To Let Buyers—Lots in the beautiful new addition to Irvington, lying between Thompson and Brage streets and East Seventh and East Thirtieth streets, are now on sale. This property is, without doubt, the finest residence property for the price on the east side. All lots are 25 by 125 feet in size, cement sidewalks, curbing and parking in front of every lot throughout the tract, shade trees all in and growing, streets are being newly macadamized and Thompson street is being laid with bitumith pavement; sewer, gas and water pipes laid throughout the tract, and many one buying one or more of these lots will have nothing to do but start to build, as all improvements are in and included in the purchase price. There are building and other restrictions in Irvington, which tend to make it the most desirable location now on the market. Why buy in the addition where there are no improvements, and the only surety you have of the same is a promise? Take any Union Avenue car to Eugene street and walk one block east, or take the Irvington car and ride to Fifteenth and Tillamook streets, and then walk one block north and one block west. Remember, it costs you just the same to build your home on a cheap lot as on one of these good lots, where all improvements are in and where the restrictions are such that your property will be benefited. For prices, terms and plans, with full particulars thereon, inquire of Charles E. Henry & Son, 132 Third street, Portland, Oregon.

The May number of the Board of Trade Journal issued yesterday possesses an artistic rose cover in honor of the Thru-Jack Bunt. It will be given this month on the field of the Multnomah club. It will be a children's fête, and the receipts will go to charity for children. The story, which is found even in the picture writings of forgotten Egypt, has been set to music by Jessie L. Gaynor and has proven a huge success in many countries.

An out-of-door opera by the Institute club of the People's institute, "The Rose of the Desert," will be given this month on the field of the Multnomah club. It will be a children's fête, and the receipts will go to charity for children. The story, which is found even in the picture writings of forgotten Egypt, has been set to music by Jessie L. Gaynor and has proven a huge success in many countries.

Henry Lawrence Southwick, dean of the Emerson School of Oratory, Boston, will give a recital for the Women's club the evening of June 5. "The Rivalry" is to be given as a special request. Mr. Southwick is one of the foremost orators and interpreters before the public, and this opportunity to hear him promises to attract a large audience.

It is a fact that the Unique Tailoring company gives the best value in the city for the money. We carry one of the largest stocks in the city and give you your choice of any pattern made to order for $25. No more, no less. Keep up a good appearance. It will help you in your business, and the best and cheapest way is to join the Unique Dressing club. Wear a suit of sponge, press and deliver back to you one suit of your clothing each week, and give you eight shoe shines a month for $1 a month. Main 514 or A4314. Unique Tailoring Co., 309 Stark street.

Do you want to know where you can have a suit made that will more than satisfy you in every detail—one you will enjoy wearing from the moment you put it on—and one that will keep its good looks and good shape as long as you wear it? The answer is, J. C. Schaefer & Co., Merchant Tailors, 323 Washington street.

Water through hose for sprinkling yards or sidewalks or washing porches and windows must be paid for in advance and used only between the hours of 8 and 5 a. m. and 8 and 9 p. m. It must not be used for sprinkling streets. If used contrary to these rules, or wastefully, it will be shut off.

The regular meeting of the board of trade will take place Tuesday evening at the chamber of commerce. Several manufacturing propositions have been received and will come up for consideration, among which is a proposal to establish in Portland a watch case factory.

Webfoot camp No. 65, W. O. W., re-elected the following officers for the ensuing year: Frank Motter, consul commander; Dr. Herman J. Harris, advisor; Lieutenant; G. Reynolds, escort; R. G. Morrow, press; W. C. McIntrye, inside guardian; Peter Brown, secretary.

Treat for literary folk—"The Rivalry"—Thursday evening, June 5, W. O. W. hall, Tenth and Taylor, by Henry Lawrence Southwick, dean of Emerson School of Oratory, Boston, under auspices of Women's club. Tickets 75c, on sale at Woodard Clarke and Co.'s.

Eugene Hartstien of Milwaukee thought so well of Portland from printed matter sent him by his brother, Leo Hartstien of the Jones Cash Store.

PORTLAND'S BEAUTIFUL ROSES FORM DISPLAY FOR TRAVELERS

The window display of roses made yesterday by W. A. Storey at Woodard, Clarke & Co.'s attracted many pleased spectators. Mr. Storey's roses are of the finest and are gathered in great armfuls with long stems and abundant foliage so that they show Portland's roses at their best.

The central feature of the display is the great bowlful of Frau Karl Druschki, glorious creamy white and perfect in shape; rivaling this is the showing of Caroline Testout, the large clear rose United flowers which attain such perfection in our city. Some of the others are less familiar, and many persons have taken note from Mr. Storey's choice and resolved to plant the same varieties.

The beautiful shape of the Liberty buds makes it a desirable variety, and the fine coloring of the Frans Deegen and the Souvenir de Pierre Noting attract notice, because such yellows are less common and are always much admired.

For those in the white-to-pink shades, nothing could be finer than the Mildred Grant and the Florence Pemberton, the first named of which, although still a bud, shows a spread of at least six inches.

STRAWBERRIES FOR VISITORS

Terrace Park Invites You to Make the Test Today—Take the "M. V." Car.

There will be heaps of innocent fun today at Terrace park. The Stanton company has not allowed any strawberries to be picked in Terrace park for a whole week, so that everybody may have a chance today to gather with his own hands all he wants to eat.

It will be lots of fun to gather your own dessert from the fields. It's getting close to nature. The Terrace park management guarantee plenty of sugar and cream, and for the ladies carriages are in waiting to take you about the tract. Take the "M. V." car at Second and Yamhill.

Fourth Ward Voters.

All good citizens that want a man who will be faithful and conscientious in discharging the duties of councilman in the interests of the whole people, and who has been a property owner and taxpayer for 24 years, will vote for Fred C. King, independent candidate for councilman.

DEDICATE NEW CHURCH TODAY

Services to Be Held at the Estacada Methodist Episcopal Church.

The Estacada Methodist Episcopal church will be dedicated with elaborate services today. Rev. Clarence True Wilson will preach the consecration sermon at 10:30 a. m. At 3 o'clock this afternoon, a platform service will be held presided over by T. S. McDaniel, B. Lee Faget, W. I. Clemens, John F. Carroll, P. B. Alkin and others will make three minute addresses.

Rev. O. T. McPherson.

people at 7 p. m. and D. B. F. Bowland will deliver the closing sermon at 8 p. m.

Rev. John Flinn and other prominent ministers will take part in the exercises.

The pastor, Rev. Charles T. McPherson, will have charge of the entire exercises of the day.

The church that is to be dedicated was built at a cost of about $4,000. The congregation has also built a $2,000 parsonage. The entire value of the church property is estimated at $16,000, all of which has been raised by private subscription since the pastor, Rev. C. T. McPherson, took up his residence there last September.

NEWSPAPER WRITERS TO CROSS BATS TODAY

On account of a misunderstanding the third game of the "Pencil Pushers" league between The Journal and Telegram will not occur at league grounds. Instead the game will be played at Twentieth and Raleigh streets at 9:30 a. m. today. This will be the most interesting game of the series, and as many simoleans have been staked on the outcome, possibly that is the reason that there is no more election money in sight.

ELABORATE PROGRAM AT UNITARIAN CHURCH

At the vesper services at the Unitarian church this evening at 8:30 o'clock the following music will be offered: Voluntary, "At Evening" (Buck); anthem, "Softly Now the Light of Day" (Schilling); anthem, "Bavior, When Night Invades the Skies" (Shelley); Berceuse, "Jocelyn" (Godard); duet, "Passes to the Sacred Dwelling" (Smith); anthem, "Out of the Deep" (Lansing); "Nunc Dimittit"; "Recessional," Hammer.

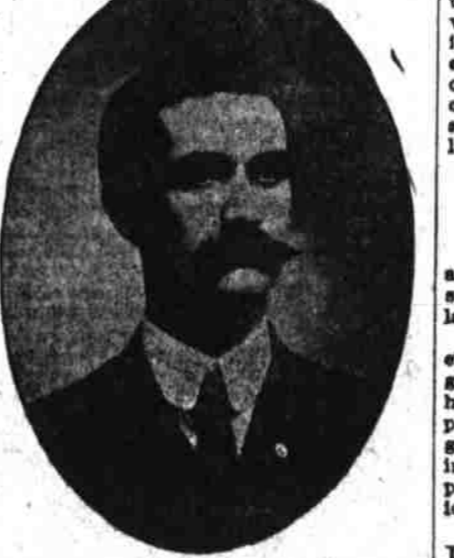

Where to Dine.

Watson's Restaurant will serve a fine chicken dinner today, 50 cents.

Death Due to Malady.

After a three weeks' illness with cerebro spinal meningitis Oscar Larson, 37 years of age, died at St. Vincent's sanitarium yesterday morning. Larson is the thirty-second person to succumb to the malady since it began early in May.

L. M. Davis, 29 on ballot, stands for pure home influence.

FRED C. KING

INDEPENDENT CANDIDATE FOR COUNCILMAN FOURTH WARD

Was born at Portland, Michigan, in 1872. His parents moved to Kansas in 1873, where Mr. King was raised on a farm, coming to Portland in 1888, where he has since resided. He has been a property owner and taxpayer for 14 years, and he will have the support of all good citizens who want a greater and better Portland.

POPULAR WOMAN WILL GO EAST

Louise Kent of Baker Stock Company to Play Leads in Minneapolis.

Miss Louise Kent, who has won great popularity during her brief engagement with the Baker stock company, has accepted a flattering offer from Daniel Frawley to play leads at the Metropolitan opera house in Minneapolis during the summer.

Miss Kent will leave for that city at the conclusion of the Baker season, which terminates next Saturday night. "Never Again," the bill this week at the Third-street house, will be the last production of the Baker stock company this season.

Miss Kent's return to Portland next fall in the capacity of leading woman is said to be highly probable. Since the departure of Miss Lillian Lawrence Miss Kent has been taking the leading feminine roles and has aroused unlimited enthusiasm. Previous to that time she came so closely upon the heels of the leading woman in point of popularity that no little managerial diplomacy was necessary at times to prevent friction.

Miss Kent came to this city from Atlanta, Georgia, where she was leading woman with the most prominent stock company of that city. She has also been leading woman with stock companies in Hartford, Connecticut, at the Empire theatre in Boston and at Robinson's in Cincinnati.

Her popularity has increased wonderfully until all Baker patrons are her admirers. They have begun an insistent and clamorous appeal to Manager Baker for the assurance of her return to this city next season. Mr. Baker will probably announce this week those of the present Baker company who will return next fall.

Miss Kent, by the way, is from Louisville, Kentucky, where she began her stage career. And it is from that city and state that she took her stage name.

"Louise" Kent is merely an abbreviated form of Louisville, Kentucky, in private life her name is Miss Whipple.

ALL PORTLAND WOMEN INVITED TO ATTEND
Musical With Historical Features Will Be Held at Y. W. C. A. Rooms Today.

The Young Women's Christian association this afternoon from 4:30 to 6 will give a free musicale of unusual interest, which all women are cordially invited. The following program will be rendered:

Violin solo, George Wuest; contralto solo, "Rock of Ages," Miss Eleanor Kurth; soprano solo, selected. Miss Grace Campbell; Male quartet, Misses Willard, Richard, Hockenberry, Struett; "Sweet Hour of Prayer," Miss Madge Hill; violin solo, George Wuest; baritone solo, George Street; "Just as I Am," Miss Klump; mezzo-soprano solo, Miss Meta Brown; "Jesus, Lover of My Soul," Miss Goldsp; baritone, Lacey Wisdom; "Lead, Kindly Light," Miss Ledyard; "Abide With Me," Miss Harding; piano solo, Mrs. Lacey Wisdom; "My Faith Looks up to Thee," Miss Sarah Case.

A unique feature will be the telling of the history of each of the well-known hymns before it is sung. Friday evening the various committees of the educational department and the teachers of the Y. W. C. A. were entertained at the home of Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett, when reports were given of the past year's work. In all classes the total enrollment for the year was 263, which is considered very good, indeed, in view of the limitations of the present Y. W. C. A. quarters and of the means at the disposal of the association.

Following are the educational branches taught and the names of those in charge: Millinery, Miss Mabelle Eggerman; shirt waists, Miss Anna Somerville; dressmaking, Miss Evangeline Sprague; plain sewing, Miss Margaret Calkin; drawing and designing, Miss Roma McKnight; English for foreign girls, Mrs. M. B. Hogue; elementary English, Miss Mary Day; literature, Miss Gertrude Metcalf; expression, Mrs. Emma Gillespie; mandolin and guitar, Professor Regabillati; German, Frau Margaret Belcker.

Miss Roma McKnight is to go east soon for three months' study of arts and crafts, and on her return expects to take charge of a course of instruction in this line, including classes in making belts, card cases, book covers and other things from the students' own designs and with their own hands. A class in clay modeling will also probably be undertaken.

Miss Mary Day, the associate-general secretary of the association, is now in the east looking into the educational work of the large associations, such as in Detroit, where over 2,000 pupils are enrolled. It is expected that the work of the educational department for the coming year will be much in advance of anything so far undertaken by the Portland branch of the association.

PERSONAL

"The Eilers Way"

The House of Highest Quality

The Keystone to Satisfactory Piano Purchasing

The inducements offered to the piano-seeker by the House of Eilers, are indisputably greatest. First, choice of the best makes in the world—more than thirty, every one worthy of critical inspection; second, better pianos for less money; because of our commanding position in the trade resulting from a control of the largest business in this line enjoyed by any one firm in America, which gives us an advantage in buying over all other houses; also, because of our superior shipping, handling and distributing facilities, combining the cooperation of our twenty-six stores, which completely reach all the territory from California to Alaska and the Rockies to the coast; third, the satisfaction of knowing that there is but one price, the same to all alike (and that always the lowest); fourth, the most attractive exchange feature, which enables one to purchase an instrument of moderate cost with the privilege of later buying a better one and securing the most liberal allowance for the used one; fifth, the easiest terms, arranged upon the most convenient plan, so that anyone may enjoy the luxury of a piano, playing as they pay; and finally, a guarantee that assures permanent pleasure.
