

BOYS HAD GOOD TIME

Juvenile Court Wards Enjoyed Themselves Immensely at Picnic Up the Willamette River as the Guests of Judge Frazer.

On a special car donated by the street car company 35 wards of the juvenile court, in charge of Judge Frazer and several court officers, went to a shady grove on the Willamette river above the Oaks yesterday afternoon to enjoy velope and takes it to Judge Frazer. In the presence of all the boys the reports are opened and read. The reports read yesterday indicated that there has been a general improvement in the conduct and studiousness of the boys who are on probation, and Judge Frazer expressed himself as being greatly encouraged at their progress. They were taken on the picnic as a reward for their good behavior and regular attendance at school.

THIS MAN ESCAPES MANSLAUGHTER TRIAL

Hans Holt, Who Delivered Blow That Later Caused a Death Was Justified.

Hans Holt, who was charged with killing Henry Robinson with a blow of his fist, will not have to answer to the court for the act. The district attorney yesterday afternoon filed in the circuit court a "not true information" in the case, and Holt was released from the county jail.

GOES TO EUROPE TO BUY WOMEN'S GOWNS

Olds, Wortman & King Send Miss Bernard to Paris and London.

Olds, Wortman & King have sent their best buyer of women's suits, Miss Bernard, to Europe to study the fashions in London, Paris, Berlin and, enroute, in New York. Miss Bernard left Portland last Thursday for New York city, from where she sails for Europe the 18th. Miss Bernard will be gone seven weeks. Depending on her wide knowledge of the needs of Portland women and of the great fashion centers, the ladies of this city are sure, on her return, of being able to buy to as good advantage in Portland as they could in any of the old world cities or in New York.

To send a garment buyer direct to Europe is only another evidence that Portland is rapidly becoming the fashionable center of the Pacific coast. It also speaks wonders for the firm that Miss Bernard represents. Her return and the gowns she brings with her will the picnic that was postponed in May on account of rain.

A huge box filled with sandwiches and other good things to eat had been prepared and was carried to the car with gentle care by several of the larger youngsters. Two baseball teams organized by Probation Officer Nisley from probationers under his care went along and played a game for the entertainment of the others. Swings were placed under the trees to add to the enjoyment of the younger boys.

The party started immediately after Judge Frazer at the courthouse had finished reading the reports from school teachers all over the city telling how the boys had studied and behaved themselves during May. It is the custom in the juvenile court when a boy is reported for wrongdoing to place him on probation under the care of one of the probation officers. The officers see that the boys behave themselves, and each month each boy gets his report from his teacher in a sealed en-death. Holt was arrested and bound over to the grand jury, but the district attorney held the facts insufficient to justify placing a charge of manslaughter against him.

English Shop Notices.

From the Grand Magazine. English shop windows often provide amusing notices. A Rochdale clothier had his window smashed by a boy with a hand cart. Five minutes afterward the broken pane was covered by a square of white paper, on which those words appeared in bold letters: "An absent-minded beggar did this with a hand cart. Don't say 'Poor' but come in and buy an overcoat." Over the door of a Whitechapel tailor may be seen this sign, which displays a sense of humor rare in the east end: "Send your clothes here to be mended. I am deaf and dumb. Least said, soonest mended."

be eagerly awaited by many a woman of taste in the Pacific northwest.

OPEN YOUNG WOMEN'S CAMP AT GEARHART

Camp at Beach for Young Women Is to Be Opened First Day of July.

The Young Women's Christian association is making plans to open their camp for young women at Gearhart Park the first of July. One hundred and twenty-five girls enjoyed this camp last summer. It accommodates 20 at once. There were more applications than it was possible to accommodate last year.

The camp is for the exclusive use of self-supporting women and those who wish a homelike place for spending their vacation at reasonable rates should apply early.

The "at home" this Sunday will be especially interesting to new members of the association as this is the day on which they are to be welcomed.

The following program has been planned:

- Message to members—Miss Heléna Saxton.
 - Reading—Miss Mae Pendergraft.
 - Soprano solo—Frau Margaret Bekker.

CHILDREN'S DAY AT NUMEROUS CHURCHES

Today is children's day in many of the churches throughout the United States. Children's day is a movement started in church circles attempting to give one Sunday in the year solely to the little ones and their Sabbath school. It will be observed by some of the Portland churches today. The movement is supposed to override all lines of denomination and doctrine and be devoted only to the children regardless of difference of faith.

Charles A. Walsh of Iowa, former secretary of the Democratic national committee, has been conferring recently with the erstwhile Populist leaders in Arkansas and other southern states with the purpose, it is reported, of organizing independence leagues in the interest of William A. Hoar.

WHO IS HE?

Identify the ten musicians whose silhouettes are now appearing each Sunday in this paper and we will present you a $10 payment on any piano in the "House of Quality." This prize is one ALL can win; the number of 110 certificates that will be given away is limited only by the number of correct answers sent in.

A piano is an intimate instrument; it interprets your thoughts and feelings and reads to you the very soul and spirit of great musicians. It is too closely allied with one's personality to be made a matter of mere commerce. It is not enough just to own any kind of a piano—you want one that appeals to your best tastes. This is the ruling characteristic of "House of Quality" instruments; each man's is the highest expression of a great firm's concentrated effort in attaining perfection in pianoforte making.
