming marriage. She is a pretty girl and a popular member of the young set. David Jordan and Arthur Honezmar are to be the ushers at the wedding and Miss Florence Williams of The Dalles will be maid of honor. Robert Kinney will attend the bridegroom.

The Cinderellas sustained their reputation as royal young hostesses at their second dance given Friday night at Murlark hall. A large number of the younger set from Portland academy, Hill Military academy, St. Helen's and other near-by military schools attended. The patronesses were Mrs. Zera Snow, Mrs. J. W. Weidner and Miss Clementine Wilson. The members of the club are young girls, Clara and Leslie Weidner, Caroline and Evelyn Wilson, Eva Jones, Beulah Biddle, Polly Hewitt and Dorothy Holbrook.

The Pan-Hellenic society gave a pretty luncheon yesterday at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Alan Welch Smith. La France roses were used in decoration. The members who attended were: Mrs. George Haskell Marsh, Mrs. J. C. Elliott-Kings, Mrs. Luther F. Steel, Miss Stevora, Miss Alice Benson, Miss Carolyn Benson, Miss Wood Johnson, Miss Jessie Goddard, Mrs. Case of Manila, Mrs. R. L. Donald, Miss Hannah Connell, Mrs. Cross and Mrs. Smith. The meeting was the toastmistress. The society is made up of college sorority women.

The State Congress of Mothers gave a reception at the Portland Friday afternoon, in honor of Mrs. A. A. Burney. Mrs. Alexander G. Mitchell and Mrs. McMill, visiting representatives of the national congress at Washington. About 50 were in attendance, and Mrs. W. J. Honyman presided. The drawing room was attractive with bowls of roses. Many members were received into the congress contingent, and Mrs. Burney's eloquent setting forth of the work, its importance and its possibilities in the solution of child problems.

Mrs. Larabee and her daughters, the Misses Mary, Elizabeth and Susan, left Tuesday for their mountain home, Deer Lodge, Montana, spending the winter in Portland. The Larabees were in Portland several years ago when the daughters attended Portland academy and were prominent in the young social set. They spend their summers at Deer Lodge and have spent most of their winters in the east or in Europe.

A delightful boating party was that given Wednesday evening by the fourth year students of Portland academy to the fifth years, or this year's graduates. A large and jolly company of young people made up the party and they were chaperoned by the women teachers and wives of the men of the faculty of the academy. Refreshments were served and there was music on board.

Miss Nell Willis, the daughter of Judge Willis of California, is visiting at Hill Military academy. She is the guest of Mrs. J. W. Hill and Miss Clara MacEwan. Miss Willis is a pretty, bright girl who made many friends during her visit here two summers ago when her father was one of the California commissioners to the Lewis and Clark exposition.

The Catholic Young People gave a dance at Murlark hall Wednesday night which was largely attended by their friends. The patronesses were Mrs. Frank E. Dooley, Mrs. J. F. Barrett, Mrs. Charles Crocker, Mrs. E. A. Dillon and Mrs. Charles Barnestecker.

Miss Olive Felling, who has been attending St. Margaret's academy in Massachusetts, is expected home this week. She was compelled to give up her work at school this spring because of illness and has been staying with her sister, Mrs. Burpee, in Boston.

Captain and Mrs. William S. Biddle arrived here a few days ago, and are stopping at the Buckingham on Tenth street. For the past four years Captain Biddle has been the military attaché for the embassy of the United States at Berlin.

Miss Liela Shelby leaves this week for a short trip to California. She will be one of a home party at the home of Captain and Mrs. Perkins at Burlingame, who are known for their gay entertaining. Miss Shelby will be gone two weeks.

Mrs. Robert Lewis and her sister, Miss Hoyt, will start east this week for about month's stay. Mrs. Lewis goes to attend her class reunion at Wellesley, June 20 to 25, and with her sister will visit other places until early in July.

Mr. and Mrs. N. D. Simon and their daughter Elsie spent three days of last week at "The Breakers," and report delightful weather. A number of people have already opened cottages and registered at hotels at Long Beach.

The annual tea at the Patton house will be given Tuesday, June 11. A number of the women prominently interested in the home will receive and serve, and a good musical program will be given by W. H. Boyer and his pupils.

Mrs. Fergensbaum and Mrs. Samuel Naphthaly of San Francisco left for home last night. Mrs. Naphthaly is a sister of Mrs. I. Lowengard, who recently died, and she came up at that time to be with the family.

Last week H. L. Pittock, V. H. Leadbetter, Miss Helen Pittock, Miss Georgina Leadbetter, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Bryan and R. E. Williams of Portland were guests at Paso Robles hot springs, California.

Miss Genevieve Thompson has gone east to attend the commencement of her class at Bryn Mawr college in Pennsylvania. Miss Thompson had to leave the class in her junior year because of ill health.

Mrs. Max Fleischner entertained the Whist club Friday at the Concordia club. The prize winners were Mrs. I. N. Lipman, Mrs. Julius L. Meier, Mrs. Charles Feldenhelmer and Mrs. E. Julius Mayer.

Invitations are out for the wedding reception of Miss Ina Lucile Craig and Arthur Leslie Finley to be given by Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Finley Wednesday evening, June 12, at 344 Madison street.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren E. Thomas entertained at dinner at the Hobart Curtis Friday night in compliment to Judge and Mrs. T. G. Halley.

Miss Florence Williams of The Dalles is the guest of Miss Helene White. She will be the maid of honor at the Reade-White wedding Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Doernbecher, Miss Ada Doernbecher and Mrs. Forbes are expected home next week, landing in Seattle Thursday.

Mrs. D. D. Calkins, a prominent society woman of Tacoma, visited last week with Mrs. I. L. Patterson, en route to Walla Walla.

Mrs. J. H. Strickler and Mrs. Allen Percy were at home very informally yesterday afternoon to the friends of Mrs. Howard Strickler. Mr. Howard Strickler came from the Philippines in

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

One of the most pleasant card parties of the season was this one given by Mrs. J. M. Woodworth of 548 East Pine street on May 22, in honor of her cousin, Miss Helen Dostal of Calmer, Iowa, who is visiting on the coast for the summer and who spent a couple of weeks in this city.

Those present were Joseph Ellis, Percy Settlemier, M. O. Wilkins, Edward J. Minar, Jack Duffy, Fritz Abendroth, the Misses Helen Dostal, Sadie Settlemier, Kattie Nolan, Cora Jolly, Gladys Chamberlain, Inez Jolly, Kattie O'Brien and Hattie Jolly, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Henry, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Woodworth.

Fruit punch was served during the game and a delightful luncheon afterwards. Military whist was the game of the evening and souvenir prizes of cream pitchers and stoves were won by Miss Dostal, Miss Inez Jolly, F. Abendroth and J. Duffy. The house was a bower of evergreens, dogwood blossoms and roses.
