FREE CAKES FOR THE BOYS AND GIRLS The Rose Fiesta is Exciting the Grown-ups, But the Youngsters Are More Interested in Royal Cakes—Delicious and FREE! This week we will give delicious ROYAL BAKERY CAKES to every boy and girl who clips out this advertisement, writes the CORRECT name in the space beneath each boy, and mails it to us, together with the other eight Johnny and Jimmy ads that have appeared in this paper for the past eight Tuesdays, if you have kept them.

Which Is Johnny? Which Is Jimmy? Wholesome "Table Queen" Bread Did It Do you remember Jimmy, the scrawny little shaver who first made his bow to you nine weeks ago? It's hard to realize that this fat, saucy, healthy chap is the same boy—that's what his mother says a dozen times a day—but he is—just the same little "bag of bones," all covered up now with good, sound flesh, put on by eating plenty of healthful "TABLE QUEEN" BREAD, and ROYAL CAKES and DOUGHNUTS, instead of the ordinary ones.

PROGRESSIVE PIANO SELLING Has a Serious Significance to the Seeker of Quality and Value in Pianos. The Difference in Methods Which Gives the House of Eilers a Decided Preference. With the Careful Buyer. The firm which plays fastest with the public is the one that is invariably most successful. The popularity of Eilers Piano House is proof that Eilers methods are right. To sell the best pianos—the makes of highest quality—and to sell them at the least cost consistent with safe business principles is the aim and custom of this great piano selling organization, from the day it opened the doors of its first store—the wisest awake little store that ever sought the patronage of the Portland music lovers. From the modest little place at 107 First street has grown a chain of more than 30 Eilers houses, all cooperating toward economical lines in the buying, shipping, distributing and selling of pianos and other musical merchandise. All this combined strength means money saved to the buyer. Greater purchasing power of the Eilers stores makes it possible to give greater values to the individual buyer. Thirty makes—and more—the finest in all the world, awaiting critical inspection of the music lover at the House of Eilers. Take no one's word for it—investigate for yourself. Compare the quality and prices with any offered elsewhere. Convince yourself that you can save a profit of the average dealer. Come fully prepared to find genuine bargains—the best values—the highest quality—at the House of Eilers, the House of Highest Quality, 223 Washington street, corner of Park.
