Jurors All Good American Citizens-Justice to the Prisoner Assured.

NOT HIGHLY EDUCATED BUT HARD-HEADED

Sober, Industrious Men of Character With Good Heads for Facts-All Believe in a Square Deal-Jury House Comfortable.

By Hugh O'Neil, Special Commissioner for the Denver Post and Oregon Jaur-

Boise, Ida., June 5.-Now comes Alfred Eoff, ex-banker and good citizen of Boise, to say what he thinks about the Haywood jury. Mr. Eoff is a credible gentleman, speaking with first-hand knowledge. He was a member of the jury three days before it was completed. He was called on Friday afternoon and ok his seat just before court adjourned for the day. His sequestration for the night in that way was considered by night in that way was considered by his friends to be rather a joke. They quite took it for granted that the disqualification of Eoff would take but a few moments.

"Catch him," they said, "serving on any jury. He loves his comfort too much. They're sleeping two in a bed over there in the jury house. And second, Alfred is a man of leisure, loving his little luxuries. When he's examined you'll see him develop an 'unqualified opinion' that no evidence can remove. Or else he'll find that he has very strong conscientious scruples against strong conscientious scruples agains capital punishment."

What Eoff Beally Found.

And when court reconvened on Monday morning Mr. Eoff proved his friends to be just as wrong as every other prophet has been throughout this case. He was qualified by the prosecution. He was qualified by the defense. He was clearly a just and fair man, who would give the accused a proper trial and reach a decision on the law and the evidence. But the defense exercised its last peremptory on him, not because they doubted his fairness, but because they doubted his fairness, but because they thought his opinions would have too much weight with the other jurors.

So Mr. Eoff was released from the service, he did not seek, but was too good a citizen and too honest a gentle man to evade. And this after three days' living with them is what he thinks of the jurors: What Boff Beally Pound.

days' living with them is what he thinks of the jurors:

"They are very honest-minded men, very independent and thoroughly American in their point of view. They won't find Haywood guilty unless the evidence against him is overwhelming. They are very conscientious. All the time I was there we never discussed the case in any way. No reference was made to it. We took our walks and we sat about the grounds of the jury house and the jurors were visited occasionally by their wives and children and I studied them carefully. The more I saw of them the more I liked them.

All Are Americans.

All Are Americans. "They are sober, industrious men of character. They are not highly educated, but they have good heads for facts and but they have good heads for facts and they are above everything very Ameri-can. Even those two Scotchmen, Mc-Bean and Robertson, are that. And by "American" I mean the sort of Ameri-cans who have made the middle west. Sentiment won't have much effect on them. They are armed by indifference to rhetoric. But they will listen care-fully to the evidence and sort out facts fully to the evidence and sort out facts from fiction and see to it beyond everything else that Haywood has a square deal. And a thoroughly square deal.
They will do their own thinking. They won't give it out to be done for them by counsel on either side. They are a fine lot and Haywood will get justice
from them."

from them."

Mr. Eoff said also that they were very comfortable in the jury house. The food was good and well cooked. The sleeping rooms are large and airy. The comfort of the jurors has been thoroughly provided for by Sheriff Hodgins.

PROSPECTOR SELLS DESERT CLAIMS

Spokane Man Purchases a Property the Miner Was Laughed at for Working.

(Journal Special Service.)
San Bernardino, June 5.—Marcus Pluth, desert prospector, who has never been anything but penniiess, has closed a deal for the sale of 10 claims, eight miles from Amboy, on the des-ert, for $135,000, the purchaser being Harry M. Glidden, a millionaire mining, man of Spokane. For years Pluth has been doing assessment work on these claims. He was laughed at by some ospectors, who could see nothing of value in the group.

ospectors, who could see nothing of value in the group.

Last April Glidden's experts were attracted out of curiosity to the property. They were at once interested and spent a month experting and as a result of a favorable report, Glidden willingly put up the cash.

FRANCE IRRITATED OVER NEW TARIFF

(Journal Special Service.)

Paris, June 5.—Secretary Root's circular, which was communicated to the United States consular representatives abroad, notifying them of certain changes in the customs regulations to take place beginning July 1, are not likely to satisfy French exporting interests, which insist that France is unwilling to be put off with changes that "in a certain measure" ameliorate the tariff difficulties between two nations. Irritation caused by favors extended to German champagne is increased by the fact that there is no definite news as to whether the special tariff commission demanded by both American and French business men here will be appointed. MRS. DE PASSE OF NEW YORK CITY

I Consulted Several Physicians, but they Did Me No Good. Pe-ru-na and Man-a-lin Helped Me."

Mrs. Aline DePasse, 776 E. 165th St., New York, N. Y., writes:
"It gives me pleasure to testify to the curative qualities of Peruna and Mana-"I was afflicted for over seven years with caterrh of the send, throat and digestive organs. I consulted many physicians, but they did me no good.

"One day I happened to read some testimonials in your Peruna almanac. I decided to try Peruna and Manalin. I bought a bottle of each, and after tak-ing them for a week I noticed a change for the better. So I kept it up, and after using twelve bottles I was per-fectly cured.

"I also gave the medicine to my children and they had the same beneficial result. I would never be without these remedies in the house.

"I highly recommend Peruna and Manalin to all my friends, and in fact to everybody." Miss Mildred Grey, 110 Weimar St. Appleton, Wis., writes:

"It gives me pleasure to recommend Peruna for catarrh of the stomach. I had this disease for a number of years, and could not enjoy a mouthful of food that I ate. It was indeed a great relief when I hit upon Peruna, and obtained decided results from the first. I took six bottles before I felt entirely cured of my trouble, but I had an aggravated case."

Motor Car Manufacturers Start Agitation for Continental Highway.

(Journal Special Service.)
New York, June 5.—At the semi-annual meeting of the board of managers of the Association of Licensed Automobile manufacturers, the good roads question was thoroughly discussed, and steps taken which may eventually establish a national road clear across the continent. Speeches in favor of the good roads movement were made by E. R. Thomas, S. T. Davis Jr., Albert L. Pope, Thomas Henderson, R. D. Chapin and H. A. Gillis. Thomas Henderson expressed himself in a particularly optimistic manner, declaring his belief that a great highway from New York to San Francisco would be constructed, if agitation for improved roads was properly carried on. He said he was in favor of any movement to establish a national highway connecting the east with the West.

The board appropriated $5,000 to be used at the discretion of the good roads committee, to be appointed later, which will work with like committees representing the American Motor Car Manufacturers' association and various motoring bodies throughout the country. of the Association of Licensed Automo-

The parents, being refused interment in the cemetery, dug a grave on their own property and after a short funeral service in the Science church laid the body there.

County Coroner Martin was out of reach that day but there was some hint that death had possibly been caused through diphtheria. A. Schortgen and W. A. Wilson filed complaint praying the coroner to investigate the "sus-the coroner to investigate the "sus-picious death and illegal burial of Rowland Barrows."

The mother was the first witness at the inquest. She testified that Rowland had been sick three weeks, furing which time he was treated by Mrs. Rhodes. She stated that she had graduated as a nurse and was satisfied that medical treatment would have killed the boy long before the time of his death under Christian Science treatment. About a dozen more witnesses were examined and the evidence was such that the jury decided that the remains should be taken up and an autopsy held.
