

PREFERRED MARRIAGE TO LONG TRIP ABROAD

Wealthy San Franciscoan Upon Attaining His Majority
Speeds Across Continent Abandoning European Tour
to Claim Handsome Portland Woman as Bride.

Marie C. Hurlbut.

(Journal Special Service.)
San Francisco, June 5.—Leon A. Kutner, of Fresno, youngest son of the senior member of the mercantile firm of Kutner, Goldstein & Co., which has stores and warehouses all through the San Joaquin valley, attained his majority yesterday and he celebrated the event by cutting out a maternally planned European trip, hurrying all the way back from New York and securing a license to wed beautiful Miss Marie C. Hurlbut of Portland, Oregon. So much for plans, meeting and the fact that Leon Kutner was just 21 and his prospective bride 22.

The young couple secured a license and then went to the Lafayette apartments, where the young man's mother lives, where Kutner planned to have the ceremony performed.

But when the young couple sped out there with their license to marry, they found the bride's future mother-in-law ill and not ready for any sudden wedding of her young son, whom she supposed was safely off on his way across the Atlantic.

After a long family conference at the mother's bedside, it was finally agreed that the wedding might take place, about a week later, but that in the meantime the fascinating bride-elect should return to her Portland home, the engagement should be formally announced in San Francisco, Portland and Fresno, and then Miss Hurlbut should return and the marriage be regularly performed. So Miss Marie C. Hurlbut occupied Kutner apartments at the majestic annex last night and prepared to depart for Portland this morning.

Miss Hurlbut has been visiting friends and relatives in California in and around San Francisco, Oakland, Berkeley and Fresno for several months past and through acquaintances she met

HE FELL IN LOVE WITH HER VOICE

Pretty Hello Girl Captures a Prominent Pittsburg Millionaire.

(Journal Special Service.)
Pittsburg, June 5.—Cora Dugan, a pretty telephone girl of Hotel Newell, and V. J. Minehan, one of Pittsburg's millionaires, were married yesterday and are in New York on their honeymoon trip. Minehan is president of the Horseshoe and proprietor of one of the biggest bottling establishments in Allegheny. The bride is 18 years old. The bridegroom has for years boarded at the Hotel Newell, but his courtship lasted less than six months. He first fell in love with Miss Dugan's voice, as he did much business through the phone connected with his apartments. He sought out the owner of the sweet voice and although more than twice her age, ardently pressed his suit.

Minehan is proud of his bride and first hurried her off to show his parents, living near Johnstown. He has bought a place in the east and for her.

New Building at Chehalis.
(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Chehalis, Wash., June 5.—A few weeks ago John West, a pioneer Chehalis avenue merchant, suffered from a fire which destroyed most of his store. The council gave him permission to temporarily repair a part of his building, and this week he has begun excavating for a fine new two-story brick block, 60x100 feet. Councilman John Denhot is building a fine $3,500 residence on Pennsylvania avenue and West street. Much other building is going on in various parts of the city.

Rosenthal & Co., Portland, Or.

Dear Sirs: Our last shipment to Messrs. Olds, Wortman & King was OCTOBER 16, 1905; amount of purchase $440.00.

We have not sold shoes to any other concern in your city since we arranged with you to act as our exclusive agents. Very truly yours,
Dict. by S. SLATER & MORRILL, Inc.

The above letter explains everything. We leave it to our friends and patrons to judge for themselves. EVERY SHOE in our stock has been carefully selected and chosen for quality and price. WE CARRY NO OLD GOODS. ROSENTHAL'S was never a cut-price store. In this house COST bears a definite relation to the selling price. It was never our idea of fair dealing, either to the manufacturers or to our customers, to take some popular shoe and by selling at cost, or less, seek to give the impression that we were underselling all others.

Our idea of a SQUARE DEAL is to give every customer his MONEY VALUE; to make prices as low as possible in the first place.

Our fair, square and liberal policy has become notable enough to make ROSENTHAL'S the most-talked-of store in the City of Portland, and our mail orders include Seattle, Spokane and all parts of the northwest.

Be fair to yourself by INVESTIGATION.

We cannot afford to disappoint you, but will give you the PROOF that nothing but MERIT keeps us busy.
