WICKERSHAM OUT OF LADD TENNIS TOURNEY

Is Defeated in First Match After Hard Battle With Tom Farrell, Who Wins by Wonderful Steadiness in Lobbing-Expert Has Won. Cup Twice in Past.

Brandt Wickersham, twice winner of the Ladd tennis trophy, champion of the Irvington club and for several years counted as the second best player in the state, is already out of the battle for the Ladd cup this year. Wickersham was defeated in his first match, which was played yesterday morning at the Multnomah club. His lucky opponent was Tom Farrell. The score was 5-3, 2-6, 7-5.

Wickersham carried the heaviest handicap of all the 35 racket wielders in the tourney, owe 30 3-6, while his opponent played from scratch. Farrell's "getting" exasperated him and the former won the first set rather easily. In the second Brandt came up strong and aggressive. He took more chances and hit the ball harder and closer to the base line, capturing the second set by this style of play, Wickersham started out with the same tactics in the third, but his nerve was not equal to the task. Many great rallies occurred and while "Wick" could out-rally Farrell in a majority of the cases, he could not do it often enough to win at it. The score went to deuce set, but Farrell kept plugging asway and finally captured the match.

Two other matches were played during tae day. Blanchard (rec. 15) defeated Humphrey (rec. 2-6) 6-3, 13-11.

Mackenzie (rec. 15) sprung a surprise by beating George McMillan (rec. 3-5) 4-2, 3-5, 4-4. Tournament matches will be played every afternoon, weather permittin:

The Journal allowed J. D. Showers, a Telegram pressman, to umpire, but wo the game in spite of him. The umpire played by far the poorest game on the diamond. The excuse made for him that he had never seen a ball game before is, however, gracefully accepted.

The contest was close from start to finish and the small but enthusiastic grandstand was kept guessing as to the outcome.

promise to give local fandom two fine diamond for one admission. Four of the Portland teams performed and that creditably.

The first game was between the re juvenated Trunkmakers and the Brewers, who were tied for fifth place. It was nip and tuck for these teams, first one forging ahead and then the other. Just when the Trunkmakers thought they had the game safe and stowed away the Brewers bombarded Mr. Taylor for several bingles, and aided by several errors on the part of the valise manufacturers, won out, 7 to 6. The opposing twirlers in this game were Taylor and Pender, two clever southpaws. The two teams showed a lack of teamwork at critical times, notwithstanding that, the game was fast and interesting. was nip and tuck for these teams, first

The Second Game.

The second game was called 10 min-utes after the Brewers and Trunks had decided their troubles and was a stem-winder, barring the first inning, when the husky Milliners secured several hits and were helped around the bases by two bad errors on the part of the Cub infield.

"Midget" Streit was put in to pitch for the Cubs but his lame arm put him to the bad after one inning and a half and he retired in favor of Southpaw Olney, who immediately put a stop to the run-getting and allowed but five scattered hits.

The Cubs outbatted their opponents, but were unjucky in their base running, several times getting men on bases, only to be caught stealing. In the ninth inning they made a determined effort to win out and all but succeeded.

Exciting Fints Inning. Exciting Winth Inning.

Olney singled, followed by Turk with a bingle. Lodell hit an infield fly which was muffled by Johnson at short, forcing Olney to third, where he was thrown out on the play. Kennedy hit to center, scoring Turk, Lodell stole home, Kennedy was caught at second on an attempted steal, Shea hit to Houston, who made a foozle of the throw. Tauscher hit a fielders' choice and Shea was caught at second, allowing the gelden chances to go glimmering and putting the Frakes safely on the top round of the ladder. A big crowd witnessed the games.

out one in the first when Donahue and Casey were on the perches. It bounded between Spencer and Willis, and escaped nearly to the fence.

Mac got his three bases and an ovation, and Casey and Donahue each rang the bell. Portland's other run was made by Carson, who poked out a safe one, got around to third on Groom's percentage fattener, and then pulled off a double steal with the long twirler. Bobby Groom was in great form. Though he gave several passes, he was master of the situation at all times, and showed up to better advantage than ever before on the home grounds. The visitors' lone run was made by the first man to face Groom in the first inning. Mohler waited for four balls, stole second, went to third on Carson's muff of an easy throw and scored on a double steal pulled off with Irwin.

All sorts of star plays were made by the Beavers in the field. Bassey and McCredle each gathered in four flies, a couple of Bassey's being captured only after a tall sprint. Donahue's catches were both sensational, but the most brilliant stunt of the day was done by Casey, who made a kangaroo leap into the air after a wild throw speared it with one hand and brought it down on Irwin in time to score a put-out.

STILL TRAINING Three-Baggers by McCredie Seven Eugene Athletes Expect to Go to Seattle With Multnomah Club Team.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) University of Oregon, Eugene, June 10.-From reports received here, Oregon will probably have seven men on the Multnomah team which will enter the P. N. A. meet in Seattle June 22. These men are members of the club, and as all track work is over as far as college is concerned, there can be no objections to the men entering. Kelly, of course, will be the most interesting man in the meet.

Since it is reported that both Snedigar and Parsons will be at Seattle, the interest will center on the events which the three fast sprinters enter.

If Plaw, the great hammer thrower, should fall down the least bit Zacharias would make an interesting contest with him. McKinney should take first in the shot-put, and Moores first in the hurdles. Kuykendall, the hurdler and broad jumper, should pick up some nice juicy seconds for the club and possibly a first.

juicy seconds for the club and possibly a first.

Hug also should get nine or ten points for the club. It is believed that Huston, the Portland freshman, will make the sixth man, and if he does he would be good for a number of points. Reid, the quarter-miler, will be the seventh.

These seven men are training on Kincaid field, but owing to the long season are in such condition that they only have to go through light-work to maintain their condition.
