Orchard Goes Over the Story | tempt that night as be had a bomb at of Assassination Without Tripping in Testimony.

PUT TRUNK WITH BOMB IN PETTIBONE'S STORE

Mrs. Adams Says That Murderer Lied When He Stated That He Gave Her Husband Money-Attempts to Kill General Sherman Bell.

By John Nevins.

(Journal Special Service.) Boise, June 12 .- "Orchard lies when he says we had lots of money in Denver in the winter of 1904 and 1905. We nearly starved to death. He lived with us, but didn't give us a penny." In the above words Mrs. Steve Adams declared this morning that Orchard was not telling the truth when he asserted on the stand that herself and husband lived comfortably with everything they wanted. She will take the stand for the Je-fense. She absolutely asserts that she never accompanied her husband and Orchard when they tried to blow up Judge Gabbert.

the attempts were inspired by Haywood and Moyer. He had heard both say that if Peabody was "dumped off" there were 1,000 more, just as bad, to take his place, but insisted that he should be put out of the way for his past persention of union men.

Orchard declared that Moyer and Haywood went to Chicago in the summer of 1905, the purpose being to form a new organization to take the place of the Western Federation of Miners. When they came back Pettibone suggested killing Sherman Bell. He explained that the reason he did not shoot Bell was that the latter had bad dogs, which made it impossible to approach his house. He said that Pettibone was with him all the times when he went hunting for Bell. The cross-examination was monotonous and long drawn out. It is unlikely that Orchard will complete his testimony before Saturday. Dogs Saved Sherman Bell.

An Instance of the consumption of time is shown in that it took 64 minutes and 4,000 words to bring out the facts connected with the purchase of a horse and buggy by Pettihone, which Orchard alleges was given him to get away with after killing Bell.

This afternoon Richardson expected to try to show by Orchard that the killing of Steunenberg was suggested by Jack Simpkins, because the latter had been ill used in the Couer d'Alene troubles, having been thrown into a buil pen and bayonetted by negro troops.

To Kill Steunenberg.

To Kill Steunenberg.

This afternoon Orchard swore absolutely that both Moyer and Haywood told him that he must kill Frank Steunenberg. He said that he had already sent Baston, McCarthy, Adams and Minster to kill him, but that they had failed, and the time had come when the job must be done right. Pettibone, he said, declared it would be a hard job to pull off in a little country town and thought it better to get some of their enemies in Denver first.

Haywood, the witness swore, was most bitter against Steunenberg. He declared that he and Ed Bryce had, decided that he must be put out of the way, as an example to all who opposed the federation. He said that as soon as the job was pulled off, Orchard must go to Pat-under the severest grilling he has been subjected to.

He told minutely about his experiments with bombs. He made a number of hand bombs and went out on the prairie to try them to see how they worked.

Orchard sald the Orchard said that before leaving he asked for and got $300, which was for expenses. He was warned not to communicate with headquarters, but when he needed money he was to send to Pettibone for it. Haywood later gave him $20, then later $40 more, and finally $240. He thought the money was given him either in Pettibone's store or at headquarters.

Starts on Murder Mission,

Would Have Wrecked Hotel. The bomb had enough explosive in it to demolish the entire hotel. He planned to set it off with a clock, but finally decided it was better not to do the job at that time and left that day for Portland.

for Portland.

He gave no reason as to why he should not have killed Steunenberg at this time other than he feared he might be suspected as he had only been in town a short time.

He had a good time at Portland for a few days and went to Seattle, where he spent a week. He did not look any of his nequaintances up, but devoted all his time in Seattle in looking for a ranch close to the British line. He could not find one to suit him.

Implicates Dave Coates.

He left there in September for Coeur d'Alene to see Jack Simpkins about a kidnaping proposition suggested to him by former Lieutenant-Governor Dave Coates of Colorado. He had seen Coates after the latter returned from Chicago, where he aided in organizing the Industrial Workers of the World.

Coates, Orchard swore, told him that August Paulson had two children whom he thought a lot of, and if he would he thought a lot of, and if he would kidnap them he could make $50,000 easy. Paulson was formerly a mining partner of Orchard's.

easy. Paulson was formerly a mining partner of Orchard's.
Coates, he swore, told him the part he would take in the job would be to "take the money." He had promised he would do the job as soon as he could get around to it.
Orchard met Simpkins at Wardner and got him to go with him to Wallace, where he saw Coates. They met Coates at his office that night, talked the matter over, but couldn't decide on a definite plan of procedure.

He went over to see Paulson, who was very friendly and wanted him to have Sunday dinner with him. He did so, He saw Mrs. Paulson and both children there. He drank and played cards a great deal and soon went backe.

He denied trying to borrow money from Paulson. When asked if it was not a fact that he went to Coates and told him he would like to kidnap the child, and the latter told him if he did he would denounce him and see him sent to the penitentiary, he said no. He said it was not a fact that Simpkins had been sent to warn Paulson that he

He said it was not a fact that Simpkins had been sent to warn Paulson that he was trying to kidnap the child, and declared he gave up the plan just because it began to snow hard.

He said that two men named Cunningham and McCluskey asked him to give them a bomb to put in the Tiger-Poorman mine and kill 100 scabs. He denied he had made this proposition himself, but said Cunningham was introduced to him by Simpkins and Viacent St. John and that he finally gave him a bomb.

Bomb Was Old.

He admitted there was no trouble in the district at that time. He said he old Cunningham if he did not use the comb soon to throw it away, as the powder was very old and it was dangerous to keep it long.

He pawned all his valuables to get money to keep him going and finally went to Paulson and borrowed $300 from him to get away. He also borrowed from Coates, Farrow, Murphy and a number of other persons.

He brake into the depot and stole a trunk and robbed the cash register at Burke. He denied stealing jewelry at Mulen or of robbing a general store. He thought he was stealing a trunk full of jewelry but got the wrong trunk, which was, filled with boots all for the left foot and useless to him. He couldn't explain why, although he was broke, he never wired to Denver for money. He had tried to borrow $5,000 from Paulson to start an ice plant at Salt Lake. He was still on this line when court adjourned.

MINERS PREPARE

Federation Funds Will Be Drawn Without Notice.

was pulled off, Orchard must go to Paterson, New Jersey, and write bitter letters to Bell. Peabody, Goddard, Gabbert and a number of leaders of the mine-owners' association, warning them that their time would come, and that soon.

To Threaten Officials.

Orchard swore that all hands agreed that these threats would leave these men in such a state of terror that they would probably move to some other section of the country and no longer oppose the federation.

Orchard was most positive in his assertions and stuck closely to his story, under the severest grilling he has been subjected to.

He told minutely about his experiments with hombs. He made a number (Journal Special Service.)

IS TUNED UP

days' celebration: On the morning of the 3rd, athletic games and foot races

Starts on Murder Mission.

During this examination Haywood sat close to Richardson and frequently whispered suggestions in his ear. When Orchard started, he bought a round trip ticket to Portland and Seattle and got a reduced rate because the Portland and seattle and got a reduced rate because the Portland are as about time that he quit murdering; that he was tired and wanted a rest. He was going to see Arthur Parker, whom he formerly knew at Cripple Creek, who had a ten-score farm, which was a good one. It was a limit that his trip was simply to got over a ranch he himself wanted to all the had no intention of killing either steunenberg or Neville, but Orchard to the Jorighnal story in its entirety. The fact that his trunk was in Pettlbone's store and had been there since March, was developed. It was packed before leaving, with a wrapped bomb in a blanket, placed in the center of the trunk. The bomb weighed between 35 and 40 pounds.

When Orchard finally got to Idaho he called "Bill" Easterly, who was then working at Sliver City, on the phone from Nampa and asked him if he would come over to help-kim kill Steunenbers, He swore positively that he had not written nor asked Easterly to help him write hall insurance. He stayed at a line on Steunenberg's habits before going to Caldwell.

He told how Steunenberg had been pointed-out to him in Boise. He write to the Idanha hotel and found he was registered there so got a room on the want to the room and opened the door with a skeleton key in order to yet a line on Steunenberg's habits before soing to Caldwell.

He told how Steunenberg had been pointed-out to him in Boise. He write to the Idanha hotel and found he was registered there so got a room on the went to the room and opened the door with a skeleton key in order to yet a line on Steunenberg's habits before for the defense in the land-fraud cases are still before the jury in argument. They depend the proposed to be a similar attack upon the methods of the evidence and Forney submitted law points. The latter wil

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE MEMBERS

OBJECT TO TREATMENT RECEIVED

The Portland chamber of commerce of the straw which broke the camel's beeking new quarters and as soon as found will move from its present location on the second floor of the Chamber of Commerce building.

The decision to move from the Chamber of Commerce building has been caused largely by the restrictions placed upon the organization by the owners, or the straw been control to the effect that no lights could be turned on.

Officers of the chamber are looking for ground floor space large enough to other agent, of the building. A recent of the organization by the owners, allow of the advantageous placing of the straw of the camely ported that a man bearing the same description, but giving the name of N. E. Allerton, passed a bad check upon him this morning for $37.

It is a been description, but giving the name of N. E. Allerton, passed a bad check upon him this morning for $37.

It is a been description as the same description, but giving the name of N. E. Allerton, passed a bad check upon him this morning for $37.

It is a been description and the same description, but giving the name of N. E. Allerton, passed a bad check upon him this morning for $37.

It is a been description and the same description and the same description, but giving the name of N. E. Allerton, passed a bad check upon him this morning for $37.

It is a been description and the same description a

BRISTOL TO TALK ROUSEVE ON LAND AFFAIRS

Will Speak as Private Citizen Before Denver Convention Next Week.

United States District Attorney William C. Bristol received his commission this morning from Governor Chamberlain as a delegate to the public lands convention which meets in Denver, June 18, for a three days' session. Mr. Bristol will leave next Saturday night and expects to be absent for a week or 10 days. The list of delegates includes besides Mr. Bristol Mayor Lane, exCongressman Malcolm A. Moody, of The Dalles, and 17 others from Portland and other portlens of the state.

Mr. Bristol stated this morning that he would attend the convention as a private citizen and not in the capacity of a federal official, but in view of his strenuous and successful fight against Oregon land grabbers, the trusts, and other law violaters during the past two years, it is expected that considerable interest will attach to the addresses he will give before the convention.

"My remarks will be strongly in support of the administration and the administration's policies." he said this morning. "As a private citizen I shall urge the furtherance of the government policies with respect to the public lands, forestry protection and development, reclamation of the arid lands, better enforcement of the land laws and besides Mr. Bristol, Mayor Lane, ex-better enforcement of the land laws and kindred matters."

Mr. Bristol's commission from the

Mr. Bristol's commission from the governor came as a surprise, but he is willing to leave his accumulation of work long enough to put in a good word for present government policies from a practical standpoint, and in view of his successful fights here his convention address will hold closest attention.

The list of delegates from Oregon includes United States District Attorney W. C. Bristol, Mayor Lane, E. P. Sheldon, L. Gerlinger, A. H. Devers, E. M. Brannick, Portland; Malcolm A. Moody, The Dalles; Dan P. Smythe, J. N. Burgess, S. A. Lowell, Pendleton; I. H. Bingham, L. S. Hill, Eugene; F. W. Steusloff, Salem; E. R. Lake, Corvallis, J. T. Barton, W. E. Grace, Baker City; J. H. Dobbin, Joseph; Fred J. Holmes, Wallowa; C. V. Galloway, McMinnville, and E. L. Smith, Hood River.

Los Angeles, June 12.—Reformation by amputation is the unusual method to be applied to Garth Barritt, an incorrigible Ocean Park boy of eight years, and the youngest offender who ever stood in the city recorder's court or juvenile court here. Time and again the lad has run away from home, purloined property belonging to his parents and done every or cure and that if not cured he better dead.

BRITISH SUBJECTS IN

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Victoria, B. C., June 12.—The British sloop-of-war Shearwater has returned from the Galapagos island, where the alleged slavery of British subjects was investigated. The governor of the island, who was a general of Ecuador, when the Shearwater approached fled, and could not be found. It is believed he left on a steamer, fearing the consequence.

brutally. When the Shearwater reached the islands one man was found in irons. The West Indians went on their knees and begged to be taken away. Captain Allgood of the Shearwater has reported the situation and it is expected the British government will require that the men be sent back to the West Indies.

SALTY DOSE FOR NEGRESS WHO STOLE

Three years in the penitentiary is the sentence imposed upon Beatrice Lewis, a colored woman, by Judge Frazer in the circuit court this morn-Frager in the circuit court this morning. The woman was convicted last week with Grace Reed, also colored, of stealing $500 from Andrew Johnson in a Flanders street house in April. She was lead from the court-room by a deputy sheriff, sobbing as she realized that the penitentiary faced her.

Grace Reed, the other woman who was convicted of the same offense, took advantage of being at liberty on $1,900 bail, and disappeared before she was sentenced. The officers have not yet been able to find her. When the Reed woman left, her companion was committed to jail at once, and no opportunity to leave the city was given her.

BAKER AT HEAD OF - ROSEBURG SCHOOLS

(Special Dispatch to The Jougnal.)
Roseburg, Or., June 12.—The Roseburg school board has elected as superintendent of schools Prof L. L. Baker of Albany, Oregon. Professor Baker was formerly of New York and has had charge of several high schools in the east. The board has succeeded in filling vacancies in four of the primafy grades with efficient teachers and the schools this year promise more efficient work than ever before.

PASSER OF BAD CHECKS IS BUSY IN THE CITY

Eugene. Or., June 12.—G. F. Skipworth of as city has been appointed deputy prosecuting attorney for this county by W. S. McFadden, the newly appointed prosecuting attorney for this district. Mr. Skipworth is a prominent young attorney of Eugene. The office carries a salary of $500 a year. He will at once assume his duties.

The visit.

Property Appraised.

M. A. Zollinger, W. A. Munly and John E. Altchison, appraisers of the estate of Minnie C. Nichols, this morning filled in the county court a report showing that the estate has property worth $2,000.

George P. Angell Declares President's Education Is Deficient and Questions Truth of His Stories of Wild Animal Life.

(Journal Special Service.)
Boston, June 12.—George P. Angell, president of the Massachusetts Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, feels bitter toward President Roosevelt because of the latter's attack on "nature fakers," and especially his criticism of Dr. Long. In the next issue of Our Dumb Animals, Angell will say: "If in his boyhood Roosevelt had been umanely educated, probably he would humanely educated, probably he would have written differently about the starving cattle on the western ranges and the shooting of animals simply for the fun of wounding and killing them.

"There can be no doubt of Roosevelt's courage to lead a Balaklava charge of 600, but we cannot help thinking of him as a powder mill liable at any time to explode and do vast damage.

"One has only to read the books of the two men to determine upon which side the scales lie in the veracity controversy.

ness practically unarmed, bent on the ress practically unarmed, bent on the study of animals.

"Roosevelt went into the field armed to the teeth. His books are steeped in blood of wanton slaughter. Far from being the foremost authority on American animals. Roosevelt has written himself down as being not even a true

INTERLOCUTOR KEEPING AFTER

Again the Elks announce a high jinks and stag social to take place tomorrow evening at the Elks' hall and clubrooms. What will happen is a matter of conjecture. When it is over there will still probably be much uncertainty as to what happened.

At any rate all the prominent Elks in the state will contribute to the program. Governor George E. Chamberlain will be interlocutor for a minstrel show which promises to be of an unusually high order. Exalted Ruler Jay H. Upton will be an end man and either Dr. Harry McKay or Henry D. Griffin will hold down the other end. Judge Frank Henessy will conduct the "kangaroo court."

thing bad that could enter the mind of one of his age. Dr. C. Barritt, his steping the one of his age. Dr. C. Barritt, his steping the one of his age. Dr. C. Barritt, his steping the has given up all hope of ever controlling him by ordinary means.

After a consultation with physicians and surgeons he has decided to save him from a dissolute life by using the knift.

Adenoid growths in the upper chamber of the nose which are said to be pressing on the child's brain will be removed because it is believed that they are responsible for his precocity for evil doing and inordinate desire to rove. He is a bright youngster but a puzzle nobody has been able to solve except on the adenoid growth theory. Experts in such matters say the operation may kill or cure and that if not cured he were

CHAINS AS SLAVES PROPERTY OWNERS TIRED OF EXCUSE

West Indians who were British sub-jects had been brought to the island to work on a railway. Finally their pay was stopped and the men were treated best belowed improve the space between its rails on First street every property owner on the street but one has signed a peti-tion to pave the thoroughfare with bithulitic payement. This action is taken despite the fact that three years ago the property owners payed the street with wood blocks and the city has since kept both sides of the track in good repair.

General Manager Fuller of the railway company is still putting the property owners off with various excuses, but things are expected to reach a climax at the meeting of the executive board next Thursday. As soon as the permit is granted and a waiver secured the property owners hope to get to work. Ten days from Thursday will see men at work on the street tearing up the wood blocks in preparation for laying the hard surface pavement. Ten thousand dollars will be required to pave the seven blocks necessary, but the property owners are making this sacrifice in order that the street will not be a disgrace to the city.

Down the center of the street between that the street will not be a disgrace to the city.

Down the center of the street between the two rails planks have been laid.

Charles K. Henry, one of the prime workers for the movement to compel the street railway company to improve its roadbed, stated that he had a letter from General Manager Fuller offering various kinds of excuses for the company's delay. Henry asserts that these excuses have been offered for over three years.

"At first they seemed plausible," said Mr. Henry, "but the inaction of the com-pany has goaded property owners to desperation, and should the company not begin to improve its tracks coinci-dent with the repaying of the street, I will myself enter suit to compel the street railway company to commence work at once.

GOVERNMENT FILES

(Journal Special Service.)
Philadelphia, June 12.—The govern-ment's suit to smash the anthracite coal railroads trust was filed in court today. Final action regarding the proceedings against Harriman will be postponed until Bonaparte studies the interstate commerce commission's report.

AOKI POSTPONES HIS PACIFIC COAST VISIT

(Journal Special Service.)

Washington, June 12.—On account of the present agitation on the Pacific coast, Aoki, ambassador from Japan, has indefinitely postponed his San Francisco visit, saying if he makes the trip now his motives will be misconstrued and undue significance be attached to the visit.

TO ROB GUEST

Miss Blanche Day in the Portland Hotel.

Burgiars entered the suite of rooms occupied by H. L. Day and family at the Portland hotel while the members were at dinner last Saturday night and stole a $75 gold watch and an equally valuable pair of opera glasses belonging to Miss Blanche Day. The articles were lying on a dresser and the theft was not discovered until some time after the family had returned from the dining-room. Nothing else of value was taken.

time after the family had returned from the dining-room. Nothing else of value was taken.

Before going downstairs to dinner Saturday evening the doors to the suite of rooms occupied by the Days on the second floor, were securely locked and it was during the hour that the family sat at the dining-table that burgiars affected an entrance to the apartments. A skeleton key was used to unlock the door into the parlor of the suite, into which the other rooms open and access to the sleeping-rooma, where the jewelry lay, was made without difficulty. Although many other valuable articles were within easy reach, nothing but the watch and opera glasses were stolen. The burgiars, or burglar, left the rooms in order and closed and locked the door through which they had come, after stealing the valuables.

Mr. Day and the members of the family returned to their apartments early in the evening, but did not discover the theft until some time later when Miss Day's watch was found missing from the dresser where she had left it.

The burgiary was reported to police headquarters and Captain Bruin and two detectives have since been wying to get trace of the missing articles. So headquarters and Captain Bruin and two detectives have since been trying to get trace of the missing articles. So far their efforts have proved futile.

Mr. Day and his family have been guests of the Portland for many months past. Their home is in Lewiston, Idaho, and he is one of the wealthlest lumbermen in the state.

Mrs. Morris Gross, a guest of the Portland hotel, reported the loss of a pearl horseshoe pin valued at $100 this morning. Mrs. Gross is the wife of Morris Gross, a wealthy retired mefchant of Troy, New York, and the two are in Portland completing a tour of the world on which they have been for 11 months. Mrs. Gross believes she dropped the pin in the corridors of the hotel.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Boise, Ida., June 12.-The federal grand jury, which took a recess here April 12, to meet again June 17, has been discharged by notice to its mem bers served by United States Marshal Ruell Rounds.

This action comes as a great surprise here, because of the oft repeated rumor that upon reconvening June 17 steps would be taken to reconsider some of the indictments found against prom-inent men of Idaho in timber fraud cases.

The notice from Marshal Rounds dis-The notice from Marshal Rounds discharging the jury closes the account, cinches the indictments returned here and verifies the sensational statement made by United States Attorney Ruick in the timber fraud cases at Moscow Monday to the effect that the president of the United States was back of him in his efforts to apprehend and punish conspicuous characters who had bean conspicuous characters who had been the real criminals in these cases, rather

ments will be served in the manner and ARCHBISHOP CHRISTIE at Columbia university this morning and the class poem was read by Edward Irving Brogan of Seattle, and the vale-Coullard, and a violin solo by Edward Condon.

Scholarship medals were presented as follows: Gold medal for improvement in penmanship given by Rev. B. P. Curley, awarded to Alphonse William Aya of Eugene; gold medal in beginners of Latin given by Rev. J. C. Hughes, awarded to Harold Bracier Godfrey of Victoria, British Columbia; gold medal from Rev. W. A. Daly, on the best English essay, Paul Eldred Smith, Portiland; gold medal from Rev. Edwin O'Hara, in algebra, Mayrice Conway, Portland; gold medal presented by Knights of Columbus, in history, Harold Godfrey; gold medal presented by Archbishop Christie for general excellence of fwork, Paul Eldredge Smith.

ALL FUNDS LOOKED ALIKE TO RIPLINGER

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Seattle, Wash., June 12 .- The experts investigating the accounts of John Riplinger, former city comptroller of Seattle, have learned that Riplinger's Seattle, have learned that Riplinger's defalcations will amount to more than $30,000. The total may reach $50,000 but it is not believed it will be so large. It has been developed that Riplinger did not confine his thefts to any particular fund nor to the special funds of which he was sole custodian. In myself enter suit to compel the eter railway company to commence rk at once.

OVERNMENT FILES

SUIT AGAINST TRUST

Seattle, have learned that Riplinger's defalcations will amount to more than $30,000. The total may reach $50,000 but it is not believed it will be so large. It has been developed that Riplinger did not confine his thefts to any particular fund nor to the special funds of which he was sole custodian. In some instances, the checks show, he was paid money which could not be credited to any particular fund. The final disposition of this money is what is making the work of checking up the books so slow. The work has been in progress for about five weeks and the end is not yet in sight.

AMERICANS CONDUCT

Chicago, June 12 .- Municipal Judge Chicago. June 12.—Municipal Judge Newcomer says that international girl slave traffic is conducted in this country, Berlin, Parls, New York and Chicago being the principal points of distribution. He says thousands of French girls are shipped annually from country to country and that in one district of Chicago 500 men were found in the service of those heading the traffic.
Newcomer has evidence to prove his assertions.

LACK OF MONEY IS

(Journal Special Service.)

Los Angeles, June 12.—Frank Edson, aged 50, murdered his wife while she slept by his side last night, shooting her through the head with a revolver, and then killed himself with the same weapon. Financial trouble was the cause of the double tragedy.

FLORISTS BUSY ON EVERY HAND

Burglars Steal Jewelry of Graduation Exercises Tax Dealers and Home Gardens This Week.

> This is the florists' busy week and the orders are rushing in as rapidly as if it were Christmas or some prominen personage were dead. The only fact that safes them from a complete sell-out is that this is the season of roses and many find their floral gifts in their own yards. This is also the season of the girl and boy graduate. For the past three weeks social activities have tered around them exclusively and so-ciety matrons and full-blown society buds have stepped into the background. Commencement is at hand.

Five Graduated,

This morning Columbia university graduated five young men and J. P. Kavanaugh delivered the address and Archbishop Christie awarded the diplomas. The graduates were George Roche of The Locks, Washington, and Edward Irving Brogan of Seattle, Washington, who will carry away diplomas from the scientific department, and William C. Jenzen and Frank Sinnott of Portland and John J. Quinn of Boise, Idaho.

This evening Hill Military academy will hold its commencement exercises and competitive medal drills at the academy. Among the cadets entered for the competition are some of the most efficient "drillers" of the school, as Cadet Lieutenants Wursweiler, Carson and Wiley, Cadet Sergeants White, Graham, Stoddard Loomis, Briggs, Kruse, Surgett and Le Mon, Cadets Flegel, Hutton, Rush, Gilchrist, Baker, Fohl, Hansen, Kyde, Hutchinson and numerous others, and the contest, which will be judged by national guard officers, will be close and exciting.

Commencement Tonight. St. Helen's hall will hold its commencement exercises this evening in the new gymnasium on Ford street. The class numbers 19; two in the music department, Miss Ada West and Miss Florence Caflisle. 11 in the academic department, Miss Evelyn Wilson, Miss Mary Hewitt, Miss June Sterling, Miss Hazel Tichner, Miss Marguerite Crosby, Miss Hazel Robb, Miss Mercedes Sims, Miss Jessie Hale, Miss Hida Hagedorn, Miss Jessie Hale, Miss Hida Hagedorn, Miss Louise Emmons, Miss Hazel Ferris; and six in the kindergarten training department, Miss Helen Boot, Miss Helen Caldwell, Miss Antoinette Shell, Miss Josephine Shell, Miss Beulah Buncomb and Miss Mary McIntosh, Bishop Scadding will give the address and present the diplomas and the exercises will, as usual, be of a religious nature.

Allen Preparatory school will hold its exercises tomorrow night, Portland academy Friday night and St. Mary's college next Monday. The public schools and high schools have theirs next week.

RESIDENCE PROPERTY IS ACTIVE FEATURE

Transfers of realty aggregating $59, 074 were filed for record yesterday. The largest single transaction reported was the sale of a house and lot on Willamette Heights for $5,600.

ette Heights for $5,600.

Two residences in Caruthers' addition. South Portland, changed hands; one on Fifth street, between Lincoln and Grant, was purchased by C. L. Rybke from Philip F. Dwyer for $4,850, and the other was three lots at Front and Pennoyer, sold by Sarah N. Campbell to Mary M. Gillette for $8,000.

Ziata Ricen has purchased from the Scottish-American Investment company a house and lot on Thurman street, Willamette Heights, for $5,600.

Joseph H. Smith has purchased from C. J. Pennicard a house and lot at the corner of Chinton and Habersham streets, Richmond, for $3,350.

GIVES THE DIPLOMAS COMMITTEE IS AFTER BIG GAME

Irving Brogan of Seattle, and the valedictory by George Francis Roche of Cascade Locks, Hon. J. P. Kavanaugh delivered the oration and Archbishop Christic presented the diplomas. Mr. Brogan were graduated in the scientific course and William Carl Janzen of Portland, John Joseph Quinn of Horseshoe Bend, Idaho, and sind improve the space between its rails on First street every property owner on the street but one has signed a petition to pave the thoroughfare with bithulitic pavement. This action is taken despite the fact that three years ago the property owners paved the Scholarship medals were presented as a dated by Edward Wilkinson and Harry and Adolph Wolfe was held in the parlors of the Commercial club this morning at 9:30 o'clock. The promoters of the Country club and Livestock association are out after big game today and expect to be able to ing at 9:30 o'clock.

ing at 9:30 o'clock.

This committee had been appointed by the general committee to make a special canvass of all the large interests of the city and see what each would do foward subscribing stock for the country club project. When the meeting was called to order it was reported that already several offers of stock subscriptions had been made to different members of the committee.

After planning the campaign to be followed out the committee adjourned to meet again this afternoon and take up the active work of calling upon the different corporations and large business houses for their aid. It is the expectation of the committee to raise practically all the stock necessary to float the project between the present and the date of the final meeting a week from Thursday.

NO MOVE TO TAKE LUNATICS TO PEN

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Tacoma, Wash., June 12 .- Today is the date on which, according to the new Graves law, all the criminally insane in the state shall be taken from asylums and jails and incarcerated in the state penitentiary at Walla Walla, noney which could not be credited particular fund. The final distances, the checks show, he was noney which could not be credited properticular fund. The final distance work of the ching up the books were work of checking up the books. The work has been in prognic about five weeks and the end is it in sight.

CRICANS CONDUCT

TRAFFIC IN GIRLS

(Journal Special Service.)

(Journal Special Service.)

ago. June 12.—Munjelpal Judge mer says that international girl traffic is conducted in this councerlin, Paris, New York and Chisen and the state penitentiary at Walla Walla. No move has yet been made at the Stell-coom asylum to comply with the law, and at the Pierce county jail here, where Chester Thompson is confined, no plans for removing him have been heard of by Sheriff Tom Morris, Under the law the removal of the criminally insane to the penitentiary at Walla. No move has yet been made at the Stell-acoom asylum to comply with the law, and at the Pierce county jail here, where Chester Thompson is confined, no plans for removing him have been the law the removal of the criminally insane to the penitentiary at Walla. No move has yet been made at the Stell-acoom asylum to comply with the law, and at the Pierce county jail here, where Chester Thompson is confined, no plans for removing him have been the law the removal of the criminally insane to the penitentiary at Walla. No move has yet been made at the Stell-acoom asylum to comply with the law, and at the Pierce county jail here, where Chester Thompson is confined at the Pierce county jail here, where Chester Thompson is confined at the Pierce county jail here, where Chester Thompson is confined at the Pierce county jail here, where Chester Thompson is confined at the Pierce county jail here, where Chester Thompson is confined at the Pierce county jail here, where Chester Thompson is confined at the Pierce county jail here, where Chester Thompson is confined at the Pierce county jail here, where Chester Thompson is confined a

DELAY OF DOLPHIN

CAUSE OF TRAGEDY

(Journal Special Service.)

(Journal Special Service.)

Angeles, June 12.—Frank Edson, 50, murdered his wife while she by his side last night, shooting by his side last night.

Saloonmen Besiege District Attorney Manning's Office in Effort to Arrange Satisfactory Compromise With Sunday Closing Mandate.

Saloonmen of Portland are still searching for a knothole in John Man ning's Sunday closing lid large enough for them to crawl through into an open town. Hotel men and restaurant pro-town. Hotel men and restaurant proprietors are joining in the search, but Mr. Manning is calm in the face of the storm and it is given out that Multnomah county is closed to stay closed during the remainder of the Manning administration.

It is now being argued by the liquor interests that the enforcement of the Sunday closing law will put 50 saloons out of business in Portland alone, while the number may be greatly increased throughout the county.

It is stated by members of the Wholesale Liquor Dealers association that there are 50 saloons, if not more, in Portland at the present time not making more than a net income of $1.00 a month. The adoption of the $800 liquor license ordinance which has just agone into effect will, according to the argument, cut this $100 down to $75 a month of net income. The Sunday closing law will add the last straw by cutting the gross receipts some 20 per cent and force the proprietors into other lines of business.

Besides the loss the saloonmen will cent and force the proprietors into other lines of business.

Besides the loss the salconmen will suffer, the members of the association are solicitous concerning the loss which the city will sustain. According to their arguments if the 50 salcons are forced to close it will mean the loss of 50 annual licenses of $800 or a total of $40,000 of public revenue a year.

District Attorney Manning has been besieged during the past two days with committees of liquor-selling business men who have been seeking a compromise with the law. It has been urged by the hotel men that the strict enforcement of the statute against the hotels and restaurants would mean heavy loss and interference with the liberty of the people to eat and drink what they pleased when and where they desired. desired.

When Manning is asked what he intends to do about it, he reiterates his first statement and says:

"The people want the saloons closed and the law enforced. The district attorney's office will follow their wishes.

wishes.

While Mr. Manning has made no further statement it is given out that he has turned down the entreaties of the hotel and restaurant committees and has given his ultimatum to the effect that he intends to enforce the law to the letter, beginning next Sunday and continuing to the last day of his administration.

GRAVE FEARS FOR MISSING AGED MAN

Peter De Groot, an aged man, who left the home of his son at Snohomish, Washington, June 3, to visit his daughter, Mrs. E. Vandermast, living near Vancouver, is missing. He did not arrive in Portland on the train upon which his son placed him at Snohomish, Grave fears are felt for the missing man both by his relatives at Vancouver and at Snohomish. at Snohomish.
Peter De Groot came from Des Moines, lowa, a year ago last March to make his home with his children, all of whom lived in the west. He was $1 years old and rather a large man, whom lived in the west. He was 31 years old and rather a large man, weighing easily 200 pounds.

It is nine days since he left Snohomish and it has been reported by friends that Mr. De Groot was safely put on board the train as it went through Seattle. Mr. Vandermast met the train at the Union depot in this city and carefully scrutinized each passenger, but falled to find his grandparent.

The only solution for the mysterious disappearance is that he may have decided to return to lowa without the knowledge of his children. However, it is hot known he had any large sum of money on his person, which furthermore dispels the theory that he may have been assaulted. His destination was Ridgeville, Clarke county, near where his daughter, Mrs. Vandermast, resides on a farm.

VICTORIA SLIGHT IS MILD OF TONGUE

Mrs. Victoria Slight of 488 Kearney street, who was arrested Monday on complaint of James Driscoll, janitor at the Couch school, who accused her of continually creating a disturbance in the neighborhood and of habitual intemperance, was before Judge Cameron this morning on a charge of disorderly conduct. Driscoll, who resides at 194 Fourteenth street, immediately in the rear of Mrs. Slight's home, and several other witnesses were called to testify to the conduct of the defendant.

Mrs. Slight, who belies her name as far as avoirdupois is concerned, took the stand in her own behalf and denied all of the allegations. She admitted taking a drink once in a while, but maintained that the strongest cuss word ever used by her was "dog gone it."

Judge Cameron after hearing the details of the case found Mrs. Slight guilty and placed her under a $50 bond to keep the peace. the Couch school, who accused her of

to keep the peace. SPURNED BY WOMAN MAN HAS HYSTERIA

Said to have been spurned by the woman he loved, Richard Fairchild hired a room in the Golden West hotel, the state penitentiary at Walla Walla. Seventh and Everett streets, last night and proceeded to drown his sorrows in bad whiskey. Upon reaching the meiancholy stage in his "jag" Fairchild, to frighten his inamorata, announced that he had taken poison. Dr. Ziegler was called and diagnosed the case as one of alcoholic hysteria.

SPRINGFIELD MAYOR DIES WHILE FISHING

(Journal Special Service.)
Springfield, Ill., June 12.—David Grif. fiths, who was elected mayor of this city in April, was drowned at noon in a creek hear here. He was fishing and was accidentally thrown into a slough.

Friedlaender Will Filed.

CAUSES UNEASINESS

(Journal Special Service.)

Washington, June 12. — A dispatch was received by the navy department at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon from Secretary Metcalf dated Fort Monroe, rela-Probate Stemme Will.

The will of Edward Stemme was admitted to probate in the county court this morning, disposing of property valued at $8,000. The beneficiaries are Mrs. Eva Stemme, mother of the deceased, Mrs. A. A. McRoberts and Emma P. Stemme, sisters, and William H. Stemme, a brother.